DEDICATION

This sixteenth index to the archdiocesan sacramental records is dedicated to the Most Reverend Thomas J. Rodi, Bishop of Biloxi. For the past nine years, Msgr. Rodi, first as chancellor and then as vicar general and chancellor of the Archdiocese of New Orleans, directed, encouraged, and supported the archdiocesan archives program. Under his direction, the remaining pre-1920 sacramental registers were transferred from individual parishes to the archives, an active program to restore these records was initiated (more than 685 volumes completed to date), nine additional volumes of this sacramental index series were published, and an annual program to microfilm and protect sacramental records was implemented. On July 2, 2001, Msgr. Rodi was ordained to the episcopate and installed as Biloxi's second bishop.

This volume is also dedicated to the early Gulf Coast families that appear in this and earlier volumes — families such as CUEVAS, LADNER, and CHRISTIAN. Since the Mississippi Gulf Coast was without a resident priest during the 1820s, families and communities were occasionally served by visiting priests from New Orleans or Mobile. More often, coast residents had to come to these cities for a baptism or marriage. The marriage of Celeste CUEVAS of Cat Island is listed here. The LADNER-MORIN families of Biloxi had four children baptized in New Orleans. Other Gulf Coast families in volumes 12-15 of this series include: CAMES (Pascagoula); FAYARD-RAYEN (Biloxi and Pascagoula); NICOLLET (Pascagoula); CABAT-NIQUES (Pascagoula and Bay St. Louis); DEDAUX-GRELOT (Bay St. Louis); AUBIN (Pascagoula); LAFONTAINE (Bay St. Louis); and TIRADE (Bay St. Louis).

INDEX to Sacramental Records	1

INTRODUCTION

This volume continues the series of publications begun in 1987 by the Archives of the Archdiocese of New Orleans, a series providing a detailed surname index to early sacramental records now housed in the archives. This is the sixth volume covering the early antebellum period.

This volume is intended as an archival finding aid to assist those who seek information from the archives of the Archdiocese of New Orleans concerning their ancestors. The book is a complete index to all surname entries found in these records between 1824 and 1825. This volume will relieve the researcher of the need to request a general search for a New Orleans area ancestor. Surname entries that do not appear in this index are not found in the archdiocesan records for this period.

This sixteenth volume includes all extant surnames for baptisms, marriages, and funerals that were recorded between January 1, 1824, and December 31, 1825, at St. Louis Cathedral in New Orleans, St. John the Baptist Church on the upper German Coast (now Edgard), St. Bernard Church at New Galvez (St. Bernard Civil Parish), and St. Mary Church (Chartres St.) in New Orleans.

Significant gaps in the Catholic sacramental records for this period continue. All the sacramental records from St. Charles Parish on the German Coast for these years are lost. St. Louis Cathedral register of funerals of slaves and free persons of color from September 30, 1825, to November 30, 1829, was not transferred to the archives and is presumed lost. St. Bernard Church, St. John the Baptist Church, and St. Mary Church records are complete for this period.

The index follows archdiocesan policy concerning the confidentiality of sacramental records. Information about race or legitimacy is not included in the entries of this published index.

The archdiocesan archives now houses all parish sacramental registers which end prior to 1920. These parishes are located in the eight civil parishes in and around New Orleans: Jefferson, Orleans, Plaquemines, St. Bernard, St. Charles, St. John the Baptist, St. Tammany, and Washington. All requests for genealogical information from these records are handled by mail. A copy of archdiocesan procedures for requesting sacramental records is available upon request or at: www.archdiocese-no.org/archives.

All enquiries and requests concerning sacramental records should be addressed to:

It includes funerals of slaves and free persons of color at St. Bernard, also called New Galvez and English Turn, from October 2, 1787, to May 5, 1887. This volume also contains 1890 and 1903 first communions and confirmations [no entries this volume].

