The Presentation of the Lord

Today's Reading: Mal 3:1–4; Ps 24:7, 8, 9, 10; Heb 2:14–18; Lk 2:22–40 [22–32]

Today's feast is both magnificent and mysterious: magnificent because the very first contemporaries of Jesus begin to recognize him as Christ, the anointed Savior of the world; mysterious, because this King is still a child, an obscure boy obedient to his earthly parents. The prophet Malachi—living and dying before the coming of Christ—points toward the arrival of the Messiah and encourages God's people to prepare themselves by living generous, holy lives. The Letter to the Hebrews—written after Jesus' ministry, death, and resurrection—renews the prophetic call to holiness, reminding us that the Lord will always help us: "Because he himself was tested through what he suffered, he is able to help those who are being tested." The Gospel reading overflows with examples of joyful men and women living God's call to holiness. Mary, Joseph, Simeon, and Anna show us, in their own ways, how to love Christ.

The list goes on

Today's readings reflect on something close to the heart of every human person: the fulfillment of our deepest desires. Without exception, each of us feels unfulfilled in some way. Despite advances in law, technology, and medicine, every person experiences the frustration of "not yet" or "not enough." Our hearts always want more. God plants this desire in our hearts. God knows how we ache. What most of us fail to believe, deep down, is that God alone satisfies all our longing. We know, theoretically, that the Creator of the universe provides everything we need, but we could all use more quality time with God to consider the question, "What exactly do I need to be happy, Lord?" Perhaps we can spend more time in prayer and service, asking the Lord to show us what is truly important in life.

Always ready for Jesus

We often think, "Once I get this, or once that happens, then I will be happy." But the Gospel shows a better way. All four adults in today's Gospel long deeply for the Messiah and "the consolation of Israel" he will bring. Human temptation might obsess over the promise of future peace and prosperity, leaving only anxiety and resentment for present suffering. But Mary, Joseph, Simeon, and Anna leave the saving of the world to God; for their part, they focus on Jesus. Each of them keeps busy with daily details of the various lifestyles they have chosen. Mary and Joseph concern themselves with raising a family, while Simeon and Anna dedicate their lives to prayer in the temple. They find peace enough in fulfilling the obligations of their stations in life, maintaining a lively prayer life to be attentive to God's action in the world. In today's Gospel, their focus is literally and spiritually on Jesus. They model for us how to be happy and holy: performing their daily duties peacefully, always ready to recognize Jesus as he reveals himself.

Did you Know?

The importance of making rules

As parents, we want our children to see us as their allies and teachers, not just the people who lay down the law. But sometimes, rules are more effective — rules are simple and easy to remember, and leave no room for error. When it comes to your child's safety, rules are critical. And when it comes to your child's body, rules can help them understand how to protect themselves from predators. Establishing rules about who can see or touch their bodies is an important part of preventing child sexual abuse. For more information, request a copy of the VIRTUS® article "Sometimes a rule is more effective than a discussion" from <http://www.la-archdiocese.org/org/protecting/Pages/VIRTUS-Current-Online-Articles.aspx>. Stewardship of Time*

La Presentación del Señor

Lecturas de hoy: Mal 3:1-4; Sal 24 23):7, 8, 9, 10; Heb 2:14-18; Lc 2:22-40 [22-32]

La lista continua

Las lecturas de hoy reflexionan en algo que está cerca del corazón de cada persona: el cumplimiento de nuestros deseos más profundos. Sin excepción, cada uno de nosotros se siente insatisfecho de alguna manera. Pese a los progresos de la ley, la tecnología y la medicina, cada persona experimenta la frustración del “todavía no” o del “no es suficiente”. Nuestros corazones siempre quieren más. Dios planta este deseo en nuestros corazones. Dios sabe cómo sufrimos. Lo que mucho de nosotros fallamos en creer, muy profundamente, es que solo Dios satisface todos nuestros anhelos. Sabemos, teóricamente, que el Creador del universo provee todo lo que necesitamos, pero podríamos dedicar más tiempo de calidad con Dios para considerar la pregunta: “Señor, ¿qué es exactamente lo que necesito para ser feliz?” Quizá podemos dedicar más tiempo en la oración y el servicio, pidiendo al Señor que nos muestre lo que es verdaderamente importante en la vida.

