Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

I lost my wallet this year. It was such an annoyance to replace everything in it. A friend, moved by sympathy, gave me a beautiful new one. One month later I lost that one, too, with all my newly replaced cards. No matter what I did, I couldn't find what I had lost. I resigned myself to never seeing either of my wallets again.

Fortunately, the Lord Jesus is not like me in this regard. In today's Gospel (John 6:37-40), he says, "This is the will of the one who sent me, that I should not lose anything of what he gave me." Jesus, unlike me, is ever vigilant with what the Father has given him. He searches for every lost soul — as the shepherd leaves the ninety-nine to pursue the one lost sheep, or the woman rejoices upon recovering a lost coin — and even descends to the depths of loss on the cross and into the realm of the dead to recover that which seems forever lost.

On All Souls' Day, as we remember our faithful departed, these words kindle a hope beyond hope in our hearts. Even the dead are not lost to Jesus, though they may seem so to us. Nothing entrusted to him by the Father is ever truly lost. So, we may hope that every soul, no matter how wandering or forgotten in life, is secure in his loving care and destined to be raised on the last day. Of what the Father gives him, he loses nothing.

— Father John Muir

Greetings to everyone at St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Catholic Church.

My name is Connor Wier, and I am excited to begin my ministry in your parish as your Music Coordinator.

I studied music at Portland State University, where I earned my Bachelor's degree, and the University of Oregon, where I graduated last June with my Master's degree. I studied music composition at both schools, and this gave me a special opportunity to foster my love of music while gaining practical skills to make beautiful music. After my Bachelor's degree, I joined the St. John Society as a Volunteer Missionary at Oregon State University. The St. John Society works mainly with college students, so I worked with the students in the Newman Center to help them grow in the Catholic faith. This fostered a deep prayer life and deep relationship with the Lord that I am very excited to bring into my ministry here.

Please feel free to stop by and say hello! I am excited to come to know all of you and serve you in the holy Mass.

In Christ,
Connor Wier.

Saludos a todos en la Iglesia Católica Santa Elizabeth Ann Seton.

Me llamo Connor Wier y estoy emocionado de comenzar mi ministerio en su parroquia como Coordinador de Música.

Estudié música en la Universidad Estatal de

Portland, donde obtuve mi licenciatura, y en la Universidad de Oregón, donde me gradué en junio pasado con mi maestría. Estudié composición musical en ambas instituciones, lo que me brindó una oportunidad única para cultivar mi amor por la música y, al mismo tiempo, adquirir habilidades prácticas para crear música hermosa. Después de mi licenciatura, me uní a la Sociedad de San Juan como Misionero Voluntario en la Universidad Estatal de Oregón. La Sociedad de San Juan trabaja principalmente con estudiantes universitarios, así que trabajé con los estudiantes del Centro Newman para ayudarlos a crecer en la fe católica. Esto fomentó una profunda vida de oración y una profunda relación con el Señor, que estoy muy emocionado de incorporar a mi ministerio.

¡No duden en visitarme y saludarme! Me entusiasma conocerlos a todos y servirles en la Santa Misa.

*En Cristo,
Connor Wier.*

ALL SOULS DAY
DÍA DE LOS DIFUNTOS ©LPi

2 de noviembre de 2025
Conmemoración de todos los fieles difuntos

Juan 6:37-40

Hoy recordamos a nuestros familiares y amigos difuntos. Elevamos nuestras oraciones con las palabras del Salmo 130: “Desde el abismo clamo a ti, Señor: ¡Señor, escucha mi voz! Que tus oídos estén atentos al clamor de mis súplicas”. De esta forma, la Iglesia conmemora a todos los fieles difuntos. El Papa Francisco nos dice: “La Conmemoración de los difuntos tiene un doble sentido. Un sentido de tristeza: un cementerio es triste, nos recuerda a nuestros seres queridos que se han marchado, nos recuerda también el futuro, la muerte; pero en esta tristeza, nosotros llevamos flores, como signo de esperanza. Puedo decir, también, de fiesta, pero más adelante, no ahora. Y la tristeza se mezcla con la esperanza. Y esto es lo que todos nosotros sentimos hoy, en esta celebración: la memoria de nuestros seres queridos, ante sus restos, y la esperanza. Pero sentimos también que esta esperanza nos ayuda, porque también nosotros tenemos que recorrer este camino. Todos nosotros recorreremos este camino. Antes o después, pero todos. Con dolor, más o menos dolor, pero todos. Pero con la flor de la esperanza, con ese hilo fuerte que está anclado en el más allá. Esta ancla no decepciona: la esperanza de la resurrección”. No debe existir ninguna duda, el Evangelio confirma esta ancla, que es Jesús y su promesa de vida eterna: “Toda persona que al contemplar al Hijo crea en Él, tendrá vida eterna, y yo la resucitaré en el último día” (Juan 6:40).
