Be thou my vision, O Lord of my heart;
All else be naught to me, save that thou art.
Thou my best thought, by day and by night;
Waking or sleeping, thy presence my light.

CELEBRATING THE MONTH OF THE HOLY ROSARY

In the Catholic Church, the month of October is dedicated to the Holy Rosary. This year, Pope Leo has specifically requested that the faithful pray the rosary for peace.

Although the month is more than half over, there is still time to turn to this prayer and bring Our Lady the needs of our modern world. The power and efficacy of the rosary amid times of distress is well-documented. Below are just a few examples of times when the faithful turned to their Heavenly Mother, rosaries in hand, and she came swiftly to their aid.

- The Battle of Lepanto: In 1571, the outnumbered Holy League was victorious over the Ottoman Empire when Pope St. Pius V asked the faithful in Europe to pray the rosary for victory. This victory, which changed the course of the Western world's history, sparked devotion to the Blessed Mother under the title, "Our Lady of Victory." October 7th, the date of the Battle of Lepanto, is now commemorated as the Feast of Our Lady of the Rosary.
- Resistance to the Penal Laws in Ireland: Throughout the nearly 200 years when the English Protestant government attempted to suppress the Catholic Faith in Ireland, devotion to the rosary remained strong. Oliver Cromwell once wrote to his superiors, "When I bring these fanatical Irish before the muzzles of my guns, they hold up in their hands a string of beads, and they never surrender." Thanks to this devotion, the faithful endured this period of persecution in Ireland.
- The Downfall of Tyranny: Following the appeals of Our Lady at Fatima, devotion to the rosary has contributed to the defeat of corrupt governments in many countries. Communist regimes in Austria and Brazil fell when the people turned to Our Lady, and the dictatorship of Ferdinand Marcos in the Philippines was defeated by devotion to the rosary.

dictatorship of Ferdinand Marcos in the Philippines was defeated by devotion to the rosary.

The power of the rosary and the love of Our Blessed Mother should encourage us to devote ourselves to this prayer most diligently. In the words of Pope Blessed Pius IX, "Give me an army praying the rosary and I will conquer the world."

A SPECIAL INVITATION FROM DALE AHLQUIST

Some people have said “The Man Who Was Thursday” was an inspiration for the original “Mission: Impossible” series. Some have called it a “cosmic detective story”. Some just say it’s a mystery — even more so AFTER you’ve read it.

It has a wild plot involving anarchists, undercover policemen, duels, car chases (one with only one car, and another with an elephant), and lots of surprises.

The main character is a poet. Since when is the main character of any story a poet?

Read the book. It’s a stunner and unlike any novel you’ve ever read. Then come and tell us what you think, and see if Dale Ahlquist will tell you something useful. Learn more about this exciting Faith & Culture event below!

AUGUSTINE'S "DE TRINITATE" SERIES

This 3-part series will give an introduction to one of St. Augustine's greatest works; De Trinitate; a wonderful, challenging, and influential work by this great Doctor and Father of the Early Church. Our exploration of De Trinitate will naturally look into the history behind this great work and its' author, but will primarily seek to help each of us contemplate the mystery of Blessed Trinity in whose image each of us is made.

Attempting to read this masterpiece or to grasp the content of the Trinity is, in Augustine's words; "...picking my way through dark and difficult places." Yet, to better grasp what it means to be made in God's Image, calls upon us to venture into this greatest mystery as we seek to "see the face of God".

The schedule for this series is as follows:

Week One; Thursday November 6, 2025 —7:00-8:30 pm in Sts. Peter & Paul room

Introduction to St. Augustine and De Trinitate; a look at the the life and times of St. Augustine, his service to the Church, a sampling of the earliest parts of of this masterpiece, providing scriptural proofs

Week Two; Thursday November 13, 2025 —7:00-8:30 pm in Sts. Peter & Paul room

The Scriptural basis for the Mystery of the Blessed Trinity; a deeper dive into the biblical roots of the mystery of the Blessed Trinity and addressing some of the philosophical and heretical challenges that arise in this perilous, yet advantageous spiritual and intellectual journey.

Week Three; Thursday November 20, 2025 —7:00-8:30 pm in Sts. Peter & Paul room

The Psychological Analogy, the Mystery, and a Spiritual Exercise, through which Augustine takes us on a journey allowing us to get a glimpse of the Trinity in the human soul.

This series is meant to be an introduction to the Trinity. Reading of the text is not required but certainly encouraged, The Edmund Hill O.P. translation will be used in the presentations. Other translation are perfectly acceptable. A number of free translations are available online.
