Parish Giving

"But rather, love your enemies and do good to them, and lend without expecting anything back..." (LUKE 6:35)

Easier said than done, right? But, if we are to imitate Christ, most of us need to practice mercy and compassion more frequently. Start with the little daily annoyances that we experience, the unkind word or hateful glance we receive. Instead of plotting revenge on that person, try saying a quick prayer for that person. Praying for our enemies doesn't change them, it changes us. Mercy and compassion will keep us on the path to holiness.

CATHOLIC EXPONENT

As usual, there is ample wisdom in the Scripture readings for this Sunday, but much of it seems difficult – even more so than usual. Does David's restraint, as depicted in First Samuel, against King Saul, who was persecuting him, seem foolish rather than virtuous? And the Gospel reading from Luke telling of Jesus' Sermon on the Plain – with its instructions to love our enemies, turn the other cheek, and do good to those who hate us – strike us as disastrously naïve? Such counter-cultural counsel seems at odds with the message that our society sends us about "watching your back" and "looking out for No. 1." We hear the redemptive words of Jesus at Sunday Mass but we have to live in the larger world the rest of the week.

That is the blessing of the Catholic Exponent, our diocesan newspaper. Through its news, commentary, Scripture reflections, and adult faith formation, the Exponent reminds us of the wisdom of our faith and helps us discern how to apply that wisdom in our day-to-day lives.

Subscribe or renew your subscription today by dropping the "Catholic Exponent" envelope from your parish packet into the collection basket. Or call 330-744-5251 or email us at exposubscriptions@youngstowndiocese.org to request subscription information. Remember the wisdom of our faith every day. Read and support the Catholic Exponent.

St. John's Cemetery, Villa Marie Road, will have Spring Clean-Up in March. All Christmas and other decorations that don't comply with the cemetery rules and regulations need to be picked up by March 11, 2022, otherwise they will be discarded.

The QUO VADIS AA MEETINGS are open to anyone seeking recovery from alcohol addiction. Meetings are held on Fridays at 8pm in the St. Nicholas Lower Church Hall. Masks are required and social distancing will be followed.

www.facebook.com/COSRelEd

Dear Parishioner/s

We are only 11 days from Ash Wednesday so it seems appropriate to provide you with some guidelines regarding Ash Wednesday. As you recall, last year we were asked to sprinkle ashes to avoid any contact. In the latest correspondence from the diocese, we are asked to resume traditional distribution of ashes on Ash Wednesday. The latest directives from the Office of Worship states:

Recent postings on liturgical discussion websites have indicated that most dioceses are returning to the regular practice of signing ashes on the individual's forehead since COVID transmission is respiratory and not touch-based.

As a result, Bishop Bonnar has decided that parishes within the diocese return to the regular familiar way for the imposition of ashes this year...saying the formula as it appears in the Roman Missal and signing individuals on the forehead. Ashes may not be self-imposed; they are always given by a minister.

Should the Congregation and/or USCCB issue new guidance in this matter it will be passed on to you.

The current CDC guidance for face coverings remains. Fully vaccinated persons, although not required or mandated, are encouraged to wear a face covering. Unvaccinated persons are still required to wear face covering.

Finally, please remember that the reception of ashes is not mandatory or an obligation. The faithful should be reminded it is their own internal disposition and intention to repent and start over that is the best fruit of Ash Wednesday. Ashes are an external sign of that internal reality. They may enter into Lent with a repentant heart even if they decide that receiving ashes is not the right thing for them this year.

Therefore, we will be signing ashes on foreheads at all the services and Masses in all three parishes. Since Fr. Matt and I are responsible to three parishes, here is the schedule for all the masses and prayer services with distribution of ashes for our parishes.

6:30 am – Mass – Holy Family – Msgr. Connell

8:30 am – Mass (School) – Holy Family - Fr. Martin

8:30 am – Prayer Service with Distribution of Ashes – Saint Luke

9:00 am – Mass (School) – Saint Nicholas – Fr. Matt

12 Noon - Prayer Service with Distribution of Ashes – Holy Family

12 Noon - Prayer Service with Distribution of Ashes – Saint Luke

12 Noon - Prayer Service with Distribution of Ashes – Saint Nicholas

4:00 pm – Mass – Saint Nicholas – Fr. Martin

5:00 pm - Prayer Service with Distribution of Ashes – Holy Family

6:00 pm – Mass – Saint Luke – Fr. Matt

7:00 pm – Mass – Holy Family – Fr. Martin

I believe that you will have more than enough opportunities to receive ashes on Ash Wednesday this year and I hope this schedule will help you to plan properly.

Have a blessed week,

Fr. Martin

Mark your calendars. . . .
