Father's Notes

My First Week

My dear parishioners of St. Elizabeth Ann Seton:

It has been a wonderful and blessed first 4 weeks of serving you in this lively parish. I am enjoying getting to know many of you, about your personal lives, and how you help facilitate Christ's Kingdom on earth in your community, and I am so blessed to be a small part of it. This is actually my first parish assignment after 5 years being a seminarian, and boy was this necessary! Imagine being engaged to the love of your life for 5 years, studying and praying for her day in and day out, falling in love with her, but never actually getting to meet her.

The anticipation and desire builds up to explosive proportions, like a dog who greets his owner coming home from a tour of duty after many months (Youtube it). I was beyond excitement to serve you, even more so when I discovered my love of service and making people happy through bringing them to Christ whilst in college, and to put my studies into practice.

Fr. Jeff and Deacon Jesus have been wonderful and rowdy hosts, offering advice, and giving me every opportunity to learn, all the while making parish life seem like a barn, in more ways than one. I look forward to learning more and engaging with more of you this summer.

Your humble servant,

Stephen Cieslak

Notas del Padre

Mi Primera Semana

Queridos parroquianos de Santa Elizabeth Ann Seton.

Ha sido una maravillosa y bendita primera semana de servir en esta animada parroquia. Estoy disfrutando de conocer a muchos de ustedes, acerca de sus vidas personales, y cómo ayudan a facilitar el Reino de Cristo en la tierra en su comunidad, y estoy tan bendecido de ser una pequeña parte de ella. Esta es en realidad mi primera misión parroquial después de 5 años siendo un seminarista, y si que era esto necesario! Imaginé estar comprometido con el amor de su vida durante 5 años, estudiando y orando por él día a día, enamorándose de él o ella, pero nunca llegando a conocerlo.

La anticipación y el deseo se acumula a proporciones explosivas, como un perro que saluda a su dueño regresando a casa de un viaje de servicio después de muchos meses (Lo tuve). Yo estaba más allá de la emoción de servirle, más aún cuando descubrí mi amor por el servicio y hacer feliz a la gente a través de llevarlos a Cristo mientras estaba en la universidad, y poner mis estudios en práctica.

El Padre Jeff y el Diácono Jesús han sido anfitriones maravillosos y bulliciosos, ofreciendo consejos, y dándome cada oportunidad de aprender, todo el tiempo haciendo que la vida parroquial parezca un granero, en más de una forma. Espero aprender más y participar con más de ustedes este verano.

Su humilde servidor.

Stephen Cieslak
