EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION at Sacred Heart Thank you for answering His call to adore His Real Presence in the Eucharist. By saying "yes" to Him who has invited you, you become one of a long line of worshipers throughout the centuries who have answered His Call, extending from the angels, shepherds, and Magi at the stable in Bethlehem to our Adorers here in Nashville. This mystical union of adoring souls has sustained the very heart of the Church. –Aquinas College of Nashville

He would be the man closest to Christ." by FORMED

Reflections – FORMED.org - Next Sunday Feb.7th
5th Sun of OT — Though we may never fully understand suffering, we can be certain that God desires to heal us and bring value into our suffering. He sent us his only Son to suffer and die for our salvation, and through this mystery we can glimpse how suffering can make us more like him. But we first need to ask for him to heal us in our suffering. We see Jesus beginning that work today in the little town of Capernaum, and he longs to continue that same work in each of our lives. Join our online FB event for videos & reflections.

"Brothers and sisters: I should like you to be free of anxieties."
 - 1 Corinthians 7:32

How much anxiety do we bring upon ourselves by constantly worrying about not having enough or attaining more things? God won't necessarily give you everything you want, but He will provide everything you need. Try this - use the word "pray" instead of the word "worry" in the future. Then pray for things instead of worrying about them.

Sheepish Question:

Why is simply living ethically and serving others not enough?

Where there is faith, there is hope! This is the theme for the 2021 Diocesan Annual Appeal. What a wonderful thought it is for us as we enter the second season of life contending with COVID-19. Our faith consoles us and gives us hope for a brighter year. Next Sunday, we will announce the 2021 Diocesan Annual Appeal by hearing Bishop Hoepfner's letter read from the ambo. We begin discerning our support for our faith, our parishes and diocese in the coming year. Check out our website and donate online: www.crookston.org/DAA.

Your February subscription to the Word Among Us is now available at the church entrance.

To keep cost down, we order in bulk. We ask for a $1 donation per book to be placed in the collection basket. Thank you!

'Rebuild My Church' by Columbia

THE YEAR WAS 1205. Francis was a handsome young man, a son of a wealth who seemed to have it all — but worldly riches no longer satisfied him, and he questioned his purpose in life. One day while praying in an abandoned chapel outside of the city of Assisi, he had a mystical experience: The icon of Christ on the crucifix there said to him, "Francis, go and repair my house, which you can see is falling in ruins." Renouncing his inheritance, Francis set out to restore the dilapidated San Damiano chapel with his own hands. In time, however, he came to understand the deeper meaning of Christ's words.

Pope Francis recounted the famous story of his namesake in an address to young people at the 2013 World Youth Day in Rio de Janeiro. He explained: "Slowly but surely, Francis came to realize that it was not a question of repairing a stone building, but about doing his part for the life of the Church. It was a matter of being at the service of the Church, loving her and working to make the countenance of Christ shine ever more brightly in her."

St. Francis of Assisi committed himself to a life of poverty and preaching the Gospel, and he soon founded religious orders that grew rapidly. He became instrumental in the renewal of the faith in the 13th century and had an enduring impact on the Church. He is even credited with creating the first Nativity scene — staged with live actors and animals in a cave in 1223 — to help the faithful contemplate the birth of Christ.

More than eight centuries later, St. Francis' experience in the San Damiano chapel takes on a special significance for Knights of Columbus today. The birthplace of the Order, St. Mary's Church in New Haven, Conn., continues to be an active parish with many young families and Knights — as it was in Father McGivney's day. But plaster on the walls and ceiling of the 145 year old building has fallen into disrepair, and a critical restoration project is now underway.

While assistance is needed to find the restoration, Knights everywhere are also called to an even more urgent project — working for renewal of the Church. In the face of scandals, indifference and hostility toward the faith, authentic Christian witness is needed today more than ever. This requires, in part, that we faithfully live the principles of charity, unity and fraternity in all we do.

The rate of the church attendance in many parts of the Western world is at record lows, while the stock market reaches record highs. But as St. Francis learned as a young man, the search for fulfillment in the things of this world always comes up short. It is an important lesson to remember, especially as we seek to grow in faith and share the Good News with those around us: In the end, it is only Jesus Christ, born in a manger, who can fulfill the human heart.

COMMUNITY EVENTS

HELPP organization in Warroad - looking to help establish a HELPP type organization in other local communities -- Rick Corneliusen, president of the HELPP organization in Warroad, spoke to the Roseau Ministerium on Wed. Jan.27 about the work of their organization in Warroad and their desire to offer help in establishing a similar organization in Roseau, Baudette and other neighboring communities. HELPP was organized by a group of persons of the Warroad area in 2016 with the mission of responding to persons of the Warroad School District who were undergoing personal financial emergencies and hardships due to illness, house fire or other serious difficulty. Since 2016 they have given out over $118,000 in gas and grocery cards mainly for medical travel to larger medical facilities. All gas and grocery cards are purchased from local businesses and given to local people from the Warroad School District. They have also raised funds for other local charities. Their goal in 2021 is to help establish similar organizations in other local communities. Their help will include financial support to get started. More information is available at: helppwarroad.com or at HELPP, Inc on Facebook. If you or someone you know might be interested in such an organization for the Roseau community please contact Rick Corneliusen at 242-2263 or by email at Rickcor66@gmail.com to get in on their plans for this year.
