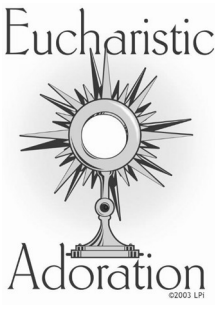
EUCHARISTIC ADORATION at Sacred Heart



It is enough for me that you are hear. I do not ask anything else of you. It is your adoring, loving presence that My Heart wants from you. In this way, you will console Me and make reparation for so much coldness, ingratitude, and indifference. I am here for you. Be here for Me. Know that my Eucharistic Heart is open to receive you, to comfort you, to strengthen you, and to purify you in the Blood and Water that ever flow from My pierced side.

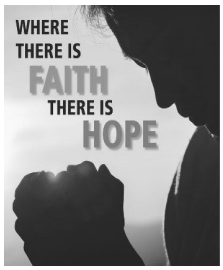
Today is COMMITMENT SUNDAY for the Diocesan Annual Appeal!



Last year our diocese was unable to reach the overall goal. But even facing the obstacles that we did, with people absent from the pews, cautions, facing job losses and on the tail of a very tough season for our farmers, the faithful in the Diocese of Crookston made contributions of an outstanding 95% of the 2020 Diocesan Annual Appeal Goal.

Thank you and please be generous once again!

BLACK AND INDIAN MISSION OFFICE EST.1884

NEXT Sunday— Black & Indian Missions Collection

Thanks to the everyday generosity of thousands of Christ's faithful people across the United States, the three organizations of the Black and Indian Mission Office are able to help build the Church in Native American and African American communities.

There are several ways you can join our Mission to the Missions: Pray, Your prayer support is critical! "With all prayer and supplication, pray at every opportunity in the Spirit. To that end, be watchful with all perseverance and supplication for all the holy ones". (Eph 6:18). Fast, four acts of prayerful fasting can help move mountains!

The penitence of the individual Christian also has an intimate relationship of its own with the whole ecclesial community – Paenitemini, apostolic letter on prayer and fasting by Pope Paul VI. Give Alms, without your financial help, our "mission to the missions" turns into a mission to no one. Giving alms to the poor is one of the chief witnesses to fraternal charity: it is also a work of justice pleasing to God. – Catechism of the Catholic Church, 2447

Reflections – FORMED.org - Next Sunday Feb.21st
1st Sun of Lent — In her wisdom, the Church gives us this reading at the beginning of Lent because Jesus is giving us an example of what the season of Lent is meant to be for us. Lent is a time to remember the reality of our life on earth. In the way that Lent prepares us for Easter, our life on earth is meant to prepare us for heaven—the eternal Easter. We are battling against evil in the desert of this world, with the hope of the resurrection on the other side. Lent draws us into this reality and prepares us for this battle. Join our online FB event for videos & reflections.

ST. MARY'S, BADGER

St. Mary's -- Thank you to Brent Walsh for fixing the sticky doors to the classrooms.

Prayers are asked for Don Blazek (Phyllis E. brother) who suffered a stroke on Jan. 29 while in Florida. Hospitalized for one week, he is now at Brookdale Rehab Center, 11190 Health Park Blvd., Naples, FL 34114 (Rm.1202) where he will have therapy for right side paralysis and other issues. Thankfully, his mind is clear and he is able to visit. Looking forward to getting back to Minnesota.

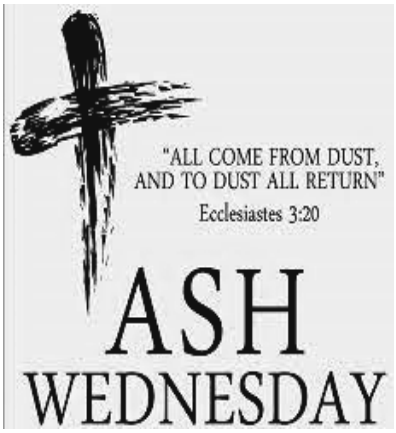
"If you wish, you can make me clean."

Sheepish Question:
If I asked, what would Jesus cleanse from me that I'm not seeing?

"Brothers and sisters, whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do everything for the glory of God." - 1 Corinthians 10:31

Do a quick check of your priorities. Where does God rank in that list? If He's not first, you have some work to do. Putting God first in everything helps us from putting other "gods" (like our pride, ego, money and possessions) before God. Before making a decision, ask yourself, "Am I doing this for the glory of God or for the glory of me?"



"Your father who sees in secret will repay you." - Matthew 6:1-6, 16-18 Lord, help me to experience more of your blessings this Lent.

7 Signs of a Functional Relationship

by CatholicMatch Institute

During my year studying Interpersonal Communications, I was introduced to the work of one of the top researchers in marriage and relationship health, Dr. John M. Gottman. Throughout my post college years, I have kept up with his research. He is most famous for developing a formula that accurately predicts divorce after observing a couple interact with one another for only five minutes!

Here I will describe Dr. John Gottman's findings through his research on successful, happy couples, as written in his book, The Science of Trust.

1. Matches in Conflict Style
2. Dialogue With Perpetual Issues
3. Present Issues as Situational Joint Problems
4. Successful Repair Attempts
5. Remaining Physiologically Calm During Conflict
6. Accept Influence From Your Spouse

My husband, Alex and I can attribute much of our success in marriage to prayer, regularly receiving the sacraments, and following these points in our relationship. After reading these points, maybe you'll find an area that needs improvement in your own relationship. If you recognize these habits in your own relationship, congrats! Keep up the good work; you're on the road to happily ever after. Read more at ForYourMarriage.org

Why are you so resentful and crestfallen? -Gen 4:6

NATIONAL MARRIAGE WEEK (FEB. 7-FEB. 14)

7-DAY at HOME RE-TREAT --- start anytime

To Have, To Hold, To Honor

This retreat is to help remind you of your wedding vows. It offers an opportunity to re-connect with your spouse through stories, the Word of God, meditation, reflection, and prayer. Found on ForYourMarriage.org

The best weapon against child poverty: FAMILY

The Heritage Foundation discovered in a recent study that the best weapon against child poverty is a stable home with married parents. The research showed that when equally well educated families were computed, marriage increased a child's chance of living above the poverty line by 75%. The study's author, Robert Rector, said, "Being married has roughly the same effect in reducing poverty that adding five to six years to a parent's education has."

Rector summarized the research saying, "Marriage is highly beneficial to children, adults and society; it needs to be encouraged an strengthened. Under current government policies, however, marriage is either ignored or undermined. This needs to change."
