A Note from Our Pastor,

I wish you and your loved ones all the blessings of this 2022 Easter Season! My column this week consists of an Easter homily by St. Augustine, bishop of Hippo in North Africa. He is a Doctor (i.e. exceptional teacher) of the Church who lived from 354 until 430. He has made an enormous contribution to Christian theology and was renowned for his preaching. The following is from his Sermon 88, adapted from the English translation found on pages 179–181 in Christ Our Light: Patristic Readings on Gospel Themes, Volume 1. Riverdale, MD: Exordium Books, 1981.

My dear people, you, like myself, are well aware that our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ is the one physician capable of bringing us eternal healing and salvation. We know, too, that it was in order to accomplish this that he took upon himself the weakness of our human nature; otherwise that weakness would have remained with us forever. He equipped himself with a human body liable to death, so that in and through that body he might conquer death itself. And though, as the Apostle [Paul] tells us, it was his human weakness that made it possible for him to be crucified, it was his divine power that enabled him to return to life.

This week's Clergy Trust Easter collection raises critical funds to ensure the health and well-being of all diocesan priests in good standing. Whether it is within our parish communities or in the community at large, our priests are making a difference every day. Thank you for your continued support!

The same Apostle says, “Christ will never die again; neither will death have any further hold upon him.” All this you already know and believe, and also the consequences flowing from it; we can be sure that the miracles he accomplished while he lived among us were meant to encourage us to accept gifts from him that should never pass away nor have an end. Thus he gave back sight to blind eyes that would shortly be closed again in death; he raised Lazarus from the dead only for him to die again. His bodily cures, indeed, were never meant to last forever, even though at the end of time he is to give the body itself life everlasting. But because “seeing is believing,” he used those visible wonders to build up people’s faith in even greater marvels that could not be seen.

Let no one then be found to say that since Christ Jesus our Lord no longer works such miracles among us, the Church was better off in its early days. On the contrary, in one recorded statement, the same Lord sets those who have never seen and yet believe ahead of those who believe only because they see. Indeed, so great was the disciples’ weakness at that time, that when they saw the Lord they found it necessary to touch him before they could believe that he had really risen from the dead. They were unable to believe the testimony of their own eyes, until they had handled his body and explored his recent wounds with their fingers. Only after this was done could that most hesitant of all his disciples [Thomas] exclaim, “My Lord and my God!” Thus it was by his wounds that Christ, who had so often healed the manifold wounds of others, came to be recognized himself.

Now we may ask: could not the Lord have risen with a body from which all marks of wounds had been erased? No doubt he could have; but he knew his disciples bore within their hearts a wound so deep that the only way to cure it was to retain the scars of his own wounds in his body. And when that confession, “My Lord and my God!” was uttered, what was his answer to it? “You believe,” Christ said, “because you have seen me; blessed are those who have not seen and yet believe.”

And who, my brothers and sisters, are “those” if not ourselves and those who are to follow after us? When, later on, the Lord had departed from human sight and faith had had time to strike roots into people’s hearts, those who believed in him made their act of faith without seeing him in whom they made it. The faith of such believers is highly meritorious, for it springs from a devoted heart rather than from an exploring hand.

May the Lord grant you and your loved ones a blessed and joyous Easter Season!

Fr. Palardy

For the two week period of April 10–23, the Vigil Candle above the Tabernacle will be lit in memory of all deceased members of Saint Agatha Parish. May the light of God’s love surround you.

FEATURED WEEKLY READING

Read      Reflect      Respond

THEME: We are a resurrection people!

As you hear this reading, what words or phrases strike you? What in this reading touches your heart? What lingers in your memory?

Gospel: John 20:1-9

On the first day of the week,
Mary of Magdala came to the tomb early in the morning,
while it was still dark,
and saw the stone removed from the tomb.
So she ran and went to Simon Peter and to the other disciple whom Jesus loved, and told them, “They have taken the Lord from the tomb,
and we don’t know where they put him.”
So Peter and the other disciple went out and came to the tomb.
They both ran, but the other disciple ran faster than Peter and arrived at the tomb first;
he bent down and saw the burial cloths there, but did not go in.
When Simon Peter arrived after him,
he went into the tomb and saw the burial cloths there,
and the cloth that had covered his head,
not with the burial cloths but rolled up in a separate place.
Then the other disciple also went in,
the one who had arrived at the tomb first,
and he saw and believed.
For they did not yet understand the Scripture that he had to rise from the dead.

MISSION STATEMENT

St. Agatha Parish is a Christian Community of Catholics from Milton, Quincy and beyond, whose Mission is to demonstrate Love by:

- proclaiming and celebrating God’s Presence on earth;
- being open and welcoming to all;
- reaching out to our sisters and brothers near and far;
providing opportunities for prayer, service, education and recreation.
- In living this Mission, we accept our responsibility for giving witness to the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

OPERATIONS UPDATE

Happy Easter! On this day we reflect in a special way on the presence of Jesus in our lives. We are especially grateful to God the Father for the gift of his Son who rose on Easter Sunday to bring us new life. The many ministries that have been the backbone of our community for so many years continue to proclaim our Faith. One need only look around at the literally hundreds of parishioners who volunteer their time and talent to enhance our worship through Word, Song and Sacrament. Many people give of themselves to volunteer with our youth through the Confirmation, EDGE and CYO Basketball programs. Social outreach with our youth is still very much present as evidenced by the upcoming Mission trip to Appalachia. All of these—and many, many more—are poignant examples of how our community fulfills its mission to be disciples of Jesus.

Also, a big congratulations to the St. Agatha’s 5/6 grade boys basketball team. The team won the 2022 New England CYO Basketball Tournament Championship held recently in Burlington, VT. More details and a team photo appear later in this bulletin.

Hope everybody enjoys their Easter and has a great week!
