Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today's Reading: Wis 12:13, 16–19; Ps 86:5–6, 9–10, 15–16; Rom 8:26–27; Mt 13:24–43 [24–30]

A God who judges with leniency and clemency, a Spirit groaning because we know not how to pray, a patient master waiting to separate wheat and weeds, a tiny seed growing into a great bush, and the miracle of yeast and flour! All of these images found in our readings today speak of the unexpected, the countercultural, and of the compassion and intimacy of our relationship with God. Many times we are afraid to come to God in prayer, or we may turn away from our God because of our weakness and sinfulness. We are not presented with a vengeful God who is waiting to smite us, but a God of infinite love and wisdom and patience who will show us the way. What an amazing gift this is!

We need to grow

We live in an instant world of microwaves and drive-throughs and a disposable society in which things quickly become obsolete, so today's message is very strange. In all the readings today, and especially in the Gospel, we see transformation, but it is not something that happens overnight, nor does it take place without effort. We are met with parables of a patient and loving God who can see a positive outcome at the end and is willing to wait and nourish us and help us all get there. The sower's seeds require a growth period and some careful sorting. To make the bread, one must knead it and wait patiently. In planting a mustard seed, something so tiny yields great results, but not until after completing a period of dormancy and waiting.

What is our leaven?

In our own growth, something usually spurs us on and calls us to change. For a young couple who find out they are expecting, this may be the impetus to “grow up” and straighten out their spending habits. For another, perhaps a heart attack or prolonged illness calls one to wake up and gives one a second chance at life. Losing a job or a spouse or surviving a car accident may mean it is time for a “do-over.” Isn't it amazing to realize that we are blessed with a tender, loving God who will walk through all these changes in our lives, who is cajoling us into a better self? Here is a God who doesn't pull the plug because of our sins, but is willing to wait and sort and “gather the wheat.” Let us be grateful for this gift of loving mercy. Recall the simple prayer found in Psalm 86:15–16: “You, O Lord, are a God merciful and gracious, / slow to anger, abounding in kindness and fidelity. / Turn toward me, and have pity on me; / give your strength to your servant.”

Singing the Body of Christ Amid Pandemic Distancing

Zoom Presentation with Fr. Ricky Manalo
Thursday, July 23 from 6:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m.

Who would imagine our church gathering online to celebrate Easter or Sunday Mass on a regular basis? Thankfully, such liturgies are not the norm, however the COVID-19 pandemic is forcing us to radically reconsider our encounter with the Body of Christ and what fuels our lives of faith. How do we “live and breathe and have our being” through a facemask, confined to our homes, and at a distance from one another? How do these changes impact our music ministry, particularly when the sung participation of the assembly remains a significant goal in our contemporary church? And finally, how do we begin to gather again as parishes re-open? This presentation embraces our current “in-between space” and looks at how to sustain our music ministerial integrity during this difficult time for our church, our selves, and so many people in need. Stewardship of Time*

Good Seeds

Today Jesus continues to speak to his followers using parables. What a rich treasure we are given today in three parables about the kingdom of heaven! The kingdom is likened to a man sowing good seed in his field, a mustard seed, and yeast mixed with flour. As they did last week, today the disciples press Jesus for an interpretation of one of the parables—the parable of the man sowing good seed. Lest we think that these parables are simply amusing little anecdotes, Jesus' interpretation should be seen for what it is—a warning. Wailing and grinding of teeth in a fiery furnace await those who are children of the evil one. This parable points to the struggle for today's believer. Sometimes, through sin, we sow weeds and prevent the love of Christ from blossoming. Let today's Gospel help put us back on track. Let us recommit ourselves to preparing for the last days, the harvest, by blossoming as the good seeds we were created in love to be. Stewardship of Treasure*

Practice safe social distancing this summer

As our churches, parks, and stores reopen to the public, it's still important that we maintain good hygiene and practice safe social distancing. As Archbishop Gomez has said, “the coronavirus is still out there, it is still contagious, and it is still dangerous.” As a family, work together to limit the spread of the coronavirus by washing your hands vigorously for at least 20 seconds, wearing masks when out in public (unless your children are too young), and staying home if you feel sick. For more information on social distancing practices, visit <https://angelusnews.com/local/lacatholics/catholic-churches-in-archdiocese-of-la-to-reopen-under-phased-plan/>.

Decimosexto Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Lecturas de hoy: Sab 12:13, 16–19; Sal 86 (85):5–6, 9–10, 15–16; Rom 8:26–27; Mt 13:24–43 [24–30]

Necesitamos crecer

Vivimos en un mundo instantáneo de microondas, comida rápida entregada en ventanillas y en una sociedad desechable en la que las cosas se vuelven obsoletas tan rápido, por lo que el mensaje de hoy es muy extraño. En todas las lecturas de hoy y especialmente la del Evangelio, vemos la transformación, pero no es algo que ocurra de la noche a la mañana, ni tampoco pasa sin esfuerzo. Nos encontramos con parábolas de un Dios paciente y amoroso que puede ver un resultado positivo al final y está dispuesto a esperar, a alimentarnos y ayudarnos a todos a llegar allí. Las semillas del sembrador necesitan de un tiempo para crecer y de cuidados. Para preparar el pan, se debe amasar la masa y esperar pacientemente. Al plantar una semilla de mostaza, algo tan pequeño que produce grandiosos resultados, pero solo hasta que cumpla un periodo de inactividad y espera.

