

DEAR PARISHIONERS,
On Monday of this past week I held an open parish meeting for anyone who had questions or suggestions about the interiors of the building project. Only Four persons attended the meeting. One person phone me with questions and suggestions. We will use those ideas for further refinement of our plans.

Additionally on Thursday of this past week I met with the Diocesan Building Commission. They did not approve the plan as suggested by the Kitchen committee. They did approve the revised kitchen as presented last weekend. Additionally they approved the plans as presented by the Food Pantry Room and the Educational Room. The next step is for the Architect to develop detailed plans for our project.
FR. PAUL
