SAINT JOSEPH'S FEAST DAY WAS MARCH 19, 2021

Joseph has a place in the lives and devotion of anyone who loves Jesus. As he is presented to us in scripture and tradition, he was a quiet man – the Gospels do not record a single word he said – who simply lived his life without any great fanfare as a faithful and loving husband, foster father & servant, doing what the Lord asked of him. However, there is a “special eloquence” in this humble silence observed Saint John Paul II (Redemptoris Custos, 17), and perhaps this is why he has been such a popular saint. He is a model for fathers in all families and for working men, but for every person a devotion to Joseph can lead to a deeper faith and to a greater closeness to Christ and to Mary.

Pope Francis, in his address to the clients of Catholic Charities last year, said of Saint Joseph, “Here I think of a person whom I love very much, someone who is, and has been, very important throughout my life. He has been a support and an inspiration. He is the one I go to whenever I am ‘in a fix.’” What Saint Joseph knew and what is true for all of us is that “faith makes us open to the quiet presence of God at every moment of our lives, in every person and in every situation,” continued our Holy Father. This faith allowed him – and will allow us – to move forward even though the way may not be clear.

Like many people today, especially those on the margins, Joseph had to face some difficult situations. And it was faith, explained Pope Francis, that “gave Joseph the power to find light just at the moment when everything seemed dark. Faith sustained him amid the troubles of life. Thanks to faith, Joseph was able to press forward when everything seemed to be holding him back.”

YOUR LEGACY TO THE CHURCH

Planning for death is as natural for the Catholic as planning for life. As stated in 1 Timothy 5:8; “if anyone does not take care of his own, and especially of his household, he has denied the faith and is worse than an unbeliever.” Having a will IS good stewardship. Take care of your family and your parish. Remember our parish endowment fund in your will and benefit our parish forever. Contact the parish office for more information @ (701) 627-4423.

MARRIAGE MOMENT: "I was blind and now I see" (John 9:25) In marriage we may not be physically blind but we still need to look deeply to understand the other's hurts and fears in order to see the whole person. (www.susanVogt.net)
PARENTING POINTER: If you have more than one child, who is your favorite? What a terrible question to ask a parent! But there's one wise answer: Each of them can be your favorite in a different way. Tell each of your children what makes them special to you. (www.susanVogt.net)

STEWARDSHIP SUMMARY

When Jesus heard about the illness of His friend, Lazarus, He responded, "This illness does not lead to death; rather it is for God's glory, so that the Son of God may be glorified through it." Every aspect of our lives - our sufferings as well as our gifts - can, if surrendered to Christ, lead to blessings for ourselves and others.

STEWARDSHIP THOUGHT

Whatever time we have is a gift from God and we are asked to use it wisely, to serve God and others. Have you made your Will? The State of North Dakota has made one for you which may not distribute your estate according to your wishes. For your protection and security of your heirs, consult an attorney about making out your Will.

VOCATION VIEWS: To be God's servant, we must follow Jesus. Do you desire to see where Jesus lives? Serve the poor and marginalized. (John 12: 20-33) (Diocese of Bismarck)

SHARE IN THE GLORY

Acknowledgment, openness, and acceptance of what God wants of us are central to what it means to be a Christian. Our Lenten prayer and fasting give us the strength to remain open to understanding what God wants of us, acknowledging God's purifying grace that will wash us thoroughly from our iniquity and cleanse us from our sin. Through this willingness to be ever open to God's call, we enter into a new covenant and a new life, one in which God is our guarantor. It is only when we allow God to write in our hearts what is being asked of us that our covenant with God is assured. In the Annunciation (which we commemorate later this week), Mary gives us a magnificent example of acknowledging God's invitation, opening her heart and accepting what she is being called to do. Our response, like Mary's, must be unreserved and unconditional. We must die to ourselves and be open to God's word. www.lightofchristparish.com/