The above coding system was necessitated by the use of a computer to index and edit records. To avoid confusion with older volume numbers (e.g., St. Louis Cathedral Baptismal Books III, 3 and 3a), requests for certificates from St. Louis Cathedral registers should indicate both the volume number and the dates (e.g. St. Louis Cathedral Marriage Book 4, 1821-1830).

One sacramental register is not included in this index: Libro primero de confirmaciones de esta parroquia de San Luis de la Nueva Orleans: contener folios y de principio al folio 1, consigne hasta que [?] Dios Nuestro Senor...ea servido...confirmaciones. A translation of this book of confirmations from 1789 to June 27, 1841, was published in 1967 by the Genealogical Research Society of New Orleans. At the time, the volume was already badly deteriorated in sections; further deterioration presently precludes a new, more scholarly translation.

Format and Content

The format and content of this volume are shaped by its purpose as an archival finding aid. This book is an index to sacred acts - baptisms, marriages, and funerals - that were recorded for sacramental purposes at St. Louis Cathedral in New Orleans, St. John the Baptist Church on the upper German Coast (now Edgard), St. Bernard Church below New Orleans, and St. Mary Church in New Orleans.

Only those records with a decipherable surname are included. In some cases, surnames were lost; in others, no surname was recorded, as in the case of some slaves, free persons of color, unnamed children, and adult strangers. In one unusual case, Father ACQUARONI recorded on February 8, 1824, the baptism of Louis and then added that this and the next three entries were missing because he was not given the needed information.

Each entry in this index includes the following information when it forms part of the original record: the person's name; date of ceremony; place of ceremony (when different from church where ceremony was recorded); type of ceremony (baptism, marriage, funeral); date of birth; occupation; age; parents' and grandparents' names; noble titles; and marginal notes concerning status and date of death. The city, the region, and when mentioned, the local Catholic parish of birth and residence are also listed. Occasionally, the 19th-century cathedral clergy noted the death, marriage, or later surname of a long-time parishioner next to the original baptismal entry. Such information is included as a "marginal note." When a baptismal record included the word "ill," this meant the child was in danger of death and was baptized immediately.

The amount of information in each record varied greatly. When a particular detail is not found in an entry, this signifies that it was omitted in the original record [o] or is presently lost or illegible [*].

During this period, the clergy continued to frequently list grandparents of a newly-baptized infant or child, occasionally including details concerning their status or current residence. For example, the grandparents of Ygnes Lorenza Theresa FERNANDEZ were Diego FERNANDEZ, dec., native of the town of Villa Pedro-Bernardo, Kingdom of Old Castille in Spain, [former] retired second lieutenant pensioned by His Catholic Majesty, and Vicenta MARRERO, native of Santa Cruz, island of Tenerife in the Canaries, still living, Guillermo HELLIOT, dec., native of Bordeaux, dept. of Gironde in France, and Maria Magdalena WARKER, native of New York in the U.S.A., still living.

This index generally includes information on unusual causes and circumstances of death and burial. Some examples of special circumstances are: Joseph LICHE, eight years old, "was crushed by a cart"; John EDWARDS and Joachim FASIO "drowned in the Mississippi River"; Marie SLATTER died "of smallpox"; Margueritte HELTE "was buried in a place designated to serve as a cemetery, there being neither church nor priest [in the parish of St. Helene, Amite River]"; Pierre HUET was buried "on the estate of Messieurs PACKWOOD, MORGAN, and DORSEY, fifteen leagues from this city in Plaquemines Parish, according to the certificate of Dr. MAYER who was present."

Increasingly in this volume, specific places of death are given, including the names of neighborhoods (Faubourgs Marigny, St. Marie, Gravier, Saulet and Clouet); streets (St. Charles, des Grands Hommes facing Washington Place, corner of Frenchman and Craps); general locations (on the other side of Lake Pontchartrain, in St. Michael Parish, on the habitation of Mr. BELL); houses (at the home of Benjamin AUTIN, at his father's home, at the home of Dr. DESTEZ); and hospitals (at the hospital of Dr. SANCHEZ, at Davidson Hospital, at the establishment of Dr. REYNARD DE LA FERRIERE, on entering Charity Hospital). These details are given in this volume, except when the information given is general (i.e. died at home).

Information contained in marriage records is divided between entries for the two spouses. Personal information is included under each spouse's name, whereas the witnesses are listed only in the husband's entry. The reader must examine both the husband and wife's entries to find all the information contained in an individual marriage record.

Legible witnesses are listed for marriages; sponsors, for baptisms. The index does not include additional baptismal witnesses beyond the parents and sponsors; such witnesses appear only in scattered entries.

All extant records with surnames are found in this index. Researchers who do not find ancestors here after reviewing various possible spellings can presuppose that the ceremony was not recorded or that the record has perished.

Certificates issued by the archdiocesan archives carry the following notation:

This entry was recorded as a sacramental record and not as a vital statistic. This certificate faithfully reproduces information contained in the original entry, but does not certify the accuracy of the information in this entry.

Information in these records was often provided to the recording priest by family members, sponsors, friends, or acquaintances. Priests often recorded names as they heard them. The accuracy of the information depended on the memory of the priest, family, or friends. There was little or no concern for "correct" spellings or for verification of the source of this recorded information.

On several occasions, priests noted that the information they received was uncertain or contradictory. Pedro WALSH was "reportedly" married in Ireland; James MC GAWER was "25 or 26 years old." The spouse of Antonio ALCONCHEL was "Maria de la Concepcion or Maria del Carmen" LENES.

In several funeral entries the priest states that certain information was unknown or could not be obtained. In the case of Alcy

HOWARD, the priest records that "nothing else is known about her" besides her age and that she died at Charity Hospital.

Sometimes a priest recorded incorrect information, as appears in the baptism of Marie Etienne DE FLECHIER (date of birth); the baptism of Louis Ursin BOULIGNY (names of godparents, the child's brother and sister); the baptism of Pablo PARAIN (child and father's surname as well as paternal grandparents); and the marriage of Jacob VAN WEDDENIG (groom's surname).

Some entries are so confusing that they cannot be precisely interpreted, for example, the baptisms of Joseph ABELARD and Lydy MATHIES; the burials of Louis ELIE, Mr. PIERRE, and Jean NOEL; and the marriage of Julian NABA.

This volume includes one pre-1824 sacramental act. Candide MICHEL, who received for his baptismal name Louis, was born in March, 1802, in Port-au-Prince and baptized in October, 1802, at Charlestown, by Fr. MERCIER, the local pastor. A copy of this baptism was entered in the cathedral registers in 1825.

The clergy recorded unusual variations of some names. LONG is also recorded as LOON; STEWARD, as STWARD; DUNCAN, as C'DUNCAN. A strange variation occurred when the priest recorded the name of a Swedish man as OLOFHEDBERY; his name was probably Olof or Olaf HEDBERY.

Place names suffered a similar fate. Pascagoula became Pascaula; Rhode Island became Roche Island; the island of Jersey in England became the island of Giarge; the town of Camogli near Genoa became Camugi. In the HOSMER baptisms, Covington in St. Tammany Parish became Covingtown, Covintown, and Covinstown. Phonetic spelling remained a frequent characteristic of sacramental records during Louisiana's early antebellum period.

In general, this index continues the conservative policy of combining surname variations only when there is some concrete indicator (same parents, spelling variation within a record, evidence from previous records). Thus, numerous similar names are not combined - AIME with AYME; CARROL with CARROLL; GARCIA with GARZIA; MOOR with MOORE; PREVOST with PREVOT. Undoubtedly, many similar surnames refer to the same family.

All legible surname variations of those baptized, married, or interred are added after the preferred family name. Surname variations of parents, witnesses, and sponsors are NOT indicated under the main surname entry, but rather are included with each individual record.

On occasion, a wife or widow, such as Catherine GRACE, was listed only under her husband's name rather than her maiden name.

As a general principle, the preferred spelling was taken first from a legible signature, then from the main text entry, and finally, from the marginal note. Where different signatures or main entry names appear, the most frequent spelling was adopted. The application of this principle resulted in some main surname entries being listed differently from those in earlier volumes.

In general, English city and town spellings are used for familiar locations. Vague, uncertain, and often-used small town names are left in the original, sometimes with an indication of the town, village, or post that the person was trying to express to the priest. French Santo Domingan spellings are used for identified geographical locations.

It is customary in critical editions of texts to indicate misspellings, grammatical mistakes, and historical inaccuracies with [sic] or [/]. This notation is used only in limited cases, particularly when different surnames are recorded for children and their parents.

In many entries, priests, witnesses, and sponsors wrote in a hand that formed different letters in exactly the same way. U/N, U/V, N/R, A/O, and E/C are common instances where the letters are simply indistinguishable. This uncertainty must be kept in mind, particularly in regard to unfamiliar surnames.

The priests continued to use unusual variations of surnames. "B," "V," and "W"; "E" and "I"; "C" and "Q"; as well as "S," "Z," and "C" are often used interchangeably. VALET is also BALLET; VENPRENNE is also WENPRENNE; ENGLE is also INGLE; CARANTIN is also QUARANTIN; SERPAS is also CERPAS and ZERPAS; SECXNAIDRE is also CHIXNAYTRE; CHAUF is also SHOFF. "H" appears and disappears before such vowels as "E" and "A"; and "AU" and "O" are sometimes used interchangeably in entries. Thus, AUBERT also appears as HAUBERT; ECO is also HECAUD; AUBRY is also OBRY.

One convention in the Edgard records makes precise translations difficult. The pastors often note at the end of a baptismal entry, "all of this parish." It is not always clear if this refers to all godparents, to all witnesses, or to everyone, including the parents, and if this refers to place of residence or place of birth.

In four separate cases, surnames are cross-referenced: for those who assumed new names ("aka"); for significant spelling variations; for combination names; and for maiden-married names of deceased women.

Surname variations in which the first letter differs are cross-referenced (e.g. BAUD with VAUD; CHAUF with SCHOFF; CEREZ with XEREZ).

Among the many combination names that are cross-referenced are: CABARET DE TREPY; DESDUNES POINCY; FUNEL DE SERANON; PUJOL-PERRET; SEJOUR MARCOU; and VERLOIN DEGRUIS.

Because of the frequent variations that occurred involving the addition or omission of "De," "Le," and "La," researchers should routinely examine these possibilities. Thus, BARJAC is found under DE BARJAC; DE ALPUENTE under ALPUENTE; MARETZ under DE MARETZ; LAVILLEBEUVRE under DE LA VILLEBEUVRE. There is a listing for LE BOURGEOIS and BOURGEOIS; one for LA ROSA but not ROSA.

The surnames of deceased spouses of widowers and widows who remarried are not cross-referenced.

For additional information on the use of this index, reference should be made to the INTRODUCTION to Volumes 1 through 15 of this series.

Historical Notes

This volume continues to reflect New Orleans' cosmopolitan population. Natives of France, Spain, and Santo Domingo are predominant among the foreign-born. These groups appear regularly in these pages. Germans, Cubans, Canadians, and natives of Africa also appear as in past volumes. Four groups, however, are present in increasing numbers: Irish, Italians, Cubans, and United States (outside Louisiana) natives.

The growing Irish presence in New Orleans is noticeable. Familiar Irish families such as GALLAGHER, KAVANAGH, HAYES, MCCAY, MURRAY, O'HARA, SCANLAN, and WALSH are listed together with numerous names that appear in phonetic form, e.g., B-YARNE, MC DERMAD, O'KONER, and OBEREIN, OBRIEN, or OBRIND. Both Irish men and women were among the immigrant population.

Italian-born men rather than women appear in these records. Genoa and the surrounding area was the main source of these immigrants (AVEGNO, CHICCHISOLA, GREGORIO, PATRON, and SERRA among others). Italians also came from Turin (BOAS and REZZONICO); Milan (FOGLIARDI and MAJIONI); Rome (DELAZZERI); Livorno (LENZI); Garella in Sardinia (MARTINEZ); Naples (MAURICIO, sp. MATHENDLEY, and ROJER); Palermo in Sicily (MAYANZA); Livorno in Tuscany (MAZZANTINY); Como "in the state of Milan" (MONDELLI); Nice and Vocca in Piedmont (PECOU and PIZZETA); among others. Like the Irish, Italian names often were recorded in phonetic or near phonetic form.

Numerous natives of Cuba are also listed here. Many were probably Santo Domingans born during their stay in Cuba. ALBRID, BESSET, BOUCHEREAU, CHATARD, FRAYLE, HUET, LACOUR, MOULIN, SAUMET and VARION appear among the many Cuban family names in this volume.

Natives or residents of every one of the original thirteen colonies, Washington, D.C., ten of the eleven additional states, and all three territories (Arkansas, Florida, and Michigan) are found in these records. Only Vermont is not represented.

The St. Louis Cathedral priests often referred to other states as “in the United States of America” or “in North America” in much the same way they referred to departments as “in France.” Among those so listed were natives of Boston and the state of Maryland in the U.S.A; Demopolis in the State of Alabama; and the State of Pennsylvania in North America. Some interesting geographical locations were recorded. Marie Coralie TOWNSLEY’s mother was a native of Mobile in Florida; Mariane LAMBERT was a native of Arkansas in this state of Louisiana; Manuel LADNER’s father was a native of Biloxi in Louisiana; Angelique MALLET was a native of Detroit in the Territory of Maryland; and Simon Bernard PERRET was a resident of “the parish of Lafayette of the Attakapas.”

New Orleans continued to attract numerous immigrants who often came individually from other countries. These included natives of: Sweden, Denmark, Norway, Scotland, England, Austria, Switzerland, Portugal, Prussia, Poland, Denmark, Gibraltar, the Canary Islands, Belgium, Flanders, Jamaica, the Island of Guadeloupe, Curaçao, Martinique, the Bahamas, the Windward Islands, Spanish Santo Domingo, Columbia, Mexico, and Guinea, as well as those of the Senegal and Mandingo nations.

All seven men from the Nordic countries (Denmark, Norway, and Sweden) are recorded in the death registers. In addition, Juana AEGMAN [@AGLMAN], a native of Gothenburg, Sweden, and wife of Arnaud [@Arnold] FONVERGNE, was listed; she had been a resident of New Orleans for almost a decade (see published Volume 12).

As in the previous volume, a number of abandoned or orphaned children appear in the records for this period (CANAL, PARKER RENAUDT, and TEISSIER entries). In addition, among the white baptismal and funeral entries for the cathedral are eight such children whose parents were unknown. Half of them were under a year old.

The sacramental entries provide many informative details about individuals and families, particularly in New Orleans. For example, Lucien Louis MARETTE was born “at sea.” Rev. Luis BERTRAND, native of France and former missionary in Kentucky and Michigan Territory, died in 1824 of yellow fever. After her mother died, Christina MAZIAS was taken under the care of Carlos DUCHAMP and his wife and raised as their own daughter. Marie CANAL, an orphan at the Poydras Home, was baptized in 1824.

Nine sets of twins are found in this volume, including FORTIER, MAESTRE, PRAVAT, and ROUGIER.

