ST. GENEVIEVE PARISH ADVENT MISSION

"Ridiculous Grace and Scandalous Mercy-Reflections on the Gift and Duty of Mercy"

The mission will be a 3-evening event, Sunday, Dec. 4, Monday, Dec. 5, & Tuesday, Dec. 6, 2022, at 6pm at Family Life Center, presented by Jeff Armbruster, Catholic author and speaker from Atlanta, GA. Each session will be about an hour long and focus on the compelling story of God's gifts Grace and Mercy and our obligation to share those gifts with others. Why a mission focusing on Mercy? Pope Francis said, "Christmas is truly the feast of God's infinite mercy...the perfect mercy of God became human."

About the Speaker

Jeff Armbruster was born into a Roman Catholic family and has been active in church activities his entire life, including being a lector and an Extraordinary Minister of the Eucharist. He has been involved in pastoral planning, Christ Renews His Parish, TMIY, and teaching adult education courses. Jeff, and his wife Laurel, together taught high school CCD and were a sponsor couple and prepared 25 couples for marriage. Over the years he has trained parish ministry leaders, and has facilitated in-depth internal assessment processes for two religious orders. He is a founding member of the Steering Committee for Catholic Charities Atlanta's Leadership Class, and has mentored a member of each class in the program's 10-year existence.

Jeff has given spiritual talks, retreats and parish missions at many Catholic and non-Catholic churches across Georgia and South Carolina.

He retired from the U.S. Geological Survey in 2001, after more than 37 years of public service. He has both a BS and MS in Civil Engineering. Following his first retirement was a consultant for more than 14 years helping organizations and individuals with leadership development and teamwork. He's been mostly fully retired now about 7 years. Jeff has authored three books:

Some Practical Lessons in Leadership – Observations from Daily Life," (2010)

"Live Humbly, Serve Graciously – Reflections on Baptism, Mission and Service," (2015)

"Ridiculous Grace and Scandalous Mercy – Reflections on the Gift and Duty of Mercy," (2021)

Jeff has been married to his best friend, Laurel for more than 53 years. They live in Peachtree Corners and are members of Mary Our Queen Parish. They have two married children and 4 grandchildren. In his leisure time, he enjoys reading, traveling, woodworking, writing, and playing golf.

(Jeff's sister Becky Ford is an active member of St. Genevieve Parish!)

REFLECTION ON THE GOSPEL

In the gospel on this final Sunday of the liturgical year, one of the crucified criminals rebukes the other for his cynical taunting of Jesus and dares to ask Jesus for a late invitation into the kingdom. This criminal addresses him not by the inscription hanging above him, but simply and familiarly as "Jesus." And then a faint, future hope becomes a "today" event of salvation for him, the man for whom the compassion of Jesus throws open the door of the kingdom and allows him to steal Paradise. —(Living Liturgy, Our Lord Jesus Christ King of the Universe 2022)

Prayer for Vocations

Lord Jesus Christ, Eternal High Priest, pour out, we pray, your grace upon our seminarians. Shelter them within your

May their eyes be ever fixed upon you who live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit God, for ever and ever amen. Mary Mother of Priest, pray for us., Pope Saint John Paul II, pray for us.
