SPECIAL COLLECTION: CARE FUND

Our Care Fund helps meet the emergency needs of our parishioners and those in our community

1. All people that on earth do dwell,
sing to the Lord with cheerful voice;
Him serve with mirth, His praise forth tell,
come ye before Him and rejoice.

2. Know that the Lord is God indeed;
Without our aid He did us make;
We are His folk, He doth us feed,
and for His sheep He doth us take.

3. O enter then His gates with praise;
Approach with joy His courts unto;

Praise, laud, and bless His name always,
for it is seemly so to do.

4. For why? The Lord our God is good:
His mercy is forever sure;
His truth at all times firmly stood,
And shall from age to age endure.

5. To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
the God whom Heav'n and earth adore,
from men and from the angel host
be praise and glory evermore.

INTROIT (chanted at the 9:00) Gregorian Chant, Mode IV shall sing to You, shall sing to Your name, O Most High!

HOLY COMMUNION

Actively practicing Catholics who are properly disposed to receive Holy Communion (those in the State of Grace and having observed the Eucharistic fast) are invited to come forward to receive this Sacrament. All others, including those of other faiths, are invited to approach through either the priest or deacon's line with arms crossed over the chest to receive a blessing.

COMMUNION CHANT

Gregorian Chant, Mode VI

The Lord said: "Fill the jars with water and bring some to the master of the feast." When the master of the feast tasted the water, which had now become wine, he declared to the bridegroom: "You have kept the good wine until now." This was the first sign which Jesus accomplished before His disciples.

- John 2:7-11

COMMUNION ANTHEMS (9:00, 11:00)

Tribus Miraculis

Luca Marenzio (1556 - 1599)

We observe this holy day, ornamented with three miracles:

Today a star led the Magi to the manger; Today wine was made from water at the wedding; Today in the Jordan Christ desired to be baptized by John, so that He might save us, alleluia.

- Magnificat Antiphon, Second Vespers of Epiphany

RECESSIONAL HYMN

Psalm 95:1-7;

Johann J. Schutz (1640 - 1690) MIT FREUDEN ZART (1566)

Sing Praise to God, Who Reigns Above

1. Sing praise to God Who reigns above, the God of all creation, the God of pow'r, the God of love, the God of our salvation.

With healing balm my soul He fills, and ev'ry faithless murmur stills: / To God all praise and glory.

2. What God's almighty pow'r has made, His gracious mercy keeping; / By morning glow or evening shade His watchful eye ne'er sleeping; / Within the kingdom of His might, Lo! All is just and all is right: / To God all praise and glory.

3. Then all my toilsome way along, I sing aloud Your praises, that all may hear the grateful song my voice unwearied raises; Be joyful in the Lord, my heart, both soul and body sing Your part: / To God all praise and glory.

4. Let all who name Christ's holy name give God all praise and glory; / All you who own His pow'r proclaim aloud the wondrous story! / He reigns triumphant on His throne; The Lord is God, and He alone: / To God all praise and glory.

For the next member of our parish whom the Lord will call from this life:

Hail Mary...

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray. And do thou, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world, seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

COVER ART: "THE WEDDING AT CANA"
BY MICHAEL PACHER
VIA WIKIMEDIA COMMONS

BEGINNING A SEASON THAT IS FAR FROM ORDINARY

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

Our Christmas celebration has ended, and we have begun our worship of the fullness of Christ designated as "ordinary time." The Church uses the word "ordinary" differently from its common usage. The easiest way to understand it is by flipping the definitions, with "ordinary" having the elevated or special place and "extraordinary" being the less prestigious exception. For example, consider the sacrament of confirmation. The "ordinary" minister of this sacrament is the bishop, and he can delegate his authority to the priests of his diocese to become "extraordinary" ministers of the sacrament on his behalf. We can see then how Ordinary Time is far from ordinary in the common use of the term.

Consider this as we now worship the fullness of Christ from this season's very beginnings. Mark's gospel of last Monday, the first day of Ordinary Time, reveals the start of Jesus' public ministry after He was baptized. John the Baptist was arrested when we heard Jesus Himself proclaim a similar message as His cousin: "The Kingdom of God is at hand. Repent, and believe in the Gospel." Then immediately, we heard how Jesus called Simon and Andrew, who were fishing. Jesus simply called to them and they "left their nets"; they dropped their means of livelihood, the most important things they owned, and followed Him. Notice there was no explanation given nor questions asked. Do we see how Jesus's most favored disciples did not need to be convinced by eloquent speech or a long friendship? They merely heard the voice of Jesus, and they left everything to follow Him. Their faith in God had somehow prepared them enough to be able to hear and understand that it was the Son of God who called them.

Our lesson here, as we begin the second week of Ordinary Time, is to see that the faith we have built during Advent and the Christmas season is now pushed to the next level. We have received the Son of God who is with us, and we have heard the Lord's call to mission. Now what shall we do? Let our prayer be like that of the first disciples: that we can stay "tuned in" to the voice of the Lord, that we can exercise enough faith to recognize His voice, and that we can place His mission first in our hearts over everything else. Then, we will be prepared to "do whatever he tells you," just as Mary guided the servers at the wedding feast in Cana, where Jesus performed his first miracle. Consider what miracles Jesus desires to work through you!

I pray for many blessings on your week.
Fr. Brent Bowman, Parochial Vicar
