Diocese of Lafayette-in-Indiana Announcement regarding Fr. Matthew J. Arbuckle:

Recently, the diocese received an allegation that Father Matthew Arbuckle committed violations against the Clergy Code of Conduct with an adult. Pending the outcome of a diocesan investigation, Father Arbuckle will not be allowed to exercise public ministry. In order to respect the rights of the parties involved, details concerning the violations will not be disclosed.

We all share a commitment to be part of the Church's mission to respect and protect people of every age. We invite you to join us in prayer for the healing guidance of the Holy Spirit.

Father Logsdon Logging In...

I looked over the last two years New Year's articles, and both of them said that I was so excited for the new year. Hope is a virtue that I want to continue to cultivate in this coming year. Our pastorate has seen some wonderful growth, and took some hard hits this past year. We have seen over 50 baptisms, our high school servers are doing a wonderful job, many people are stepping up to be ministers, and readers, we paid off the Catholic Ministry Appeal faster than any other Pastorate. Many more positive things have happened including record enrollment in religious education and more people coming to Priest and a Pint. While we have suffered the loss of Fr. Arbuckle for the time being, some people comment that it is nice to hear from different priests from time to time. While I don't know how long this will be, please try to enjoy the variety of priests that we have celebrate with us.

We have submitted our Pastorate Vision Plan to the Diocese for review and it will come back with suggested changes. This is a big step in the Bishop's 10 year plan for the diocese. Our three year plan will help us to remain focused on our priorities and to not get distracted by too many outside activities. One example is our outreach to fallen away Catholics. There is a group at Trinity that is already working to find and connect with this group. We will be able to learn from their efforts and together bring Catholics back to the practice of the Faith.

As we celebrate the Mother of God this weekend, I would like to suggest that motherhood is a wonderful adventure that begins every day. We, the children of God and Mary would benefit from working out of the principle that we have the opportunity, everyday, to encounter the adventure of our faith and to share the fire of God's love with every person we meet. Holy Mary, Mother of God...Pray for us.

ST. JOHN NEUMANN—JAN. 5TH

St. John Neumann is the patron saint of educators, immigrants, and, due to the miracles that secured his canonization, sick children. This is a fitting patronage as he was a lover of education and learning from a very young age. In fact, when he was a child, his mother called him “my little bibliomaniac” due to his preoccupation with reading. Born in 1811 Bohemia, in what is now the Czech Republic, he attended the university in Prague preparing for ordination. However, his local bishops were not ordaining new priests at the time because Bohemia was overstocked with priests. He inquired about ordination all over Europe but received the same answer everywhere. Not one to be deterred, John then applied to several United States dioceses. Receiving no immediate responses, the saint took a leap of faith and decided to just immigrate to the United States in 1836, during his 25th year, with only $40 in his pocket. This risk paid off when he was ordained in New York a month later.

Early in his priesthood he worked primarily as a missionary to German immigrants in Buffalo. His missionary work also created an opportunity for him to spend time in Maryland, Virginia, Michigan, and Ohio. When he was 29, he joined the Congregation of the Most Holy Redeemer (Redemptorists), a congregation of priests and brothers dedicated to helping the poor and most abandoned. He was their first member to profess vows in the United States.

In 1852, at the age of 41, Neumann became the fourth Bishop of Philadelphia. During this time, he organized the individual parochial schools in his region into a diocesan system. This change allowed Catholic schools to quickly increase the number of pupils enrolled by almost twentyfold. Over the course of his ministry, St. John expanded the number of Catholic schools in his diocese from 2 to 100! His passion for education extended to immigrants, like himself, and his love for learning languages made it possible for him to hear confessions in English, Spanish, French, Italian, Dutch, and Gaelic!

A man of the people, he could often be found outside the church walls visiting people who were sick, staying in taverns and public houses to teach, and celebrating Mass in people's homes at their kitchen tables. He was canonized on June 19, 1977, following three miracles, two of which regarded the healing of youth from grave illnesses. St. John Neumann was the first American man to be canonized a saint.

Prayer for St. John Neumann's intercession

O St. John Neumann, your ardent desire of bringing all souls to Christ impelled you to leave home and country; teach us to live worthily in the spirit of our baptism which makes us all children of the one Heavenly Father and brothers of Jesus Christ, the firstborn of the family of God.

Obtain for us that complete dedication in the service of the needy, the weak, the afflicted, and the abandoned which so characterized your life. Help us to walk perseveringly in the difficult and at times painful paths of duty, strengthened by the Body and Blood of our Redeemer and under the watchful protection of Mary our Mother. May death still find us on the sure road to our Father's house, with the light of living faith in our hearts.

PLEASE REMEMBER IN YOUR PRAYERS...

Briggs Doppler, Minerva Chavez, Harold Lackey, Doris Harshman, Minerva Salazar, Deb Butcher, Todd Leach, Chris Williams, Deb Madler, Dana Brown, Sandi Detto, Devin Loudy, Carolyn Martin, Douglas Milares, Adalyn Schwieterman, all unborn babies, victims of abuse, neglect, natural disasters, influenza, coronavirus, fallen-away Catholics, and others who need our prayers.