Siempre listos para Jesús

A menudo pensamos “cuando obtenga esto o cuando eso pase, entonces seré feliz”. Pero el Evangelio nos muestra una manera mejor.

En el Evangelio de hoy, los cuatro adultos anhelan profundamente al Mesías y “la consolación de Israel” que él traerá. La tentación humana podría obsesionarse con la promesa de una paz y prosperidad futura, dejando solo la ansiedad y el resentimiento para un presente sufriente. Pero María, José, Simeón y Ana dejan la salvación del mundo a Dios; de su parte, ellos se enfocan en Jesús. Cada uno de ellos están ocupados con sus ocupaciones del día en sus trabajos que eligieron hacer. María y José están preocupados en como proveer a su familia, mientras que Simeón y Ana dedican sus vidas a orar en el Templo. Encuentran suficiente paz al cumplir sus obligaciones en sus estados de vida, manteniendo una vida de oración viva para estar atentos a las acciones de Dios en el mundo. En el Evangelio, sus prioridades están literal y espiritualmente en Jesús. Ellos modelan para nosotros cómo ser feliz y santo; haciendo sus deberes diarios pacíficamente, siempre listos para reconocer a Jesús mientras él se revela a sí mismo.

¿Sabía Usted?

La importancia de establecer reglas

Como padres de familia, queremos que nuestros hijos nos vean como sus aliados y maestros, no solo como las personas que ponen las reglas. Pero algunas veces, las reglas son más efectivas, las reglas son simples y fáciles de recordar, y no dejan lugar a error. Cuando se trata de la seguridad de su hijo/a, las reglas son muy importantes. Y cuando se trata del cuerpo de su hijos o hijas, las reglas pueden ayudarles a entender cómo protegerse a sí mismos de los depredadores. Establecer reglas sobre quién puede ver o tocar sus cuerpos es una parte importante de la prevención del abuso sexual infantil. Para más información, solicite una copia del artículo de VIRTUS® “Sometimes a rule is more effective than a discussion” (Algunas veces una regla es más efectiva que una discusión), en <http://www.la-archdiocese.org/org/protecting/Pages/VIRTUS-Current-Online-Articles.aspx>.

ACADEMIC AWARDS NIGHT

Academics Awards Night at Saint Genevieve High School took place on January 27, 2020. Families were invited to attend the event, which was held in the school gymnasium in the evening. This event is to honor all students with academic achievement of first and second honors. To get first honors, you have to earn a 3.75 or above. To get second honors, you have to earn a 3.5-3.74. 18 freshmen, 13 sophomores, 17 juniors, and 15 seniors had earned second honors. 41 freshmen, 40 sophomores, 32 juniors, and 39 seniors had earned first honors. Earning honors is definitely something to be proud of. In addition to recognizing students that earned honors, students that scored well on their AP exams and students that earned perfect attendance were also honored at the event.

WINTER GUARD SPOTLIGHT

Winter Guard is one of the many extracurricular activities available at Saint Genevieve High School. Winter Guard is an artistic sport, it deals with dance using various objects such as flags and rifles. Those that try-out and make the team will learn a flag dance, and perform within a couple of days during tryouts. Winter Guard is open to Saint Genevieve students in grade 6-12. Students must be willing and able to dance, and be able to learn choreography quickly. Mrs. Brown, the Winter Guard coach, shared, "I love color guard both fall and winter, but I like the winter season more because it's indoors. We can dance to whatever music we want versus the fall when we march with the band." If you are interested in being apart of the Winter Guard, reach out to Mrs. Brown for more information.