Some entries provide information about a person's occupation. John Adam BEISLY "worked as a carpenter and minusier [joiner]." Louis DEFIYO was a cabinet-maker; Desire DE ST. MARC, "the clerk of Francis GRANDCHAMP, a pharmacist;" James ARDERY, a steward on the habitation of Mr. BELL. Francois SEMONT was a geometrician; Auguste RICHARD, a gunsmith; Louis Henry LE MAITRE, a ferblantier [tin man]; and John EDWARDS, a sailor on the American merchant ship, Orezimbo.

Louis Auguste COURT, Juan Pedro DUFOURE, [o] DWYER, and [o] BOWIN were doctors who died in these years. Other doctors noted are: ALLAIN, DAVIDSON, DESTEZ, HAUDRESSY, LEZIER, MAYER, MARTIN, MONNIER, REYNARD DE LA FERRIERE, SANCHEZ, THOMAS, and TRABUC. Numerous deaths in Charity Hospital, Davidson Hospital, the Hospital of Dr. SANCHEZ [opened in Sep. 1821], and the hospital of Dr. REYNARD DE LA FERRIERE are recorded. Five women also died in Charity Hospital (Marie DAGNION, Marie EACKATEE, Alcy HOWARD, Nancy THOMSAC, and Marie TWAILLE). None were identified as natives of New Orleans. More than a dozen bodies were sent to the cemetery by the police; one, by the coroner.

Both 1824 and 1825 were yellow fever years. The estimated number of deaths from the yellow fever epidemic of 1824 was over 100, and many cathedral funeral records list yellow fever as the cause of death. Another 23 victims are listed in 1825. Francisco GALES was the first 1824 victim (May 11); Thomas SWANINGHAM, the 91st and last victim (November 16). Michel RECKLESS was the first 1825 victim (June 25); Charles SHULTE, the 23rd and last victim (Sept. 6). The progress of the epidemics is traced in the burials of other victims. In addition, Marie SLATTER was listed as the first 1825 victim of smallpox; no other smallpox deaths were indicated.

The epidemic and other outbreaks decimated many families. Jean ARMANDO and Angelina REZZONICO, his wife, died the same night. Celeste PANKERNE lost her husband Nicolas PICOU and two children within two weeks in 1824. Ysidro Maria DETHIER, an orphan of about 6 years old at the time of her baptism in July of 1825, lost both of her parents Dieudonne Joseph DETHIER and Maria Josepha MICHOTTE [Marie MICHAUD], "both victims of the epidemic which swept this city during the months of August and September, 1824."

This volume also contains several entries of historical interest concerning education. Marie Antoinette ROY, ca. 19 yr., directress of the Academy for young ladies of New Orleans maintained by the Dames VULFLAMBERG, died Aug. 26, 1824. Rev. Doctor [Simon] GALLAGHER, former Vicar General of Baltimore, officiated at the marriage of Henri MC DERMOTT and Julie Anne CARROLL; GALLAGHER was also a teacher at the school of Rev. Michael PORTIER, the future bishop of Mobile, Alabama.

One burial in the cemetery of St. Charles Parish was recorded at the cathedral - that of Victoire FORTIER. The burial of Marie Caroline SALAIRE in the cemetery of St. Bernard Parish, Terre-aux-Boeufs, was recorded in the cathedral registers "at the request of the husband of the lady, and because I have not found the registers at the Church of St. Bernard in order to be able to write in them." Pierre HUET was buried "on the estate of Messieurs PACKWOOD, MORGAN, and DORSEY, fifteen leagues from this city in Plaquemines Parish, according to the certificate of Dr. MAYER who was present." The burial was also recorded in the cathedral register. The burial of Margueritte HELTE, recorded at Edgard, took place in the parish of St. Helene, Amite River, where she was interred in a place designated to serve as a cemetery, there being neither church nor priest.

