Next Week's Reading – Third Sunday of Easter-5/1/2022 Year C

First Reading (Acts of the Apostles 5:27-32, 40b-41) The high priest interrogated the apostles and ordered them not to speak again about Jesus. The apostles left filled with joy for having been found worthy of ill-treatment for Christ.

Second Reading (Revelations 5:11-14) The author of Revelation had a vision and heard the voices of countless angels who surrounded the heavenly throne. They cried, "Worthy is the lamb that was slain...to the Lamb be blessing and honor, glory and might, forever and ever. Gospel (John 21:1-19 or 21:1-14) Peter and the disciples fished all night but caught nothing. Jesus appeared to them, telling them to cast their nets again, and immediately the nets were filled with fish. After they ate, Jesus told Simon Peter, "Feed my lambs...Tend my sheep."

St. Joseph Catholic School, Madison: During this time of rising inflation, some families are struggling to keep their students at St. Joe. With prayerful consideration, we ask for your help in continuing to spread our faith in the education of our students who are the future of our Church by contributing towards the tuition of a Catholic student. The total tuition rate for a practicing Catholic is $10,100. We are grateful for your continued prayers and support of St. Joseph Catholic School.

Sacred Heart Chair Stretch & Contemplative Prayer: Classes will be on Mondays & Thursdays at 10:00 a.m. in the Parish Center and will last approximately 1 hour. Please join us for fellowship as well as exercise & most importantly, to pray together. If you have questions, please contact Teresa Speer RN (retired) RYT-200, R-CYAMT, Chair & Trauma Yoga certified at 769-233-1989.

Covid Safety: Please keep a safe distance from people other than family and please continue to wear a mask at Church. We have come a long way and we are much safer than we were two years ago. However, we are not fully there yet. Please be patient.
