THE GIVING TREE

Dear Parishioners,

I would like to extend my thanks to all parishioners for the prayers, cards and encouragement as I continue to recover from my injury, which is the result of my tiredness and overwhelming myself by doing too much. By conducting an examination of conscience, I will teach myself better time management to allow enough energy for prayers, recreation and work. My body is telling me when it's time to stop!

I have made a few important decisions: Monday (my day off) will be for recreation. I am cancelling the 6 pm Monday Mass at Holy Trinity for the remainder of 2021. Starting in 2022, I will be moving the Monday Mass to Tuesdays at 6:00 at Holy Trinity, because I would like parishioners to have the possibility for confessions one day in the evening. Additionally, there will be NO 9:00 Mass on Tuesdays at St. Nick. Weekday masses will be Wednesday, Thursday and Friday at 9:00 at St. Nicholas. The only time there will be mass on Mondays is when there is a Holy Day of obligation. Thank you for your understanding!

Since I arrived here, things have gotten easier because I have acclimated to everything. I have met more wonderful parishioners and hopefully I have made good my intentions to serve you first and foremost. I continue to pray for your ongoing support. Thank you to all of our parish groups for accepting my invitation to join our Parish Council. You are all supporting pillars that hold our parish together.

Thank you for answering my request to revise Bingo. It is slowly being rejuvenated.

As we begin preparing for Advent and Christmas, I would like to remind you that this is a very good time for sacramental preparation. Our Director of Religious Education will be offering a spiritual program for you to take advantage of. Also, I would like to schedule more time for the important Sacrament of Reconciliation.

Thank you to Deacon John Terranova for stepping in and doing the prayer services on weekdays at daily Liturgy of Word.

Unfortunately, because of my injury, however, it will be difficult to make home visits during this upcoming holiday season. Nevertheless, as I recuperate and feel better, I will try to do what I can.

Have a blessed Advent and Christmas season!

Fr. Marian Babjak

When this happens and God asks each of us, "What have you done with the gifts that I have given you?" How will you respond? The good news – it's never too late to live and grateful and generous lifestyle.

Surviving the Holidays a virtual grief workshop

When: Tuesday, December 7, 2021 at 7:00 PM

Where: Hosted via Zoom online

RSVP: Email: jbower@ghospice.com for a Zoom invitation

Cost: No cost for those who register for the workshop

Grief is stressful at any time of year, but at times of celebration the pain can be almost unbearable.

Loving and grieving are inexorably connected. We cannot experience one without the other. If we love deeply we will grieve deeply. Pain and loss are often magnified by the pressures and expectations of the holiday season. Seasons promoted for feelings of joy and happiness often seem only to deepen the feelings of loss, aloneness and separation. So, how do we survive the holidays as we grieve?

Come and learn to:

- Understand your grief and how to move forward in life
- Survive and even enjoy the holidays with some practical ideas for managing the holidays

Retirement Fund for Religious

Please give to those who have given a lifetime.

From Catholic schools and hospitals—to parishes, retreat centers, and works of mercy—elderly sisters, brothers, and religious order priests have prayerfully served our Church and world. Most ministered for little pay. Now, without enough retirement savings, many religious communities are struggling to care for aging members. Your gift to the Retirement Fund for Religious helps provide nursing care, medicine, and other necessities. Please be generous.
