Dear Parishioners,

Once again, in the wee hours of the morning of Sunday, November 3rd, we will “fall back” and leave daylight saving time – a yearly change that we all must remember to do so that we’re not an hour early for Mass, work, or appointments if we have any of these on that Sunday morning. So this yearly “change” is one of a number of annual changes we are involved in. With this time change on November 3rd, here at St. Peter’s we will have another “time change,” starting on Saturday, November 9, with the Vigil Mass beginning at 4 pm rather than 5 pm. As your pastor, I feel that this Mass time change has more pros than cons. First, the earliest time that a vigil Mass can take place is 4 pm, and the vast majority of vigil Masses in our archdiocese and beyond begin at 4 pm. Secondly, those Mass-goers who do not like to or can’t drive after dark may now attend the vigil Mass at 4 pm and drive home before or at sunset – it is quite dark already at 6 pm during standard time. Thirdly, the 4 pm vigil Mass allows people, as well as the priests who officiate at these, to attend Catholic weddings that many times take place on Saturday evenings, in addition to other Saturday night events. Ultimately, making the vigil Mass more available to all parishioners who would like to attend is the important consideration here.

Corner

Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Jer 31:7-9 | Heb 5:1-6 | Mk 10:46-52

Written by
THE

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

Although today's Gospel recounts the healing of Bartimaeus' physical blindness, the story is a summons for each of us to be healed of our spiritual blindness. Spiritual blindness, an effect of sin, clouds our ability to perceive who we are and who God is. Paradoxically, Bartimaeus' spiritual eyesight is clear; he recognizes who Jesus is and he sees his own desperate need for Jesus' help. For us, however, sin acts like dust, obstructing our vision and preventing us from perceiving God's presence. We find it difficult to recognize God in other people and in the sacraments; and we likewise become incapable of perceiving ourselves as God sees us. If we wish to have our spiritual eyesight restored, we would do well to imitate Bartimaeus' humble, confident prayer: "Master, I want to see." Acknowledging our need before God and begging for his help, we invite him to heal our hearts, so that we, like Bartimaeus, may follow Jesus "on the way."

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

Where can we seek the healing of our "spiritual sight"? We should look for it from the same person from whom Bartimaeus begged to be cured of his physical blindness: Jesus. But whereas Bartimaeus' encounter with Jesus took place amid noisy crowds of followers and curious onlookers, our most intimate relations with Our Lord take place in the quiet context of prayer and the sacraments. Above all, confession and Eucharistic adoration offer us opportunities to meet God and petition him for the cleansing of our hearts. In confession, we humbly acknowledge our need for conversion and invite God to heal us. In Eucharistic adoration, we approach Jesus with the faith of Bartimaeus, seeing past the appearance of bread and declaring that the consecrated host is indeed God himself. Through these eyes of faith, the Lord heals any blindness, and we can see "and [follow] him on the way."

PRAY Choose a regular time to take advantage of the two opportunities for healing we've discussed - confession and Eucharistic adoration. If you do not already go to confession regularly, consider making it a monthly commitment. Finally, set aside time this week to visit Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament, either in Eucharistic adoration or before the tabernacle in your church. Try visiting him weekly - and then watch how your time in his presence transforms you.
