SAINTS PETER AND PAUL

PROCESSIONAL HYMN (5:00, 11:00)

Let All the World With Songs Rejoice

Exsultet caelum laudibus (11th cent.) OLD HUNDREDTH

1. Let all the world with songs rejoice;
Let Heav'n resound with joyful voice;
All mankind of th'a-postles' fame,
let Heav'n and earth their praise proclaim.
2. These servants once had borned the light of Gospel truth o'er heathen night.
Still may their work that light impart,
to glad our eyes and cheer our heart.
3. Lord, by Thy word to them was giv'n
the key that shuts and opens Heav'n.
Our chains unbind, our wrongs repair,
and grant us grace to enter there.
4. Thou sent them, Lord, to preach the word which cured disease and health conferred:
O may that healing pow'r once more
our souls to grace and health restore:
5. That when the Lord again shall come to call and lead His people home,
we may with His apostles blest
be asked to share His endless rest.

HOLY COMMUNION

Actively practicing Catholics who are properly disposed to receive Holy Communion (those in the State of Grace and having observed the Eucharistic fast) are invited to come forward to receive this Sacrament. All others, including those of other faiths, are invited to approach through either the priest or deacon's line with arms crossed over the chest to receive a blessing.

COMMUNION MOTET

Doctor Egregie Giovanni Pierluigi da Palestrina
O learned Paul, inspire us from above with all the graces of the Heavenly Dove; Bring us the faith to see the truth of God, and brighten earth with the sweet reign of love. Give glory to the Trinity and honor to the Unity, and joy and pow'r, for their reign stays today and through all endless days.
- Vespers Hymn for the Conversion of St. Paul (Jan. 25)

Aurea Luce Gregorian Chant - Mode

1. O light of dawn, O rosy glow, O Light from Light, all ages show your beauty, and the martyrs fame, that gain us pardon from our blame.

2. The heavens' porter, and earth's sage, the world's bright lights who judge the age. One wins by cross, and one by sword, and life on high is their reward.

3. These are your princes, happy Rome! Their precious blood clothes you, their home. We praise not you, but praise their worth, beyond all beauty of the earth.

4. Kind Shepherd, Peter, unto thee was given the keys to close and open the gates of heaven; Strike from our souls the galling chain of crime, and gain the grace for which our hearts have striven.

5. O learned Paul, inspire us from above with all the graces of the Heavenly Dove; Bring us the faith to see the truth of God, and brighten earth with the sweet reign of love.

6. One love, one faith, twin olive trees, one great strong hope filled both of these. Full fonts, in your matched charity, pray that we may in Heaven be.

7. Give glory to the Trinity and honor to the Unity, and joy and pow'r, for their reign stays today and through all endless days.

STS. PETER AND PAUL" BY JAN CAVALIER

THE FIRST AND LAST APOSTLES: STS. PETER & PAUL

The Solemnity of Sts. Peter and Paul has been celebrated since as early as 258 and commemorates the date on which both great Apostles were martyred in Rome. When June 29th is on a Sunday, the Solemnity takes precedence over a Sunday in Ordinary Time. I love it when this happens! Every six or so years, the entire church has an opportunity to celebrate these great apostles on a Sunday. It will next occur in 2031. This solemnity is especially notable this year, since it is the 175th anniversary of our Archdiocese, which is under the special patronage of St. Paul.

PETER CALLED FIRST

"As [Jesus] passed by the Sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and his brother Andrew casting their nets into the sea; they were fishermen. Jesus said to them, 'Come after me, and I will make you fishers of men.' Then they abandoned their nets and followed him."
(Mark 1:16-18).

Jesus called Peter from being a fisherman to be the leader of the Apostles. It was not all smooth sailing. Jesus once compared Peter's actions to those of the Devil with the words, "Get behind me, Satan" (Mark 8:33). Peter asked Jesus to depart because he [Peter] was a sinful man (Luke 5:8). Peter denied Christ three times (Matthew 26). Despite Peter's weaknesses, our Lord loved him and gave him great graces and responsibilities.

PAUL CALLED LAST

"Last of all...he appeared to me. For I am the least of the apostles, not fit to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. But by the grace of God I am what I am, and his grace to me has not been ineffective. Indeed, I have toiled harder than all of them; not I, however, but the grace of God [that is] with me. Therefore, whether it be I or they, so we preach and so you believed" (1 Corinthians 15:8-11).

Jesus revealed Himself to Paul about five years after His resurrection. Paul went from being a persecutor of the Church to its most effective preacher! Both St. Peter & St. Paul are wonderful examples of how God's "power is made perfect in weakness" (2 Corinthians 12:9).

Although the two saints had some serious disagreements (Galatians 2:11-14), they ultimately worked together for the salvation of souls and serve as a model for unity in the Church. Peter and Paul are frequently referenced together in ancient writing: St. Irenaeus writes, "the greatest and most ancient church, known by all, founded and organized at Rome by the two most glorious Apostles, Peter and Paul" (Against Heresies 3.3; cf. 3.1).

Both saints ultimately witnessed to Christ with their blood in Rome.

Sts. Peter and Paul, pray for us.

Sincerely Yours in Christ,
Fr. Mark Moriarty
