

Located at 191 Salem Street in Lawrence, the Cor Unum Meal Center opened its doors on September 30, 2006. Since it's opening, it has provided breakfast and dinner – DAILY – to the needy of the area. The meal center employs a small staff, but is greatly dependent on volunteers to help prepare and serve meals to anyone who comes to the door.

Breakfast is served from 6-8am, and dinner from 4:30-6:30pm every day of the year.

Please consider volunteering on the 3rd Thursday of the month. It's a small commitment with great rewards. If Thursdays are not convenient, there are many opportunities to volunteer. Check the Cor Unum website at corunummealcenter.org to find a day and time that works for you.

As Christians, we are instructed to feed the hungry (Matthew Chapter 25 verses 31-40). Volunteering at Cor Unum is an enjoyable way to fulfill this obligation.
