50th Anniversary of Canonization of St. Elizabeth Ann Seton

On Sunday, September 14th, our parish will joyfully celebrate the 50th Anniversary of the Canonization of our patron saint, St. Elizabeth Ann Seton.

As part of the celebration, we invite parishioners to join us at Masses that weekend dressed in black and white, in honor of the color of Mother Seton's religious habit. We especially encourage our children to come dressed as Mother Seton to help us honor her legacy and example of holiness.

Let us come together as a parish family to give thanks for the gift of our beloved patron saint!

Please scan the QR code, visit the official shrine website, and learn more about Mother Seton.