¿Cuál es nuestra levadura?

¿Cómo organizamos? ¿Reducimos? ¿Nos dedicamos de nuevo a Cristo y a nuestro llamado al Evangelio? Apúntate para ayudar en algún apostolado o ministerio, o se voluntario para ayudar en el catecismo para niños. Intégrate a un pequeño grupo de fe. Hazte voluntario en un banco de comida o en Hábitat para la Humanidad. Involúcrate personalmente o como familia. Mientras tanto, regresa a casa, comprométete a revisar un cajón cada día, y toma las cosas a la tienda de segunda cerca de tu casa o al banco de ropa más cercano. Recuerda las oraciones de los alimentos y de la noche antes de irte a dormir. Dedica un minuto para leer las Escrituras del día. Da pasos de bebé. No es ninguna ciencia espacial. Es un compromiso continuo de llevarnos a nosotros mismos como somos, y responder al llamado de Jesús a “venir”.

Del Centro Parroquial

Buenas Semillas

Hoy Jesús continua hablando en parábolas con sus seguidores. ¡Qué rico tesoro nos regalan las tres parábolas sobre el Reino de los cielos! El Reino se parece: a un hombre que siembra buena semilla en su campo, a una semilla de mostaza y a la levadura que se mezcla en la harina. Al igual que la semana pasada, hoy los discípulos piden que Jesús les interprete una de las parábolas —la parábola del hombre que siembra buena semilla. Para que no pensemos que estas parábolas son simples anécdotas entretenidas, la interpretación de Jesús debe considerarse como lo que es —una advertencia. Llanto y desesperación esperan a los hijos del maligno. Esta parábola señala la lucha del creyente de hoy. A veces, por el pecado, sembramos cizaña y evitamos que el amor de Cristo florezca. Que el Evangelio de hoy nos ayude a retornar al buen camino. Comprometámonos a prepararnos para los días finales, para el tiempo de cosecha, floreciendo como buenas semillas creadas por el amor. Santa Brigida de Suecia

23 de julio

Brígida fue una persona bendecida por Dios, no sólo porque desde muy pequeña abrigó en su ser el deseo de ser santa, sino porque en su proceso de santidad Dios le concedió tener visiones de la Pasión de Nuestro Señor Jesucristo. En estas experiencias místicas recibió mensajes de Nuestro Señor, que después transmitió a los líderes de la Iglesia. También fue esposa y madre, pues aunque se casó muy joven, supo inculcar en sus hijos el amor a la santidad, tanto así que una hija suya, Catalina de Suecia, es venerada como santa. Junto con su esposo Ulf, fueron parte de la corte durante dos años, de hecho, ella podía llegar a ser la reina, pero no se interesó por los puestos o por la vida cómoda, antes bien, vistió con sencillez y motivó a los reyes de Suecia a que fueran santos. Vivió la caridad de una manera profunda con los pobres y enfermos, pues una vez que enviudó, fundó la Orden Religiosa del Santísimo Redentor, dedicándose de entero a la caridad con los necesitados.

Practique el distanciamiento social de una manera segura este verano

En la medida en que nuestras iglesias, parques y tiendas reabran al público, sigue siendo importante que mantengamos una buena higiene y prácticas de distanciamiento social seguras. Como ha dicho el Arzobispo Gomez, “el coronavirus sigue estando ahí, sigue siendo contagioso, y todavía es peligroso”. Trabajen juntos como familia para limitar la propagación del coronavirus, lavándose las manos vigorosamente por al menos 20 segundos, usando mascarilla cuando salga en público (a menos que sus hijos sean muy pequeños), y manteniéndose en casa si se siente enfermo/a. Para obtener más información sobre prácticas de distanciamiento social, visite <https://angelusnews.com/local/la-catholics/catholic-churches-in-archdiocese-of-la-to-reopen-under-phased-plan/>. *Corresponsabilidad de Tiempo

Knights of Columbus
St. Genevieve Council 14772 Installation of Officers & Directors
CY 2020-2021

As the saying goes... show must go on and it did. In spite of limited resources and strict rules and regulations during the pandemic, the Knights of Columbus St. Genevieve Council 14772 managed to proceed with the installation of the new officers and directors for the Columbian year 2020-2021. This memorable event was held early today, with social distancing strictly observed during the entire simplified ceremony. The ceremony was headed by the newly installed worthy District Deputy (#85) Alex Quadra and the Council Chaplain Reverend Father Alden J. Sison. It all started with a special blessing from Fr. Alden J. Sison during the 10 am Sunday mass, then immediately followed by the installation ceremony proper. Only selected friends and families were invited due to the CDC strict ruling and no fellowship after.

Congratulations to the newly installed Officers and Directors of
