GOSPEL MEDITATION

Encourage Deeper Understanding Of Scripture

If you are like me, it's easy to fixate on our shadows: failures, guilt, shame. Especially when we suffer, it is easy to want to blame ourselves or others. In this week's Gospel, Jesus' disciples ask about the blind man, "Rabbi, who sinned, this man or his parents?" (John 9:2) They, like us, focus on blame. But Jesus sees the entire situation differently: "Neither he nor his parents sinned; it is so that the works of God might be made visible through him." He does not deny sin, but he sees deeper — through the light of mercy, not the lens of judgment. The scene hinges on Jesus' strange claim: "I am the light of the world" (John 9:5). He sees things differently than everyone. They see shadows and light. He is the light.

Thought experiment: imagine you are the sun looking at everything on the earth. What do you see? Everything. What do you not see? Shadows. Everything is illuminated. If you see it, it is illuminated. For the light, nothing is dark.

Because he is the light, Jesus sees us in the glow of his redemptive love. Even our sin becomes a place where his glory can shine. The man's healing is not just about sight — it is about seeing as Christ sees. Lent is not a season of staring into darkness. It is a time to step into the light — to let Christ's gaze reframe how we see ourselves and one another.

Lenten challenge: Spend 10 quiet minutes this week asking Jesus to show you how he sees you. Not through shame or fear, but through the light of his mercy.

— Father John Muir

STEWARDSHIP

"Not as man sees does God see, because man sees the appearance, but the Lord looks into the heart."

1 Samuel 16:7

How often do we invest our time, talent and treasure in creating an appearance that does not matter at all to God? We strive to impress with our clothing, home, career, possessions, car and other marks of distinction. But none of these illusions of greatness will impress God. Instead, He will look into our hearts to see how much we loved Him, how much we loved others and how we showed that love by the way we used our time, talent and treasure here on earth.

Inspiration of the Week

The Pharisees refused to see what was in front of them. Their blindness was stronger than that of the man born without sight, because it was a blindness they chose for themselves. So what will it be for us? Do we choose blindness, or do we choose sight?

SAINT ANTHONY NOVENA MARCH 17 - JUNE 9, 2026

8:30am Mass

followed by prayer to the Saint

We celebrate the 13 Tuesdays, a Novena in honor of St. Anthony of Padua, the Miracle Worker.

A Novena is a specific time set aside on a regular basis to focus in prayer on specific intentions. Saint Anthony is our "partner" in prayer and a channel for God's wonders to bring about change and healing. Please come, one and all, and bring your needs to God's care.

From The Pastor

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

There are days, weeks, and even months that are designated to celebrate people or observe issues each year like Earth Day on April 22nd, Week of Prayer for Christian Unity each January 18th to 25th and Black History Month every February. The month of March is Women's History month and this past week was the 115th year of International Women's Day on March 8th and Catholics in the U.S. observed National Catholic Sisters Week.

National Catholic Sisters Week is an annual celebration that takes place from March 8th–14th. Created to honor women religious, it is a series of events that instruct, enlighten, and bring greater focus to the lives of these incredible women. It's our chance to recognize all they have done for us. It is also wished that as more young women learn about women religious, more will choose to follow their example.

Women Religious serve God through a diversity of ministries. Some sisters live cloistered lives in contemplative prayer, while other sisters work in the world striving to improve various aspects of society, from education to healthcare to human rights issues. All find ways to make the world a better place. They may have had a positive impact in your life through their work in our parishes and diocese.

We may be familiar with all the women religious who have served in our community as teachers, providing medical care, and serving the poor and those in need. The Ursuline Sisters of Youngstown have served in our diocese for 150 years as teachers and ministering to those in need. The Sisters of the Humility of Mary have served in our area since 1864 as teachers and in hospital ministry. The Sisters of Notre Dame who have taught in our schools and served in parish ministry. The Oblate Sisters of the Sacred Heart of Jesus who have the ministry of caring for our retired priest, teaching and serving in parish ministry.

We have been blessed with the dedicated service of many women religious. Let us keep them all in our prayers, but also learn more about the ministries of the sisters, offer our support when we can and just say thanks.

Your brother in Christ,
Fr. Tom

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC

Sent

I don't know about you. But if I was a blind person sitting by the side of the road, minding my own business, and a stranger came along and rubbed spit-mud in my eye, I'm just salty enough that I would ignore his words out of spite.

Even though he was, admittedly, super-nice about the whole thing.

Obviously I would wash the mud out, because ... spit. But I wouldn't go to the Pool of Siloam. I would go to a pool on the whole other side of town, just to be contrary. I would make frustrated, grossed-out noises while I splashed water on my eyes: "Ugh! I can't believe this! People are the worst!" I would feel satisfied that I wasn't tricked or conned or taken advantage of.

And I would stay blind the rest of my life.

When Jesus performs a miracle in the Gospel, we sometimes think of it like a fireworks show. Something people point at — "Ooh! Aah!" — and move on from. But a miracle of Jesus is not a party trick. It is a commissioning.

And each of us, in our own way, has the choice of accepting it or not.

Nowhere in the Gospel story does it say that Jesus promised the man sight if he washed in the pool. I wonder what it was that made the blind man feel he could trust Jesus. Was it something in his voice? Was it something in his touch? Was it the humanity with which he spoke of the blind man to his disciples — a gentleness missing from most other interactions of his life?

We'll never know. But we do know this: the blind man's sight wasn't restored until he made a decision. A decision to be sent.

"I WAS BLIND AND NOW I SEE."
- JOHN 9:25

It's difficult to wrap our brains around suffering. When bad things happen, we want to know why. Why does a good and faithful servant of the Lord have to suffer a protracted and painful death? Why is an innocent child born with a heart defect or must battle cancer? Why does one neighbor lose his home to a natural disaster while another escapes the storm's wrath? We want to give pain meaning, to understand its purpose.

That's what the disciples are wondering when they ask Jesus why the man in today's Gospel is blind. Is his lack of sight a physical manifestation of his sinfulness? Or his parents'? Is God punishing him for some transgression? No, Jesus says. Our Father is loving. Just as our parents would not wish us ill, neither does our Heavenly Father. Pain and suffering exist, but not because God actively wills it. Sorrows in this life are an opportunity to experience God's grace, to draw closer to Him, to identify with the suffering Christ endured on the cross for us. The man's blindness—and cure—helped advance Jesus' ministry in making God known on earth: "it is so that the works of God might be made visible through him."

Funds raised by the Annual Diocesan Appeal help ease suffering by making God's love and mercy tangible through the Church's ministries and programs that the Appeal supports. Please prayerfully consider easing others' burdens with a gift to the Annual Diocesan Appeal.
