St. Joseph Most Obedient. Pray for Us

Obedience is a misunderstood virtue. Many people are of the opinion that obedience to authority limits their freedom, requiring them to hand over their rights to others. This is not the case. In fact, obedience to laws is part of everyday human life. A road sign, for example, doesn't take away a person's freedom. Road signs and other legitimate laws are designed to give people true freedom and happiness. You are able to disobey stop signs while driving, but obedience to the stop sign is what allows you and others to reach your destinations in safety.

Natural law and divine law are not inhibitors to freedom. In God's plan, the purpose of these laws is to help us reach our ultimate destination: heaven. Those who fail to obey reason and the divine dictates will end up frustrated spiritually and so many other ways and run the risk of never reaching heaven.

Obedience requires trust. Lack of trust on the part of our first parents (Adam and Eve) is what caused all mankind to fall into sin. Our new parents, Mary and St. Joseph, trusted God and were willing to suffer for their obedience to God. Mary and Joseph were certain that God had their best interests in mind.

Everyone needs to be obedient to both natural and divine law. Obeying the 10 Commandments, the teachings of the Catholic Church, attending Mass faithfully on Sundays and Holy Days of Obligation, and going to Confession when you fall into sin are all ways of showing that you trust and obey God.

Everyone needs to trust God and obey the natural law as well. The person who defends marriage as an institution between one man and one woman is obeying the natural law. Protecting children in the womb by voting for candidates who are uncompromisingly pro-life is also a sign of being obedient to the natural law. Resisting the nonsense of gender fluidity and ideology is another way of obeying the natural law. If you are mocked, ridiculed, and made to suffer for your trust and obedience to divine and natural law, you are not far from the Kingdom of Heaven. (pp. 61-62, Consecration to St. Joseph, Donald H. Calloway, MIC)

YEAR OF ST. JOSEPH SPRING PARENT SERIES

In his Apostolic Letter Patris Corde, Pope Francis reminds us that "every true vocation is born of the gift of oneself, which is the fruit of mature sacrifice." Inspired by the virtuous life of Saint Joseph and the sacrifices he made living out his vocation as Jesus' foster father, The Office of Formation is offering the Year of Saint Joseph Spring Parent Series. The goal of this series of presentations is to support parents as they seek ways to accompany their children through some of the greater challenges of adolescence. Each session will center on relevant topics and provide participants with helpful information, strategies, and resources.

Next Weekend - Olive Wood Religious Articles for Sale after the Masses

-- For centuries, Bethlehem Christians have supported their families by carving Olive Wood Religious Art for visiting pilgrims. However, the conflict in the Holy Land and the decrease in tourism have dropped the percentage of Christians living there from 63% to less than 2%. Our main objective is to help all Christian families stay in their homeland in dignity and keep the Christian identity in Bethlehem and Jerusalem. On May 8th & 9th, Holy Land Christians will be promoting their Olive Wood Carvings to support their families in the Holy Land. Kindly stop by their display. www.dacaret-factory.com

Are you joyful when participating in parish ministry? Do you give gratefully and generously with your financial support to your parish and other Church needs? If not, it's not too late to start!

Strengthening your Faith

Key Passage: [The vine grower] removes branch in me that bears no fruit. Every branch that bears fruit he prunes to make it bear more fruit. —John 15:2

Adults: when have you been "pruned by your experiences in a way that led to greater abundance?"

Children: when have you felt stronger or better because you did something heard to help another person?

Your Child and God's Gift of Sexuality

This Thursday, May 6 7:00 PM – 8:00 PM---This presentation will help parents guide their children to a healthy understanding of the gift of human sexuality. In a world that is constantly bombarding our children with messages that twist and distort the role of sexuality in life, it is as important as ever to counter that message in a way that allows our children to become healthy men and women in society.

Deacon Mark Krejci will provide an approach and helpful resources that will prepare and equip parents to have difficult, but crucial conversations with their children about the gift of human sexuality. Free but you need to pre-register for this event at www.crookston.org/stjoseph
