July 15, 2018 - 15th Sunday in Ordinary

Time: "He instructed them to take nothing for the journey but a walking stick – no food, no sack, no money in their belts." MARK 6:8

How different we are from the Apostles who took nothing when they ventured out to serve God. Today, we make our life's journey more difficult because of all the material baggage that we drag along. When we really put God first in everything and put money and possessions second, we experience more freedom to joyfully serve God and others.

A vocation is a call from God to lay down one's life in service to others as a husband and father, religious brother, a single person, or as a priest.

God created you for a purpose. True happiness comes when you follow the plan God has for you. Do you want to know how to find out what that plan is? -- Come and you will see!

Readings & Reflections -- 9:15 AM - SHC Hall

Next Sunday -- 16th Sunday of Ordinary Time:

We are lost in the dense jungle of this world and are made for heaven. We all long to get there, but we encounter so many needs along the way. If we aren't careful, searching to fill those needs can replace our true compass. Instead of focusing on searching for home, we can be consumed by never being hungry, cold, or lonely.

When that happens, we end up living a life full of the shells of the things we are made for. Our true hunger and loneliness can't be filled by this world. But God hasn't left us alone in this jungle – he sent us his only Son to lead us home to him. Jesus is our true compass. He is our Good Shepherd. He is the way, the truth, and the life.

Sheepish Question:

What practical matters worry me as I keep my eyes on the Gospel's prize?

Sr. Thea Bowman

When I first found out I had cancer, I didn't know what to pray for. I didn't know if I should pray for healing or life or death.

Then I found peace in praying for what my folks call “God’s perfect will.”

As it has evolved, my prayer has become, “Lord, let me live until I die.”

By that I mean I want to live, love, and serve fully until death comes.

Church Night at the County Fair - 7 PM - this Sunday Eve

It will be an evening of music and testimony that will be an encouragement to all ages. We are celebrating 50 years of God's Faithfulness! Church Night has been taking place for that long!

*The Fair Board starts at 7 pm and we will follow the National Anthem and county awards ceremonies.

It's a great night to gather together and kick off the Roseau County Fair on a positive note!

The offering this year will go to: Sunshine Hospitality House in Grand Forks. Sunshine opened this week and is available to help people with lodging needs during a time of medical need. They tell us that 25% of the need for use of this house will come from Roseau County. This is a very worthy cause.

It's going to be a great night of worship and testimony (including Amy Johnson) to our Faithful God!

Bring a friend! See you there!!

“The face-to-face vision of God will produce in us a love of God so strong, so absolute that nothing can ever destroy it nor even diminish it. It will produce a love built on admiration, respect, and gratitude, but above all on friendship, with the simplicity and familiarity that this love presupposes. Through such a love we will enjoy above all else that God is God, that He is infinitely holy, infinitely merciful, infinitely just.”

-Fr. Reginald Garrigou-Lagrange
