Dear Parishioners,

Last Sunday morning we had to adjust our clocks and watches – our mobile phones thankfully adjusted automatically – because daylight saving time came to an end for 2024, and we had to “fall back.” This coming March we will have to adjust our clocks and watches again when we “spring forward.” This twice-a-year adjustment/change is one that we should be quite used to, especially us adults, since we would be quite “out-of-sync” with everyone around us on a local and national level if we ignored it. Some find this semiannual change bothersome, some do not. But it is CHANGE, and change is an undeniable part of our lives. This weekend of November 9 & 10, we have a change in the vigil Mass time at St. Peter’s – from 5 p.m. to 4 p.m. Even just an hour’s difference is going to affect people in different ways, and in positive and in negative ways as well. But does not Jesus consistently call us to change – and to change for the better? He certainly does! And who better to direct and instruct us in these changes that He calls us to? The One who made the ultimate “change” by obeying God His Father, taking on a human body exactly like ours, thus becoming like us “in all things but sins,” who knows both the ease and the difficulty of change in our lives by His own participation in adjustment, change, and adaptation, all out of love, for God our Father and for us. Are the changes we face in our lives equal to a scourging with whips, having a crown of thorns pushed down around our head, being nailed to a cross? Our crosses, trials, and changes may be quite heavy and hard to bear, but they can never compare to what Jesus has done for us. He once asked His Apostles Peter, James, and John to keep watch with Him for one hour, yet they stayed nearby but eventually fell asleep. Jesus has the understanding and the love for us to forgive our “falling asleep” sometimes in our faith life/journey, but certainly doesn’t want us to be in a perpetual state of slumber when it comes to living out our faith. That’s where “change” now and then helps us to be our best.

Corner

Thirty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Written by
THE FAITHFUL
DISCIPLE

1 Kgs 17:10-16 | Heb 9:24-28 | Mk 12:38-44 or 12:41-44

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

“Give it your all! Leave it all on the field! Trust in your training/preparation/coaches.” We’ve all heard a version of this type of exhortation. It requires a great amount of confidence and trust – faith, if you will – to let go of our doubt and fears. The two widows of today’s readings had such confidence, as they offer us heroic examples of faith. The widow of Zarephath uses her only remaining food to cook for Elijah. She did this after receiving God’s promise that, “The jar of flour shall not go empty, nor the jug of oil run dry.” The widow had the assurance that God would sustain her, and she lived by it – trusting she could give her all, because with God’s help there would be more. Likewise, the widow in the Gospel could make an offering to the temple treasury because of her limitless confidence in God: she gave “her whole livelihood.” From that moment, she would have nothing to sustain her but God’s providential care. By their unreserved acts of generosity, both women consented to rely on God in the most absolute sense. And in so doing, they silently proclaimed their faith in the personal and unconditional love that God had for each of them.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

So deeply did these two women believe in God’s goodness that they were able to act without fear. Confident in his love, they could give to the point of having nothing left. They, literally, “gave it all that they had.” Rather than being burdensome, however, their surrender was the basis of their relationship with God and therefore, it was a much greater treasure than material goods. This message is clearly at odds with the notion that possessions and wealth are the basis of happiness. By rejecting this idea, giving generously of ourselves and trusting God to sustain us, we gain more than we could ever give up. Like the widow whose jar never runs dry, when we fill our lives with what God offers and not what the world offers, we live with abundance.

REFLECT Choose one aspect of your life you can mentally “reframe” in order to see it not as a lack but as an opportunity to cast yourself more fully on God. Spend 15 minutes this week speaking to God about this. If you can, thank him for the chance to draw closer to him. If it is too difficult to thank him for your trial, ask him to help you see and appreciate how he is leading you along this path of greater intimacy with him.