TEACHER SPOTLIGHT: MRS. SCHRECK

At St. Genevieve there are countless inspiring and wonderful teachers. One of the teachers that really stands out is Mrs. Schreck. Mrs. Schreck is a theology teacher at Saint Genevieve High School. This year she is teaching freshman and juniors. She joined the SG family in 2018 and is happy and grateful to be part of the community. Mrs. Schreck commented that the best part of working at St. Genevieve is the intangible energy from students, teachers, coaches, and staff that inspire her. When asked about what inspired her to become a religion teacher, Mrs. Schreck said, "I got a call in my heart and thought that is what I am meant to do. I knew I wanted to help people with their life journey". Mrs. Schreck's goal for her students is to be committed to living life at their best where they strive to bring love, peace, compassion, and effort into wherever they land. We are so lucky to have such great teachers at Saint Genevieve High School.

St. Genevieve Elementary

Sixth Grade Spotlight: Natural Born Leaders

St. Genevieve is home to student leaders. Many of them could be found in the sixth grade. One student, Jaylynn Ovid, shares, "I am currently learning how to multiply mixed numbers in math with Mrs. Morales, and in ELA with Mr. Lopez, we are reading a very interesting book titled Stargirl. It is a novel written by Jerry Spinelli. The novel's overall message is about freedom and nonconformity. As a young leader, Jaylynn says she can show her Valiant spirit by supporting and encouraging her fellow classmates and friends to do what's right. For example, students often work in groups, helping each other figure out mathematical problems. They are working as a whole to finish their work together to reach success and that shows great leadership. Even at a young age, they know how to provide guidance for others with a helping hand.

The Robotics Club: Road to Success

There are many after school clubs at St. Genevieve. These extra curricular classes range from chess, dance, taekwondo, musicals, and many more. All activities are outstanding, but there's no other that can build their success like the Robotics Club! One member of the team, Christopher Guinto, has cherished his long experiences in this group since sixth grade. "Robotics is all about building robots for multiple purposes," he exclaims. "The group mainly focuses on teamwork and critical thinking." The coach of the club, Mr. Rios has shown these bright students how to accomplish such goals. "My students are moving forward. We now have 9 teams and 2 middle school teams who will be showcasing their robots in a rally. More girls are joining and competitions are getting harder. Currently, they're learning sensors of distances, motion, and touch," he explains. This is a great example of how starting small, such as joining a simple robotics club, can lead you to a better, successful future in engineering!

WHY IS ST. GENEVIEVE ELEMENTARY SCHOOL THE BEST IN THE VALLEY?

I have been attending St. Genevieve since I was in preschool. Over the years, I have found many reasons why I love it. Whenever I come to school, I am safe and comfortable. I know that many of our campus safety officers ensure that we are safe, and I am very grateful for that. We have energetic teachers to start off our mornings. They make learning fun, and it keeps me interested in the lesson. In almost every class, we have many projects that I love, even in math! Teachers are very supportive by making sure that we are doing well in school. Other than our core classes, we have subjects such as PE, music, and art that focuses on our body, mind, and creativity. I know many of my friends in other schools don't have these! After school is when students get to participate in extra curricular activities such as drumline, choir, dance, tae kwon do, etc. I participate in drumline, and I think it's really fun! Without it, I would've never learned the drums, or taken any interest in playing different percussion instruments. Because of St. Genevieve, I am a more confident student, have great friends, and found a new hobby. These are the reasons why I love my school.

WE ARE L.A. CATHOLICS AND OUR STORY IS ALIVE

We see the need. We respond. This is the story of our faith.

Our history is one of missionary zeal and commitment to the poor and suffering. Each year, we care for children, elderly, families, men and women, immigrants, the homeless, and other vulnerable populations living across L.A., Ventura and Santa Barbara Counties.

Our parishes and schools desire to be the center of community life, reaching out to those in our midst. They work to create moments for evangelization. However, some struggle to keep the lights on. Vibrant ministries, crucial repairs and operating expenses are supplemented by generous donations.

You are the answer to their needs! For over 27 years you have responded to the call to keep our story of faith alive. Together with thousands of Catholics across the Archdiocese, your gifts have enabled our poorest communities to thrive!

Our mission is to sustain parishes and school or missionary discipleship.

In 2020 we will support:
