FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK...

I was recently reading The Epistle of Mathetes to Diognetus. It is an example of Christian "apologetics" or writings that either explain or defend Christianity. The Greek writer and recipient are not known; estimates of dating based on the language and other textual evidence have ranged from AD 130 (which would make it one of the earliest examples of Christian apologetic literature), to the late 2nd century, with the latter often preferred in modern scholarship. (Source: Wikipedia)

What struck me was the incredible relevance of this 1,700 year old document to the contemporary situation facing The Church and us as its members. Whether in the Middle-East or middle-class America, its resonance is simultaneously a description, an explanation and a prophetic warning.

From a letter to Diognetus: The Christian in the World

Christians are indistinguishable from other men either by nationality, language or customs. They do not inhabit separate cities of their own, or speak a strange dialect, or follow some outlandish way of life. Their teaching is not based upon reveries inspired by the curiosity of men. Unlike some other people, they champion no purely human doctrine. With regard to dress, food and manner of life in general, they follow the customs of whatever city they happen to be living in, whether it is Greek or foreign.

And yet there is something extraordinary about their lives. They live in their own countries as though they were only passing through. They play their full role as citizens, but labor under all the disabilities of aliens. Any country can be their homeland, but for them their homeland, wherever it may be, is a foreign country. Like others, they marry and have children, but they do not expose them. They share their meals, but not their wives. They live in the flesh, but they are not governed by the desires of the flesh. They pass their days upon earth, but they are citizens of heaven. Obedient to the laws, yet they live on a level that transcends the law.

OUR PARISH PRAYER INTENTION for THIS WEEK

Lord, we pray for our grade school graduates and their parents as their young teenagers prepare for their high school years. May the Holy Spirit strengthen and enlighten them to remain close to Jesus and actively participate in the sacraments. We ask this through Christ, our Lord. Amen.

FROM the OFFICE of RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

The registration forms for the 2015-2016 Religious Education Program Monday evening sessions (Grades 1-6) and the Sunday morning sessions (Grades 2 and 6) are posted on the parish website. A link to the registration form has been forwarded to all currently registered families. Please register your children if you have not already done so. It is very important that an accurate number of students for the RE Program is obtained as soon as possible in order to provide sufficient teaching staff, materials, classroom space, etc. Thank you for your prompt response to this request.

Ready? Set? GO! The Saint Monica Religious Education Program Summer Session is set to begin on Monday June 24th. This year's theme is "Family", in keeping with the World Meeting of Families, hosted in Philadelphia in September. The parents of the registered students are asked to watch their email inbox for specific information pertaining to the Summer Session, coming their way in the coming weeks.

Living in Love

SAVE THE DATE! Invite more fun and romance into your marriage!

calendars now and plan to participate.

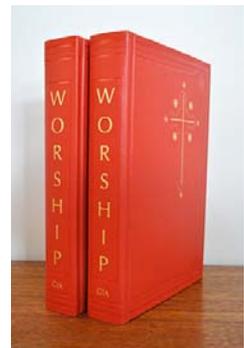

For more information about time schedule, topics, and cost please visit: www.livinginlove.org You may register online or call Dave and Kathy Phelan at 610-902-0654.

FROM the OFFICE of WORSHIP & MUSIC

Worship IV Hymnal

Saint Monica Parish has made an investment in a hard-bound permanent hymnal for use in our worship. The hymnal, published from GIA Publications of Chicago, is called Worship IV — the fourth revision in the Worship series of hymnals, recently released to the American Catholic Church. Our new hymnal contains a balanced blend of traditional hymnody, contemporary compositions, our "Catholic Classics" and a decent amount of new texts set to familiar tunes. The entire three year cycle of Sunday readings are included as well as a generous offering of psalms, settings of the ordinary of the Mass, as well as music for the Liturgy of the Hours (Morning Prayer, Evening Prayer, etc...) in addition to a convenient printing (inside cover) of the commonly used responses for the Mass. The hymnals will completely replace the current "Breaking Bread" annual hymnals in our pews sometime in late July or early August. Questions? Please contact Frank Orman in the Music Office.

NEWS AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK...

Christians love all men, but all men persecute them. Condemned because they are not understood, they are put to death, but raised to life again. They live in poverty, but enrich many; they are totally destitute, but possess an abundance of everything. They suffer dishonor, but that is their glory. They are defamed, but vindicated. A blessing is their answer to abuse, deference their response to insult. For the good they do they receive the punishment of malefactors, but even then they rejoice, as though receiving the gift of life. They are attacked by the Jews as aliens, they are persecuted by the Greeks, yet no one can explain the reason for this hatred.

To speak in general terms, we may say that the Christian is to the world what the soul is to the body. As the soul is present in every part of the body, while remaining distinct from it, so Christians are found in all the cities of the world, but cannot be identified with the world. As the visible body contains the invisible soul, so Christians are seen living in the world, but their religious life remains unseen. The body hates the soul and wars against it, not because of any injury the soul has done it, but because of the restriction the soul places on its pleasures. Similarly, the world hates the Christians, not because they have done it any wrong, but because they are opposed to its enjoyments.

Christians love those who hate them just as the soul loves the body and all its members despite the body's hatred. It is by the soul, enclosed within the body, that the body is held together, and similarly, it is by the Christians, detained in the world as in a prison, that the world is held together. The soul, though immortal, has a mortal dwelling place; and Christians also live for a time amidst perishable things, while awaiting the freedom from change and decay that will be theirs in heaven. As the soul benefits from the deprivation of food and drink, so Christians flourish under persecution. Such is the Christian's lofty and divinely appointed function, from which he is not permitted to excuse himself.

HOUSING SOUGHT

Mothers' Home is seeking housing for a University student who will be entering her Sophomore year in September 2015. She will also be delivering her baby girl mid-September. Because she has no relatives and a rejection from a former foster mom, she spent holidays alone at her school in the dorm last year.

This 20 year old has survived great abuse and a war when living in her home country in Africa. Despite only two years education before coming to the USA and being educated in a high school here that is not considered positive she is on scholarship at a prestigious Catholic University in Delaware County and doing well. Her goal is to relinquish her daughter for adoption and continue going to school to become a doctor.

She is gentle, kind, and sweet, with great respect for others. She will be spending most time over the next few years at school, but we are looking for a family to house her when she is not in school until she graduates, which would require part of the summer and holidays. She has the long term goal of getting her own apartment.

If you want more information, contact Helen at lizzieshope@comcast.net. Thank you for this consideration!

TECHNOLOGY COMMITTEE CALLS YOU TO SHARE YOUR GOD-GIVEN GIFT WITH US

New initiatives, activities and vibrancy has begun to tax the technology resources of Saint Monica. To address this, the parish is forming a Technology Committee. Immediate goals include:

- Conceive, make decisions about, and implement long-term parish technology vision.
- Address several immediate, tactical goals
- Create a new, inviting website/parish portal.
- Improve service and communication to our parish community
- Revamp/rebuild parish "back office" functionality.

We are looking for two or three parishioners who have hand-on design, technology, communication or marketing talents and especially welcome any first-time parish volunteers. For more information, contact Frank Orman at orman@saintmonicachurch.org or Tim at stmonica@navben.us. Thank you!
