HOLY COMMUNION

Actively practicing Catholics who are properly disposed to receive Holy Communion (those in the State of Grace and having observed the Eucharistic fast) are invited to come forward to receive this Sacrament. All others, including those of other faiths, are invited to approach through either the priest or deacon's line with arms crossed over the chest to receive a blessing.

COMMUNION MOTET(9:00) Thou art the Vine, We are the Branches

Philip James (1890 - 1975)

Thou art the Vine, we are the branches. They that do with Thee abide; theirs shall be the glorious fruitage, theirs the blessings that betide.

Love ye one-another, saith the Lord. And My law I lay upon ye, that accordingly ye live; Unto Him that asketh, give. Thou art the Vine, we are the branches. Fruitless shall the branches be, except that they keep Thy commandment, except that they abide in Thee.

(11:00) Christus Resurgens ex Mortuis

Jacob Flaherty (1982 -)

Christ has been raised from the dead and will never die again; death no longer has dominion over Him. Alleluia. - Romans 6:9

RECESSIONAL HYMN*I Know That My Redeemer Lives*

DUKE STREET

1. I know that my Redeemer lives!
What joy this blest assurance gives!
He lives, He lives, who once was dead,
He lives, my ever-living head!
2. He lives triumphant from the grave;
He lives eternally to save;
He lives in majesty above;
He lives to guide His Church in love.
3. He lives to grant me rich supply;
He lives to guide me with His eye;
He lives to comfort me when faint;
He lives to hear my soul's complaint.
4. He lives and grants me daily breath;
He lives, and I shall conquer death;
He lives, my mansion to prepare;
He lives to bring me safely there.
5. He lives, all glory to His name!
He lives, my Savior, still the same;
What joy this blest assurance gives;
I know that my Redeemer lives!

TITIAN VIA WIKIMEDIA COMMONS

"WHAT'S IN A NAME?" THE HOLY FATHER'S CHOICE OF LEO

In his first formal address to the College of Cardinals on Saturday, May 10th, Pope Leo XIV said: "I decided to take the name Leo XIV. There were many reasons, but mainly because Pope Leo XIII in his historic encyclical Rerum Novarum addressed the social question in the context of the first great industrial revolution. In our own day, the Church offers to everyone the treasury of her social teaching in response to another industrial revolution and to developments in the field of artificial intelligence that pose new challenges for the defense of human dignity, justice and labor." Leo the XIII identified how socialism was harmfully pitting class against class, unjustly attacking the right to own property, diminishing the role of the family, erroneously emphasizing the temporal in place of the eternal, and dismissing the centrality of Christ and his Redemption. These errors of socialism are still with us; the new pope would do well to address these mistakes with fresh fervor and clarity.

I am hoping one of the "many reasons" that went unstated is an allusion to Pope Leo XIII's Encyclical Aeterni Patris, which advocated a return to Christian Philosophy grounded on Socrates, Aristotle and Thomas Aquinas. The modern world has for too long considered philosophy a "soft" science which doesn't lend itself to certainty. Nothing could be further from the truth! Philosophy gives us certainty about the nature of humanity, especially our faculties of abstract thinking and free will. Philosophy also offers us the tools of logic and analysis to discover truth about the universe and its creator, God!

The first pope to bear this name is now remembered as Pope St. Leo the Great, who reigned as Bishop of Rome from A.D. 440 to 461. Leo is famous for treating with Attila the Hun to stop his invasion of Italy. According to Catholic Encyclopedia: "Leo's [the Great] chief aim was to sustain the unity of the Church. Not long after his elevation to the Chair of Peter, he saw himself compelled to combat energetically the heresies which seriously threatened church unity." This reflects the motto of our new pope: "In Illo Uno Unum" (In The One, One or In the One [we are] One). The primary doctrinal clarification during Leo the Great's papacy occurred at the Council of Chalcedon and was concerning Christ being of two natures, human and divine, united in one person. Belief in Christ's divinity has been greatly reduced—this could be another reason for the choice of the name Leo.

In Latin, Leo means "lion". May our new pope be as courageous as a lion in defending the truths of Christ and His Church.

Sincerely Yours in Christ,
Fr. Mark Moriarty

CONGRATULATIONS TO OUR FIRST COMMUNICANTS

Congratulations to our boys and girls who received Jesus in Holy Communion for the first time last Saturday, May 10! Our Lord is very pleased with how all of these young people welcomed Him into their hearts with such great faith and love. May all of us resolve to receive our Lord in the Holy Eucharist with the same purity of heart and excitement.

I am grateful for the prayerful presence and assistance of my brother priests, Fr. Milless, Fr. Stiles, Fr. Daly and Fr. Nelson, as well as, Deacon Rubi and Deacon Dobson. -Fr. Moriarty

WORLD'S LARGEST DIAPER DRIVE

Every single day in our community, tens of thousands of mothers have to re-use or not change diapers because they can't afford to purchase enough diapers to keep their children clean, dry, and healthy. It's a sad fact that one in three families needs help to diaper their babies.

SouthWest Options for Women (SWOW) and organizations from across Minnesota have joined together to do something about that by collecting 375,000 diapers to help those most in need. SWOW's 2025 goal is 10,000 diapers.

Join us as we set out on an historic journey to make life a little easier for moms and their babies in our local communities. We especially need sizes Newborn, 4, 5 and 6.

You can drop diapers in the back of church from now until May 31st or go to <https://swoptionsforwomen.org/events/> to donate online.

These opportunities are easy to be trained into and do not require a significant time commitment. Thank you to all those who already volunteer their time!
