Dear Parishioners and Friends of St. Lawrence,

Last week, those who are preparing to enter the church – those to be baptized and those who already united with us in baptism, will make a full profession of faith, be confirmed and receive the Eucharist, were presented to the Bishop in Lafayette. Those to be baptized are now called “The Elect” which means “chosen one.”

For the next three weeks, we will celebrate the “scrutinies” which means to examine our lives for the hold sin may have over us, pray for healing and strength to overcome sin and resist temptation. The Rite of Sending is followed by a prayer of exorcism – a prayer to release one from the power of sin in order to enter into a more intimate relationship with Christ and His Church. As a member of the Body of Christ, not only do we pray for ourselves but the whole community of faith, especially the one(s) to be baptized.

Those already baptized are encouraged to receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation that we might be freed from that which diminishes our life in Christ or has killed it by serious sin.

Let us take a brief look at sin--

At the grade school level, we might have only looked at sin as violating a rule or one of the 10 Commandments, but at that age were rarely aware of the damage of sin – both to the one who was sinned against and the one who sinned. Sin does us harm and harms others around us.

For the most part, sin is often centered in selfishness – “I want what I want when I want it” – the concern or impact on others is not recognized or just ignored – as “I” become the center of the universe and only “I” matter. It truly is all about “me.” The story of Adam and Eve is very good to understand how sin works – Eve knew what God had said, but the “fruit of the tree” looked inviting and something good – “you will be like God and know Good and Evil” – and you will not die – it won’t harm you -- which will be discovered to be a lie. We eat the fruit – what was forbidden. Sin seems to give us freedom – to do what we want and ignore the “rules” which are sent to control or stand in our way of something we want. But the sin becomes a trap and often “they discovered that they were naked and hid.” This expresses the effect of sin – the creator of a false self and fear of God. Strange that we humans fear our Creator and Maker, rather than the sin that harms us.

The deeper we enter into sin, the more we enter darkness as we justify ourselves, minimize the harm done to others – and the darkness results from growing more and more distant from God – Jesus who is the light of the world. The more that we are aware of our sinfulness or sinful choices the closer we are moving toward God. To believe that we are without sin indicates how great the darkness is. It is always God who calls us to awareness, for God wants to free and heal us as God desires intimacy with us.

The opportunity for the Sacrament of Reconciliation is available on Saturdays from 2:00-4:00pm during Lent, but our parish communal celebration is on April 10 at 2:30 p.m. and 6:30 p.m. Everyone has anxiety about this sacrament, but it is one of the most “soul-refreshing” experiences you can have if you haven’t gone in a while – 5 years, 10 years, 40 or 50 years. Give yourself a gift – to unburden your heart and feel a renewal and cleansing within. Don’t let fear enslave you.

What we learn over time is that God is truly on our side – and it is sin that harms us as the song says, “don’t let fear keep us apart.”

God Bless, Fr. Dave

PARISH MINISTRIES AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

ADULT FAITH FORMATION COLUMN

(Sue Wilhelm)

Maya Reynon will be leading the children's liturgy of the Word. If you are in high school or a college student and would like to assist with this ministry, please let Sue or Kelsi know. We could use a few more hands.

I am a member of the Household of God. God is head of my household.

Last Sunday a group of us travelled to Lafayette to the Cathedral of St. Mary so that our catechumen and candidates who will be welcomed into the Church at the Easter Vigil could be received by the Bishop. It was a beautiful service and reaffirmed that we are part of the larger Body of Christ. The Church we belong to is larger than St. Lawrence.

The long drive reminded me that we are on a pilgrimage throughout the whole of our life. And along the way we travel with one another, we hear each other's stories, we break bread together. Sometimes we hit bumps on the road, and at other times we dance for joy—and all this in community. This week, each day, notice and be grateful for one thing that reminds you that you are part of this larger community, the Body of Christ. That we give and receive Christ in one another. And this indeed is Church.

Extraordinary Ministers of the Eucharist: Please remember to fill out the form we sent as we begin to expand the ministry to our homebound parishioners. Training will be April 2nd at 1:00 pm or 6:30pm at St. Agnes. Please drop your questionnaire in the collection. Thank you!

Sunday, April 7 | 6:00 PM

Join us for a dramatization of the Last Supper presented by men of the parish and the St. Lawrence Choir. In this living dramatization, the Twelve Apostles speak their minds to themselves, to each other and to the Lord in the light of the words that they have just heard Jesus speak: "One of you will betray Me." The play focuses on just a few seconds in time at the Last Supper when Jesus announced that someone would betray him that night. After each shocking pronouncement, each apostle in turn relives his history with Jesus, reviews his faith and agonizes that he may be the traitor.

150th Anniversary of Our Church

We are currently gathering photographs for our 150th Anniversary Gala and other events throughout the year. If you have photos from church or school events that you would like to share, please stop by the Parish Office so we may make a digital copy, or you may email them to galaphotos@stlawrencemuncie.com. Any information you can include with the photos (ie. year, names, event, etc.) would be greatly appreciated.

The Sacrament of Reconciliation will be offered from 2:00-4:00 PM each Saturday during Lent.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Hollywood has given us an image of Moses slipping off his shoes before a burning bush. God has just called Moses by name, and so that Moses doesn't miss the meaning of this breakthrough in human history, God requires that all barriers to the experience be eliminated. If you've ever tried to maneuver barefoot across hot sand, or pick your way along a rocky beach, you know how sensitive feet can be.

Within the Church, there are religious orders with a custom of going barefoot, not merely to show poverty, but to be an outward sign of a desire for connection with creation, a desire to go through life alert to what God is doing. In early days, when reconciliation was a once-in-a-lifetime possibility, penitents often went barefoot for a long period of time as a sign of their conversion. Even today, people follow an ancient practice of slipping off their shoes to walk in the procession to the cross on Good Friday. It is striking that the first use of our newly-scrubbed feet from Holy Thursday night is to walk resolutely in the footsteps of Christ to the cross.

MID-LENT CHECK-IN

God says to Moses, "This is what you shall tell the Israelites: I AM sent me to you . . . The LORD, the God of your [ancestors], the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, the God of Jacob" (Exodus 3:14, 15). As Jesus would later say, God is not a God of the dead, but of the living, and so we believe that the dead will one day rise. At this midpoint of Lent, we pause to consider how our repentance is leading us to the Resurrection, to our reunion with the great "I AM." Part of our repentance involves working to secure justice for all and helping our neighbor to live in God's ways. We encourage each other and nurture each other, like the compassionate gardener of today's Gospel, who tells the owner of the orchard that he will nurture the tree, fertilize it, and perhaps it will bear fruit.
