REFLECTION ON THE GOSPEL

The gospel today shows us in parable form what the “greed that is idolatry” looks like. The rich man’s self-centered plan for stockpiling and spending for his own enjoyment is interrupted by a startling apparition by God. “You fool!” comes the accusation, everything belongs to God; even itself is given to us on loan. To those who are blessed with abundance, the parable poses hard questions about legitimate use, greediness, and just distribution of resources for the common good.

(Living Liturgy, Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time, 2025)

Pray for Vocations

Gracious and loving God, help the men and women of our archdiocese to hear Your call to serve. Our needs are great and our people thirst for Your presence. Open the hearts of many and raise up faithful servants of the Gospel, dedicated holy priests, deacons, sisters, and brothers, who will give of themselves for Your people and their needs. Bless those who are serving now with courage and perseverance. Grant that many will be inspired by their example and faith.

ROOTED IN FAITH: POPE LEO XIV LOUISIANA LINEAGE.

The office of Archives and Records has installed a new exhibit at the Old Ursuline Convent Museum in the French Quarter, titled “Rooted in Faith: Pope Leo XIV’s Louisiana Lineage.” This installation features a comprehensive family tree that highlights Pope Leo’s Catholic connections to New Orleans through his maternal ancestors. Although both Pope Leo and his mother, Mildred Agnes Martinez, were born in Chicago, Mildred’s family has deep roots in the Crescent City, with generations having been born and raised here. We have traced Pope Leo’s family lineage back to the 1750s with many of the sacraments occurring at St. Louis Cathedral. (By Katie Beeman & Sarah Waits)

CATHOLIC RELIEF SERVICES COLLECTION

Next week our parish will take up The Catholic Relief Services Collection. Funds from this collection provide food to the hungry, support displaced refugees, and bring Christ’s love and mercy to vulnerable people here and abroad. Next week, please give generously to the collection and reveal Christ’s love to those most in need. Learn more about the collection at www.usccb.org/catholic-relief.
