- Wisdom 1:13-15; 2:23-24 - God's justice and its rejection by the wicked
- 2 Corinthians 8:7, 9, 13-15 - Liberal giving

Adults: When have you felt enriched by a sacrifice you made for another?

Celebrate Fr. Don Braukmann in His Retirement

Talks for your Commute: Audios for your Drive

- Fan or Follower In this talk, Jeff Cavins shares how he has come to see that Jesus wants us to surrender every bit of our own comfort to follow Him. There are many fans of Jesus in this world, but we are also called to be His disciples.
- From Love By Love For Love Father Michael Schmitz tackles some of the most difficult topics in the Church today. With compassion, clarity, and humor, he shows that the Church's teachings on contraception and same-sex attraction are rooted in the yearnings for authentic love that is shared by all, for everyone is made in the image and likeness of God.
- Can you Trust God? Since the fall of our first parents, humanity has been tempted to mistrust God the Father's love for us. Scripture scholar Dr. Tim Gray takes us on a journey that addresses the pervasive misconceptions that God is quick to anger, that the God of the Old and New Testaments are different, and that God doesn't have a merciful heart

Care for Our Soil

"Soil is really a bunch more precious than oil. Not many people stop to think about that, but we really till the soil of our own graves and we just have to start paying way more attention to the soil that we've got left."

-- Kelley O'Neill, a Rushford, MN farmer

Independence Day Prayer

Lord, we stand today as our forefathers have stood before You in times gone by, Celebrating our history and reveling in all the great things that our country has achieved. On this day we rejoice in the favor You have graciously given us. We thank You for the blessings of liberty, for this generation and for the generations to come. We thank You for our independence, peace and for all those who have bravely given their lives in the defense of freedom and justice. We thank You that Your gracious and provident hand has given us so much.

Yet as a nation and people we have not always chosen the right way. We ask You to forgive us for these times. On this day we commit ourselves to wholeheartedly honoring and serving You. With everything that we are, we lay our lives before You. Make us a generous people, A holy nation, A people set aside to love You forever, For the sake of the land of the brave and free, And the peoples and nations of this world.

Today, we do not presume Your grace for our country. Our land is in need of You, Our people are in need of You, Our industry and business is in need of You. May we look only to You This Independence Day, dependent on You.

Please come now by Your glorious Holy Spirit, Breathe new life into the sinews of this nation. May justice flow like rivers, And righteousness like a never failing stream, Until the whole of our country is covered with Your glory, As the waters cover the sea.

We ask all this in the wonderful name of Jesus,

Readings & Reflections -- 9:15 AM - SHC Hall

Next Sunday -- 14th Sunday of Ordinary Time:

We have all been in need of something at some time, maybe even begging for it. We all have had many experiences of needing to ask for a favor or a need to be met of someone. When it comes to asking God for things, what is it we ask him for? Do we seek comfort - health, wealth, job security, or whatever other dream is the “end all be all” in our minds? Or, do we seek virtues like patience, humility, compassion, meekness, and so on? God will grant us the spiritual gifts we ask for, as we cooperate with his grace and

“The rain fell, the floods came, / and the winds blew and buffeted the house./ And it collapsed and was completely ruined.” (Matt. 7:27)

It may be many years before the names: Harvey, Irma, Matthew, Sandy, or Katrina do not evoke terrible hurricane memories in people of coastal regions. Storm-ravaged communities will never be completely restored to their former condition.

In the words above, Jesus speaks in hurricane terms to describe the immense spiritual risk of neglecting to learn from his teachings.

Culturally, we are living in times as dangerous as those of Jesus' own day. Amid clashing worldviews and values, whole communities live in open conflict with each other and the prospect of reconciliation looks dim. Catastrophic weather events scourge the coastlines while wildfires burn mountain ranges.

Jesus urgent images feel very timely. Even more, his summons to know and do the will of god is one that we cannot afford to ignore.

Our society will not be saved by political movements, though some may push for outcomes that God intends. Our climate will not be sectorred to equilibrium by environmentalists, though earth-care is a crucial pursuit.

Our salvation will come about through divine transformation of human hearts.

Let us seek to be changed, to know and carry out God's will.
