REFLECTION ON THE GOSPEL

The humorous parable in today's gospel reading conveys a very serious message: it through persistence and tireless actions of nonviolent confrontation that justice is attained. More often than not, this happens through the repeated actions of seemingly inconsequential people, who never give up. Persistent prayer goes hand in hand with persistent action for justice. In order to sustain the constant struggle for peace, the heart and mind must be continually transformed by the One who is our source of peace.
Living Liturgy, Twenty-Ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time)

Bless those who are serving now with courage and perseverance. Grant that many will be inspired by their example and faith.
