Federation of Diocesan Liturgical Commissions Study Day

From October 4-6, the Office of Worship will host the 2022 National Meeting of the Federation of Diocesan Liturgical Commissions. Each year, this annual meeting of diocesan liturgy directors and worship commission members, invites priests, deacons, parish leaders, and all who share a passion for the Church’s liturgy to gather for a study day on Wednesday October 5. Register before September 1 and receive discounted registration of $80. This day is dedicated to formation. We are confident that the subject will be of interest to local parish leaders -- priests, deacons, DRE’s, pastoral musicians, and more. This year, our topic is “Ars Celebrandi: Something More is Required.” We will be examining the art of celebrating the liturgy – how one presides, how the assembly is engaged, how one prepares for liturgy, and how we provide liturgical formation so that the authentic celebration of the liturgy enriches all who partake in it. What, then, is the role of the parish leader? How do we contribute to the preparation and authentic execution of each liturgy? How does our own formation contribute to the formation of the Church’s ministers and to the solid formation of the assembly? More information and a study day brochure can be found here: https://fdlc.org/wp-content/uploads/2022/06/STUDY_DAY_RegistrationBrochure_2022.pdf

Volunteers are needed to make this meeting a success. Please contact Betty-Ann Hickey at the Office of Worship for more information on how you can help. 504-861-6300 or bhickey@arch-no.org.

Catholic Art Lecture: “Making Visible the Invisible, The Dogma of the Trinity in Sacred Art”
The mystery of the Most Holy Trinity, of "the one God in Trinity and Trinity in unity," is the most central dogma of the Christian faith; however, it is also the most difficult to artistically represent. As a result, this subject poses an immense challenge to artists of every age. All are welcome to Blair Gordy Piras’ presentation, “Making Visible the Invisible, The Dogma of the Trinity in Sacred Art,” on Thursday, September 22, 2022 at 7 pm in the Schulte Auditorium at Notre Dame Seminary in New Orleans. Blair’s presentation will explore the history of the visual representation of the Trinity within the Catholic tradition. She will map out how various councils, Church doctrine, and different cultures have affected our visual tradition. She seeks to answer the question: “What is the most fitting representation of the Most Holy Trinity?” This event is free and open to the public, but be sure to register to reserve your spot!

Pastoral Ministries Social to discuss Authentic Catholic Accompaniment

The ANO Office of Marriage and Family Life is sponsoring a Pastoral Ministries Social to discuss Authentic Catholic Accompaniment. The event will be held on Friday, August 26, 2022 at St. Luke the Evangelist Church, Slidell, 910 Cross Gates Blvd, Slidell, LA 70461, 6:30 PM : Wine, Beer, and Appetizer Social, 7:00 – 8:30 PM : Presentation and Discussion. “Accompaniment” is not just a buzzword in ministry today; it’s the hope of the Church. But walking with people in the midst of their joys and sorrows and helping them see where God is present in those moments is not easy. The Office of Marriage and Family Life invites all ministry leaders in the Archdiocese (Priest, Deacons, Marriage and Family Life ministry leaders, DRE’s, Catechists, Teachers, and anyone involved in any Pastoral Ministry) to a night of networking, conversation, and support in their work of authentic pastoral accompaniment. Chris O’Neill, the Director of the ANO Office of Marriage and Family Life, and Ann Koshute, Professor of Theology and founder of Springs in the Desert, will discuss how careful attention to the teachings of the Church united with compassionate listening and deep empathy to people facing complex, delicate, and difficult real-world life experiences is the path we are all called to walk. Come hear how lessons learned from ministry to those facing infertility provides a “case study” in pastoral accompaniment for ministry leaders engaged in all areas of pastoral ministry. For more information, and to RSVP, contact the Office of Marriage and Family Life: 504-861-6243 - mfl@arch-no.org.
