A Gift for All People

In the time of King Herod, after Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea, wise men from the East came to Jerusalem, "Where is the Child: who has been born king of the Jews? For we observed his star at its rising, and have come to pay him homage." -Matthew 2:1-2

- ♦ Adults: the Magi were strangers from another land. How do you welcome immigrants and strangers in the name of Christ?
- ♦ Children: what could you do to be like a star and lead someone to know about Jesus?

When a priest offers Holy Mass, he has three intentions: First, to offer the Mass reverently and validly in accord with the norms of the Church. Second, to offer the Mass in union with the whole Church and for the good of the whole Church. Third, to offer the Mass for a particular intention, such as the repose of the soul of someone who has died.

Keep in prayer: Steve Pulczynski,
John Anderson, Grant Hanson, and all who are ill

Instead of wishing, how can I put my faith in Jesus—the true light of the world—into action?

Prayer for Peace

May Christ banish from the souls of men and women whatever might endanger peace. May he transform all people into witnesses of truth, justice and love.

May Christ illumine with his light the minds of rulers, so that, besides caring for the proper material welfare of their peoples, they may also guarantee them the fairest gift of peace.

Finally, may Christ inflame the desires of all people to break through the barriers which divide them, to strengthen the bonds of mutual love, to learn to understand one another, and to pardon those who have done them wrong.

Through Christ's power and inspiration may all peoples welcome each other to their hearts as brothers and sisters, and may the peace they long for ever flower and ever reign among them. --Pope John XXIII, Pacem in Terris

Forgetting God We are taught by the world around us to be very, very worried. We assume the absurd position of thinking ourselves the most intelligent and powerful beings on "the planet," and we subtly take upon ourselves the responsibility to see that the world somehow goes right. No wonder we are (over)

(continued) worried: if our own meager resources are supposed to deal with all the evil and fragility of a fallen and corrupted race of immortal beings making their way through time, we should be terrified. (Remember MAD Magazine? - "Who, me, worried?")

Pope Benedict XVI

"I should like to invite all of us to renew our firm confidence in the Lord, to entrust ourselves like children in God's arms, certain that those arms always hold us, enabling us to press forward each day, even when the going is rough. I want everyone to feel loved by that God who gave his Son for us and who has shown us his infinite love. I want everyone to feel the joy of being a Christian. In one beautiful morning prayer, it says: 'I adore you, my God, and I love you with all my heart. I thank you for having created me and made me a Christian...'. Yes, we are happy for the gift of faith; it is our most precious possession, which no one can take from us! Let us thank the Lord for this daily, in prayer and by a consistent Christian life. God loves us, but he also expects us to love him!" (Pope Benedict XVI on February 27, 2013 — Last Wednesday Audience).

"Christian, remember your dignity, and now that you share in God's won nature, do not return by sin to your former base condition. Bear in mind who is your head and of whose body you are a member. Do not forget that you have been rescued from the power of darkness and brought into the light of God's kingdom." —St. Leo the Great
