October 19, 2025: World Mission Sunday

Thank you for your generosity at the second collection last weekend for Society for the Propagation of the Faith. The society strives to follow the mission of Pope Leo XIV which is to spread the gospel message throughout the world. Through your generosity we are able to form the future of the Church.

Stewardship

a way of life

In last week's readings, we were encouraged to remain persistent and constant in our prayer life. Today, we focus on the proper attitude of a steward at prayer.

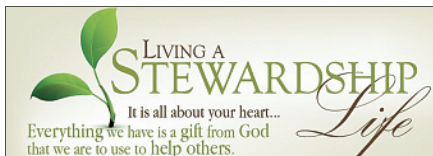

In the Gospel passage from Luke, Jesus illustrates the humble attitude we must have as we approach God in prayer through a parable of two praying men. One is a Pharisee, a man with respected status, theological training, and all the right credentials. He marches right up to the front of the temple to speak a prayer "to himself," thanking God for making him just a little bit superior to everyone else!

The other man is a tax collector, known by those of his day to be a cheater and a sell-out to his fellow Jews. In contrast to the Pharisee, he stands near the back and cries out to God in a simple and honest way: "Be merciful to me a sinner."

Jesus tells us that it is the tax collector and not the Pharisee who leaves the temple justified. Why?

The Pharisee was full of self as he approached God. He felt no real need for God as he rattled off his resume of good works and spiritual practices. He was simply going through the motions of prayer. His lack of humility prevented him from entering into a real dialogue with the Father. He was not transformed by his time of prayer because he was so full of himself that He left God no space to enter in.

The tax collector, by contrast, emptied himself as he approached God. He recognized who he truly was (a sinner) and asked simply for mercy, leaving all the rest up to God. This is the kind of attitude that God can work with! This is how a good steward prays — with trust, with complete openness to God's will, with a listening mind and heart, ready to serve as God leads.

Active Parishioner

An active parishioner is one who has been registered in the parish for at least six months, attends Mass each Sunday, and participates in the life of the parish through stewardship of time, talent and treasure. An active parishioner status is required for verification of Catholic school tuition rates, to serve as a godparent or sponsor.

FALL FESTIVAL IS TODAY!

Fall is here, get your costumes ready! Children 6th grade and younger are invited to the Fall Festival —Today, Sunday, October 26th from 1pm - 3pm in the JAC and back parking lot. Come and enjoy games, crafts, trunk-or-treating and lots more!

Admission fee is $5 per child, up to $20 per family.

Friendly reminder to all:

Dear friends, The most holy sacrament of the Eucharist invites us to reflect. We encourage you to take time before the Mass to gather quietly into His presence and allow your fellow parishioners to do the same. The Celebration of Mass is the source and summit of our faith. Please remember that there is no food or drink permitted. We are to fast from food and drink one hour before receiving the Eucharist, this includes chewing gum. (Anyone on medication follows their medication guideline).

PRAYER

Tuesday night Rosary in the chapel at 7:00 pm

Join us for the Rosary on Tuesday evenings at 7:00 pm in the Chapel. The Rosary is also said at 8:00 am on Monday, Thursday & Friday prior to the Morning Mass. Our Beautiful Blessed Mother hears our pleas & is there for all of us. On the 1st Tuesday of each month a special prayer to St Monica is prayed for our loved ones who have fallen away from their faith.

The Chapel of Reservation

The Chapel of Reservation is open 7 days a week, 24 hours a day as a place for reflection and prayer. Punch in the code 2654. The door will remain unlocked for 10 seconds and it will lock behind you. Use the door handle to exit.

PRAYER SHAWL MINISTRY

Prayer shawls are made with yarn and prayers to bring God's comfort to people who are suffering in body, mind and spirit. If you would like to receive a prayer shawl for yourself or know someone who would benefit from one, please call Jan Nelson at 817-496-9646 or Jo-Lee Buncic at 817-454-3065.

PRAYER CHAIN

Do you or a loved one need prayers?
Please call

Marilyn Dietrich for the Prayer Chain at 817-366-3550 or e-mail at glyn68mar@aol.com and leave your request.

DME MINISTRY

If you would like to donate or need to borrow an item, such as crutches, canes, walkers, commodes, wheelchairs and other durable medical equipment contact Scott Ericson at 817-454-1354 or me@svdpc.org.

PRAYER CONTINUES

Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time - October 26, 2025

"For whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and the one who humbles himself will be exalted." (Luke 18:14)

Humility is essential to every vocation. Encourage your children to practice humility in their own lives and to ask God's guidance on their unique calling. If you feel your children are being drawn to serve the Church, support them in following that path with an open heart by talking with a priest, religious coordinator, or diocesan vocation director.

Religious vocations from our Church family

Father Isaac McCracken, ordained to the Priesthood on May 24th, is assigned to Holy Family Parish.

Please keep Father Isaac and his family in your prayers.

Camryn Sulak is a novice and has been given the name Sr. Lily Veronica in the Order of Sisters of Life, New York.

Please keep Sr. Lily Veronica and her family in your prayers .

Macey Angadicheril has taken her final vows in the Order of the Franciscans of the Eucharist, Chicago.

Please keep Sr Macey in your prayers.

Eucharistic Adoration

"In this world it is impossible for all subjects to speak with their king. But everyone who wishes can find Jesus, the King of Heaven, in the Blessed Sacrament, and may speak with Him without restraint."

-St Theresa of Avila, Church Doctor and Mystic

Eucharistic Adoration is available every Friday following morning Mass and ending in Benediction at 7:00 pm. Two people need to be present at all times. Please consider committing one hour or sharing an hourly commitment with a friend. Once you have committed, if you cannot make your committed time, there is no need to find your own substitute. Just call the office at 817-478-8206 and we will find a replacement for you!
