The Reward of Faith

Key Passage: those who love their life lose it, and those who hate their life in this world will keep it for eternal life (John 12:25)

Adults: when and in what way have you seen life come from death?

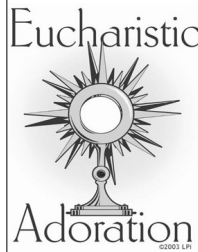

Children: when have you felt stronger because you sacrificed something for a friend or a member of your family?

Thankyou! to our guest homilist, Deacon Aaron Kaiser joining us at all Masses to discuss how we are called to be disciples of Christ and what this might look like for us and our parish.

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION at Sacred Heart

This Thur. (March 25) -- 3:00 to 7:30 pm

Eucharistic Adoration "You do well to love the liturgy of My Church. It is the work of the Holy Spirit who, making use of human instruments, created a prayer pleasing to My Father and worthy of my eternal priesthood. -- Enter with me into the ceaseless liturgy of heaven and into the hidden liturgy of every tabernacle where I am present and active as eternal Victim and High Priest. -- When you come to adore Me, allow Me to unite you to my victimal priesthood. Allow Me to pray in you. Present your heart to Me as a thurible made ready for the sweet incense of My prayer to the Father." - In Sinu Jesu

We invite you to sign up for a 1/2 hr time slot in the church gathering space or call 463-2441

5th Sunday of Lent

"I will be their God and they shall be my people." - Jeremiah 31:33

What does it mean to be God's people? It means we recognize that everything we have and everything we are belongs to God. We aren't "owners" of anything, we are merely "stewards" of the gifts God has given us. It means we are willing to use our gifts and our lives to care for our family, our neighbors and for people we don't know, just as God cares for each of us.

Thank you for your generous support of the Catholic Relief Services Collection and for helping Jesus in disguise. Your contributions make a difference for the poor and marginalized around the world. If you missed the collection, it isn't too late to give! Learn more: www.usccb.org/catholic-relief

Thank you to the Knights of Columbus for the new St. Joseph banner in the gathering space at Sacred Heart. The lilies are a symbol of justice (how he dealt with Mary's pregnancy and obeyed God's directions). In regard to the dragon under his foot -- as he protected the Holy Family he is now seen as continuing that role as protector and intercessor for the new family of God that is the Church.

Thank you to all parishioners who have shared their Thrivent Dollars with Sacred Heart Parish. We are now on the list of available charities for the distribution charitable earnings at Thrivent that are generated by the earnings of investors.

MN Food Share Month

Last year, MN food shelves responded to more than 3.75 million visits. This is a record surge from pre-COVID levels. Our food shelf partners expect this to continue beyond the pandemic. Through our MN FoodShare programming, GMCC executes fundraising, education, and advocacy initiatives to eliminate hunger and inequities. Donations can be dropped off at the church or online donations can be made at gmcc.org/donate.

IN THE KNOW

© Jean Denton flock.pastoralcenter.com

"He learned obedience from what he suffered."

Sheepish Question:

What must I do to conform my heart to Jesus' heart?

The Perfect Prayer of Thanksgiving

The most beautiful prayer of thanksgiving is the celebration of the Mass, an offering of praise to God our Father for having sent Jesus to sacrifice himself for us and for sharing his very self with us. In fact, the word "eucharist" comes from the Greek eucharisto, which means "thanksgiving."

The Catechism tells us that the Eucharist is not only "the sacrifice of praise in thanksgiving for the work of creation." In the Eucharistic sacrifice the whole of creation loved by God is presented to the Father through the death and the Resurrection of Christ. Through Christ the church can offer the sacrifice of praise in thanksgiving for all that God has made good, beautiful, and just in creation and in humanity. (1359)

Try this: next Sunday, keep your ears attuned to all the times the prayers of Mass offer thanksgiving and praise to God. As you do, enter into that attitude of thanksgiving yourself. Spend the hour at Mass thanking God for creating this beautiful world, for giving you life, for loving you, and for saving you from sin. Try to recall the many blessings he has poured out on you, especially the gift of himself in the Eucharist.

LENTEN DEVOTIONS & ST. JOSEPH

No Greater Love

a Biblical walk through Christ's Passion

Next Session 5: The Seven Last Words Jesus the Teacher at Calvary

Now we turn our attention to what is commonly known as Christ's "Seven Last Words," which refers to the seven brief sayings Jesus uttered from the Cross before he died. For centuries, these words have been the subject of many sermons, books, devotions, and musical pieces. Think of these seven last words not merely as words spoken to the world in general, but as personal words spoken to you. Before Jesus died, he was thinking of you and what you would be going through this year, this month, this day. He wants to give you a certain message to encourage you, or challenge you. As St. Augustine once observed, "The tree upon which were fixed the members of Him dying was even the chair of the Master teaching."

FORMED.org PICK of the WEEK

The Sanctuary Course for Catholics — Misconceptions surrounding mental illness can prevent us from responding well to those suffering. This eight-session course explores the realities of mental illness, as well as the need for faith-based conversations about this topic. Featuring stories of Catholics living with mental health challenges, along with the insights of archbishops, theologians, and psychologists.

LEARN: A Bible Study on the Annunciation — In this video, Dr. Ben Akers leads us through a brief study of Luke 1:26-38, highlighting some of the key Old Testament passages evoked by Gabriel's words. The reflection concludes with some thoughts on how we can imitate Mary's Yes in our own life, especially in this time of suffering.

LISTEN: Say Yes to Christ: Allowing Jesus to be the Lord of your whole Life by Scott Hahn — Mary conformed the entirety of her life to the Divine Will. In doing so, she became the model of perfect discipleship. In this talk, Dr. Scott Hahn discusses why we too should surrender our lives to the Lord.

HOLINESS-- The example of the Saints encourages us to follow in their footsteps and to experience the joy of those who trust in God, for the one true cause of sorrow and unhappiness for men and women is to live far from him. --- Holiness demands a constant effort, but it is possible for everyone because, rather than a human effort, it is first and foremost a gift of God. - Pope Benedict
