PROCESSIONAL HYMN*Holy, Holy, Holy*#562 Saint Michael Hymnal

Holy, holy, holy! Lord God Almighty!
Early in the morning our song shall rise to Thee.
Holy, holy, holy, merciful and mighty!
God in three Persons, blessed Trinity!

Holy, holy, holy! All the saints adore thee,
Casting down their golden crowns around the glassy sea;
Cherubim and Seraphim falling down before
thee,
Which were, and are, and evermore shall be.

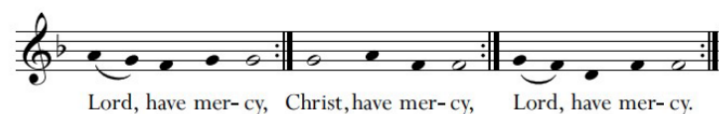

Holy, holy, holy! Though the darkness hide thee,
Though the eye of sinful man thy glory may not see,
Only thou art holy; there is none beside thee,
Perfect in pow'r, in love, and purity.

Holy, holy, holy! Lord God Almighty!
All thy works shall praise thy name is earth and sky and sea.
Holy, holy, holy, merciful and mighty!
God in three Persons, blessed Trinity!

EMBRACING HUMILITY IN PRAYER

Greetings, brothers and sisters in Christ! My name is Chad Koppes; I am the church accountant (and a former Protestant pastor) and I have been asked to write a message on this weekend's Gospel reading.

One of the struggles of being a new practicing Catholic is the prolific and bewildering array of prayers, devotions and practices in the Catholic tradition. It is beautiful in its depth but can also be intimidating because you can't do it all and different Catholics have different practices and offer differing advice about what things are necessary versus optional. For me, Jesus' teaching came at exactly the moment I needed to hear it and to be asked to write on this weekend's Gospel is deliciously ironic.

In the scripture passage, two men pray at the temple: the Pharisee in his pride and the Tax Collector in his humility. The Pharisee, confident in his holiness, gave thanks to God that he was not like other people. He fasted twice a week, which was not a requirement of the Jewish Law of the time but was part of the traditions and practices of the Pharisees. In other words, he went above and beyond the requirements of the Law. He also gave a tenth of all he received – a practice that was as rare then as it is now! He practiced an outstanding level of commitment to God and stood there before the temple praying in his pride.

The Tax Collector, on the other hand, stood at a distance. Tax collectors were universally reviled in the Jewish culture of the day. They would make their money by overcharging people what they owed to the state and keeping the excess. In other words, they would use the power of the Roman state to enrich themselves on the backs of their fellow Jews. This is why the inclusion of Matthew, a tax collector, as one of the disciples came as such a shock to everyone. The image here of the tax collector being the hero of this parable is equally shocking. The Tax Collector stood at a distance. He didn't feel worthy to approach and come near the temple. He didn't even feel worthy to look up. He beat his breast and cried to God, "Lord, have mercy on me, a sinner."

What a powerful image. A hero of the faith, who has utterly committed his life to God, is brought low by his pride while a hated, unworthy traitor stands justified in his humility. Are we approaching our devotional practices with the humility and charity which God clearly desires in us or are we checking off our 'holiness' boxes to feel good about ourselves? With the vast array of traditions that we can draw upon to pray and honor God it is easy, especially for newer Catholics like myself, to forget the former and slip into the latter. I am grateful for the perspective offered by this Gospel!

May God bless you this week!
Chad Koppes

"O Lord, open my lips, and my mouth will declare your praise. For you have no delight in sacrifice; if I were to give a burnt offering, you would not be pleased. The sacrifice acceptable to God is a broken spirit; a broken and contrite heart, O God, you will not despise." -Psalm 50:15-17

UPCOMING EVENTS AT HOLY FAMILY

AUGUSTINE'S "DE TRINITATE"

SERIES: THURSDAYS IN NOVEMBER

This 3-part series will give an introduction to one of St. Augustine's greatest works; De Trinitate. Our exploration of De Trinitate will look into the history behind this great work and its' author, but will primarily seek to help each of us contemplate the mystery of Blessed Trinity in whose image each of us is made.

The schedule for this series is as follows:

Week One; November 6, 7:00-8:30 pm in Sts. Peter & Paul room

Introduction to St. Augustine and De Trinitate; a look at the life and times of St. Augustine, a sampling of the earliest parts of this text.

Week Two; November 13, 7:00-8:30 pm in Sts. Peter & Paul room

The Scriptural basis for the Mystery of the Blessed Trinity; addressing some of the philosophical and heretical challenges that arise.

Week Three; November 20, 7:00-8:30 pm in Sts. Peter & Paul room

The Psychological Analogy, the Mystery, a glimpse of the Trinity in the human soul.

This series is meant to be an introduction to the Trinity. Reading of the text is not required but certainly encouraged, The Edmund Hill O.P. translation will be used in the presentations. Other translation are perfectly acceptable. A number of free

HELP NEEDED!

USHERS

Ushering is a rewarding opportunity to serve and support the parish by helping assure safe and orderly celebration of the Mass. In addition, ushers play a role in helping those that may need assistance participating in the sacred liturgy. Mass assignments can be scheduled based on availability and with a sufficient usher staff can be as few as 4 or 5 Masses per quarter. If you are interested in joining this essential, flexible volunteer opportunity, please email Dan Tomaschko at dktomaschko@gmail.com or talk to one of this weekend's ushers after Mass!

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION

We are in urgent need of more committed Adorers in our Perpetual Adoration Chapel. Currently, we have 10 weekly hours that lack a consistent adorer to cover them.

SUNDAY HOSPITALITY

Every Sunday, we enjoy donuts, and fellowship after Mass in Fr. Moorman Hall. This would not be possible without the help of volunteers who set up, serve, and clean up. This is a flexible opportunity to give back to the parish as an individual, family, or group! To learn more, visit <https://hfcmn.org/hospitality>. Never been a hospitality helper before? Our Leads will get you oriented. Tasks are available for children as well as adults.

FLORAL SPONSORS

Floral sponsors ensure that our altar area continues to be decorated with beautiful plant arrangements throughout the liturgical year. We remain in need of generous donors to sponsor the flowers for Feast Days and Solemnities. To learn more, visit:

<https://www.signupgenius.com/go/20F0448AFAA2DA31-altar4#/>.