The oldest persons listed in this volume are Mathurino JUNG (ca. 111 yr.), Magdeleine RIXNER (ca. 110 yr.), and Maria Catharine LECOMPTE (ca. 107 yr.), as well as three others who are listed as being ca. 100 yr.

Bishop DUBOURG baptized 6 children and officiated at the marriages of 2 couples at St. Louis Cathedral in December of 1824 and February, March, and June of 1825. The baptisms were of Alphonse Theodore BUGNION GRACIOT, Genevieve CHASSAGNE, Mary West GRIFFITH, William Dubourg LEE, and Agustin Come Damien YTURBIDE, son of Augustin Come Damien YTURBIDE, "ex-Emperor of Mexico." The marriages were of Louis Amedee DE BARJAC with Marie Michelle Victoire PAUVERT and of John PAUVERT with Adelaide HARPER, on the same day.

Other noteworthy entries include the marriage of Luis Thimenle CAIRE and Clarisa Adela MERCIER, witnessed by Gov. Henrrique JOHNSON; the baptism of former Gov. CLAIBORNE's daughter, Louise Sophronie; the burial of Jacques TANESSE, former surveyor of this city of N.O; the funeral of Denis DELARONDE, former major general in the city militia; the marriage of Pedro DRAGON, the son of Pedro DRAGON and Maria LABEAU; the baptism of Juana Theresa PILIE, daughter of Gilbert Joseph PILIE, city suveyor, architect, and civil enginner. Young Thomas Maurice EDRINGTON was buried at Edgard by the cantor in the pastor's absence.

Fr. Antonio DE SEDELLA continued to single out those who served in the military or government during the Spanish period. Several baptism and funeral entries mention those who had served "in the time of the Spanish rule," or who had been officers "in the service of His Catholic Majesty" [King of Spain]: Manel [sic] LANZOS, father of Luisa LANZOS and Captain of the Louisiana Regiment in the time of Spanish rule; Pedro WALSH, native of Ireland, resident of Bayou Sarah in this state, captain in the service of His Catholic Majesty; the deceased Juan Pedro PIERNAS, father of Joseph PIERNAS and former Colonel of the fixed Louisiana Regiment in the time of Spanish rule; and the deceased Diego MORPHY, grandfather of Maria Eulalia MORPHY and former Consul of His Catholic Majesty in this state of Louisiana.

As in previous volumes, several children, including Victoria LAPORTE and Antoine Augustin Ygnacio MULINARY, had the Blessed Virgin Mary as godmother; Antonia CARABY had St. Anthony for his godfather.

Former Mobile families found in this volume include BROUTIN, ESLABA [also under TOWNSLEY], COOPER [under COPAR and MELO], and GAILLARD [under ROBERTSON]. A former Natchez family also appears - ROBERT [under ALBERTY].

This volume also notes several families who were natives or residents “on the other side of the lake [Pontchartrain]” such as CASNAUVE, LADNER, and MEILLEUR.

A number of marriages indicate that the spouses were related by consanguinity (blood relationship in collateral line, e.g. cousin, uncle, niece) or affinity (relative of deceased spouse, e.g. sister, brother, cousin, niece, etc.). Dispensations were required in these cases.

Six family names have a dozen or more entries in this volume — FORTIER and MARTIN in New Orleans; BOSSIER, HAYDEL, HYMEL, and TREGRE in Edgard. Other names that have ten or eleven entries include WEBRE and WICNAIRE.

Sacramental acts for several of Henriette DELILLE’s relatives also appear; Henriette DELILLE founded the Sisters of the Holy Family in 1842 and is the first African American whose Cause for Canonization has been formally introduced by the Catholic Church.

One marginal note in the cathedral registers records “the entry of General Lafayette to New Orleans” at 4 p.m. on Apr. 10, 1825. Another notes that “In the months of Nov. and Dec. of the year 1825, this church [the cathedral] was decorated by Señor Don Francisco ZAPARY, an Italian, painter, and architect.”
