FIFTEENTH SUNDAY

IN ORDINARY TIME

Jesus summoned the Twelve and began to send them out two by two and gave them authority over unclean spirits. He said to them, "Wherever you enter a house, stay there until you leave. Whatever place does not welcome you or listen to you, leave there and shake the dust off your feet in testimony against them."

- Mk 6:7, 10-11

Traveling “light”

It starts innocently enough: a chafing dish here, a set of coffee mugs there. The next thing you know, you’re buried under an avalanche of “stuff.”

In her book Lots of Candles, Plenty of Cake, Anna Quindlen writes about her own battle with consumerism, from her first one-room apartment to marriage, when the flood began. She writes:

“One day I peered inside my closet and realized it looked like it belonged to a woman with multiple personality disorder. The bohemian look, the sharp suits, the frilly dresses. Those days are behind me, and I finally know whom I’m dressing: a person who has 18 pairs of black pants.”

But the day comes when we realize we no longer care about most of our stuff.

“We all used to say it was photo albums, but with digital photography we all have our pictures on computer. My cookbooks are well-thumbed, but I know the best recipes by heart now . . . There’s a porcelain bird I gave my mother the Christmas before she died which she owned for less than a month, and which I’ve wrapped carefully in tissue and taken with me from the small apartment to the bigger apartment to the first house to the bigger house . . . But in case of disaster, I’d probably just grab a few old family photos and the Labradors. I’d be wearing the watch and the rings my husband gave me . . . I haven’t removed the wedding ring since the day he put it on me and the priest blessed it. I’d miss the rest, but I wouldn’t mourn it.”

It comes to this, Quindlen writes: “There is now so much stuff in my head. Memories and lessons learned have taken the place of possessions.”

In sending the Twelve on their first mission, Jesus instructs them to “travel light”: to focus on the journey and the ministry with which they have been entrusted, not with accumulating wealth, status and power along the way. Clearing out the clutter of our lives to make room in our lives for the things of God is a constant struggle for all of us; but we have been called by Jesus to focus our lives on the treasures of this life given us by God — love, reconciliation, forgiveness, compassion, joyful generosity, hopeful mercy — that are found within our hearts and kept safe in our memory.

We're Here Throughout The Summer!

Join Us For Faith And Fun!

In July We Are: God's Happy Campers!

Our Kids Church camping adventure began as the little ones selected the perfect campsite. With tambourines in hand, everyone joyfully resounded "We Can Praise The Lord!" The children heard the Bible story of how the people built a special place for God, called a Tabernacle. When we come to Kid's Church, we are able to give glory and praise to God for all that He does for us and our families everyday. Last Sunday, we packed up our boat and embarked on a fishing trip with our friends Andrew, James, John and Peter. An essential item for all fishermen is of course Worms! (in our case, gummy worms). The little ones each held this little worm made of gelatin and sugar. They were able to pull and stretch it out quite easily. The message of this object lesson activity was that God stretches us like a potter who shapes a lump of clay into something useful. God wants to make us into something amazing and awesome so that we can continue spreading the Good News!

Last week 9 gallon bags of lettuce were picked and delivered to our Food Pantry...

Would you believe that 9 families had signed up for food last week?! 9 families in need and 9 bags of lettuce collected!!! God works in mysterious ways.

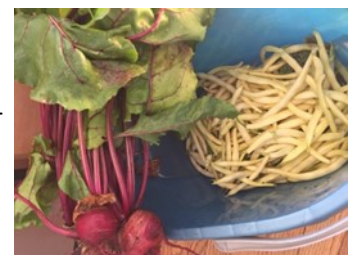

Yellow beans and beets were also picked from our gardens and given to the Food Pantry!

We have an AMAZING and dedicated group of parishioners and community volunteers tending to our gardens at the Mary Queen of Peace campus and the Hawkins Glen location!

Because of their compassion we are able to grow vegetables to supply our Food Pantry.

We are in need of tomato cages for our many tomato plants!!!

If you are able to donate any, please drop off at the parish offices. Thank You !!!!
