

Sister Mary Teresa Norton Scholarship

Sister Mary Teresa, a former teacher at SAS, is remembered for teaching History with passion and enthusiasm and English with an emphasis on essay writing and was a stickler for correct grammar usage. As a person Sister is remembered for her quick wit, her ability to tell a great story, and for being a fiercely loyal Boston sports fan.

The Costello, Farrell, and McAvoy families support this scholarship in Sister's memory. The recipient of the annual Sr. Mary Teresa Norton Scholarship Award is a student of faith, has a thirst for knowledge, shows kindness and compassion to others, and has a passion for History and English. This scholarship will be for one year, to be applied to tuition at the student's high school.
