Our Book of All Souls will be in the sanctuary from All Saints' - Thanksgiving for you to write the names of your departed ones in the book. They will be remembered at Masses during the month of November (the month of All Souls).

Dear Parishioners,

On November 3, the Catholic Church celebrates the feast day of St. Hubert – more formally, St. Hubert of Liege, with Liege being a city in Belgium. Hubert was born around the year 656 in Toulouse, France, and died on May 30, 727 near Liege where he was the bishop during his adult life. St. Hubert was widely venerated during the Middle Ages. Other forms of the name “Hubert” are Hugo and Hugh, and the name means “bright mind” in German. Hubert was the eldest son of a duke, and in 682 married Floribanne, the daughter of a Belgian count. Floribanne died while giving birth to their son Floribert, and heavy grief prompted Hubert to retreat from his political life and duties. He withdrew to the local forests and gave himself up entirely to hunting. On a Good Friday morning, while the faithful were in church, Hubert was hunting, having abandoned the practice of his Catholic faith. As he pursued a magnificent stag, the animal turned to Hubert, showing the crucifix seemingly floating between its great antlers. Hubert heard a voice that said: “Hubert, unless you turn to the Lord and lead a holy life, you shall quickly go down into Hell.” Hubert then asked, “Lord, what would You have me do? He was told, “Go and seek Lambert, and he will instruct you.” Lambert was the bishop of Maastricht, who received Hubert kindly and became his spiritual director. Hubert renounced his position and wealth and gave it to his younger brother, Odo, along with the care of his infant son, Floribert. Hubert then studied for the priesthood, was ordained, and then assisted Bishop Lambert in ministry in the Maastricht diocese. When Bishop Lambert died, Hubert was appointed the bishop of Maastricht, and then of the newly-formed diocese of nearby Liege. Hubert gained the trust of the people through the outdoorsman skills he acquitted in his brief hunting life before his conversion and was greatly loved. He died peacefully in Liege. Because of his hunting skills, St. Hubert is the patron saint of hunters, archers, trappers, dogs, forest workers, opticians, and mathematicians, as well of the city of Liege. He is honored by sportsmen as the originator of ethical hunting practices. St. Hubert, pray for us and protect all hunters.

Thirty-first Sunday in Ordinary Time

Dt 6:2-6 | Heb 7:23-28 | Mk 12:28b-34

Written by
THE FAITHFUL

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

It is not surprising that we hear both Moses and Jesus speak the same words in today's Scripture. After all, Truth and Good News bear repeating! The Lord our God is Lord alone! "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength." In these words, Moses is instructing the people to fear the Lord and keep all his commandments and in turn God would give them "a land flowing with milk and honey" (Canaan). He is telling them the way to live. When Jesus repeats these words around 1,400 years later, the reason and message are the same, but he also adds to them: "love your neighbor as yourself." The two commandments are inseparable. He tells us the way to live, and how to live. It's not enough to know what God asks of us, we must do what God asks of us: love him and one another. When God is the source and reason for all our thoughts and actions, we too will not be "far from the kingdom of God."

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

How do we put God first in our lives, ensuring he is that source and reason? When he is everything? Not a short order, right? He is everything when our heart, soul, mind, and strength are united with his – when Jesus is the lens through which we see the world. The psalm today reveals that it is the Lord, himself, who is our strength. When we surrender to Jesus, he gives us the strength to love him with everything within us. And when we truly love him, we cannot help acting on that love in how we care for and love our neighbor. How will we know he is first in our lives? Jesus' words in today's Scripture tell us how: by accepting God's love for us, by loving him back, his love will overflow to those around us. Think of those whom your life touches daily: your colleagues at work, the barista at the café, those who hit the gym the same time as you and yes, those who live right next door – your neighbors. In your prayers, ask Jesus, "how can I love and serve them better?"

SERVE This week, find a particular and concrete way to love someone who needs it, or who lacks what you have: be a listening ear for someone who has no one to talk to; help a neighbor with physical house or yard work; buy groceries for that person who just lost their job. The opportunities are endless, if we just look for them.
