FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK...

Last week I introduced the start of a several-week reflection taken from a small booklet named “Acceptance” which offers a reflection on the “Serenity Prayer.” Last week I wrote about keeping a challenging life in perspective and keeping the focus as much in the present moment. This week, let’s look at dealing with difficult people.

A book that I have often recommended (unfortunately) is Elizabeth Brown’s Living Successfully with Screwed-Up People. As of 1999, over 200,000 copies had been sold. (I can’t imagine how many more have been purchased since then.)

Life can be cut down to a reasonable and manageable size. Life is only this place, this time, these people right here and now. This you can handle - at least today. It took Vincent Collins (the author of Acceptance) a long time to realize that at least some of his problems were of his own making. One area where he found himself constantly in trouble was thinking that it was his duty to try to solve other people’s problems, arbitrate their disputes, and show them how to live their lives. Collins writes:

“I was hurt when they rejected my unsolicited advice. I finally learned that you cannot help people unless they really need help, are willing to be helped, want you to help them, and ask you to help them. Even then, you can only help them to help themselves.”

In Living Successfully ... Elizabeth Brown offers five steps to extricating yourself from difficult situations with difficult people:

Ascertain the options; Consider the costs (both of acting, and not acting, on this person’s behalf); Know your limits; Own your choice

An old Arab, whose tent was pitched next to a company of whirling dervishes was asked, “What do you do about them whirling?” His answer: “I let them whirl!”

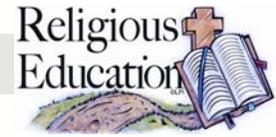

You cannot imagine how many people come and see me to talk about friends, families, work colleagues who they know, who they want to help but who are driving them crazy! I often say, “Look there is a difference between “pastoral” and “pathology.” (Cont’d on Page 4)

OUR PARISH PRAYER INTENTION for THIS WEEK

All knowing and loving Father, we pray for your guidance and wisdom as Saint Monica Parish prepares to finalize the direction of the Capital Campaign. We pray for cooperation and patience among those discerning the decision. We pray for intelligent and realistic goals. We pray for support to accomplish the goals – when the decision has been made. We pray that the family of Saint Monica will unite in a spirit of love and support for the final decision. We ask all this through Christ, our Lord. Amen.

FROM the OFFICE of RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Please see the Sacrament Spotlight announcements in this bulletin. The RE Program is NOT in session on October 24 and 25. Classes will resume on November 1 and 2.

Liturgy of the Word with Children

The Liturgy of the Word with Children Program (LOW) is held during the 9:30 a.m. Mass. Registration for this Sunday church program is underway for students in Kindergarten through 3rd grade. This cost-free program is specially designed to give the younger children of our parish a better understanding and appreciation for Scripture through age appropriate adaptations of the Readings, Gospel, and homily. Information and registration forms can be found in the "Crying Room" and the Gathering Room of the church. The LOW leaders have obtained the required clearances, mandated by both the state of Pennsylvania and the Archdiocese of Philadelphia. For more information about the program, please contact Mary Pizzano at mpizzano@saintmonicachurch.org or 610-647-4757.

THE CHURCH OF
SAINT MONICA
 BERWYN, PENNSYLVANIA

Between the World Meeting of Families, the visit of Pope Francis, Edge and LifeTeen for our youth, three new Adult Faith Formation programs to be announced soon, much has been happening in the Archdiocese of Philadelphia and at Saint Monica Parish recently. We certainly seem to be living the “Good News” at this time.

Saint Monica is at an important crossroad. We need to step boldly into our future and take the important steps to enhance the parish mission, steward our resources and reach out to others. Thus we are embarking on a Capital Campaign, the rationale of which I have shared with the parish over the past year and have outlined in the accompanying bulletin insert, have sent via e-mail and have posted in the church entrance way.

The “brick and mortar” component of this process will be the “temporal” manifestation of our commitment to steward our resources in order to support the “spiritual growth” and “pastoral outreach” of the parish. This will allow us to achieve the important goals of:

- First, improving, renovating or re-purposing the facilities of the parish as good caretakers of God’s gifts to us in support of His mission (Stewardship),
- Second, to provide a pleasant, safe and welcoming spiritual atmosphere for new and returning parishioners (Evangelization),
- Third, to facilitate a focused and enhanced program to the less fortunate (Outreach).

Parishioners have been generous to Saint Monica in the past. Indeed, in our recent time of serious need, many people graciously accepted the challenge of supporting the parish through very difficult times. We are now poised to enter into a new phase and lay the foundation for future parish growth. That is why I am prayerfully asking you to consider the vision and support the campaign.

Over the next few weeks, you will be hearing about the campaign and be asked for your commitment. I ask that you welcome the conversation about the future of Saint Monica.

NEWS AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK...

You need to recognize that difference. Also know that they are not going to change. They're not in enough pain. When they are in enough pain, they'll change their circumstances. In the meantime, you - can't - help - them! And you certainly can't change them."

Collins continues:

I caused myself a lot of unnecessary grief by trying to be unselfish, to think of everybody else first, myself last, and to try to please everybody. You can knock yourself out doing this and that and the other thing to please your cousins and your sisters and your aunts, and you find out that they are really not affected one way or the other.

Please everybody, nobody's pleased; please yourself, at least your pleased. Charity begins at home, and enlightened self-interest is a basic endowment of human nature. You can save yourself a lot of grief by admitting the futility of trying to please somebody who just can't be pleased.

God, give me grace to accept with serenity
the things I cannot change,
Courage to change the things that I can and Wisdom to know the difference.

Living one day at a time, enjoying one moment at a time, accepting hardship as a pathway to peace, Taking, as Jesus did, this sinful world as it is,
not as I would have it,
Trusting that You will make all things right,
if I surrender to Your will,
So that I may be reasonably happy in this life,
And supremely happy with You forever in the next.
Amen.

Charles Zlock Jr
