Looking for Volunteers

Notre Dame Hospice, is looking for volunteers to serve in all parishes. Volunteers can provide caregiver relief, companionship, run errands, play music, take a meal to patient, read to or pray with the patient. Volunteers can also help with activities and special events. Any talent that you have may be useful. Volunteers do not physically "handle" patients and no medical background is necessary. If you are interested or would like more information please contact the Volunteer Coordinator, Janine Bonner: 504-418-1049 or email her at jbonner@notredamehospice.com. Thank you.

Our Book of All Souls is now in the sanctuary from All Saints' - Thanksgiving for you to write the names of your departed ones in the book. They will be remembered at Masses during the month of November (the month of All Souls).

"Jesus, help me to simplify my life by learning what you want me to be – and becoming that person." St. Thérèse of Lisieux

Dear Parishioners,

Since the Saturday vigil Mass at St. Peter's now begins at 4 p.m., the time for confessions has changed as well, and this information is readily available on the front of our weekly church bulletin. Saturday Confession time now begins at 2 p.m. and ends at 3:30 p.m. As the saying goes, "You can please some of the people all of the time, and all of the people some of the time, but you can't please all of the people all of the time." With that being said, starting Tuesday, December 3, I am adding another 90 minutes of confession time during the week, even though the time frame might not work for some but may for others. On Tuesday and Thursday mornings, the Sacrament of Confession will be available from 7:15 a.m. until 8 a.m. Although this is rather early, it may serve those who find Saturday afternoon from 2 p.m. to 3:30 p.m. inconvenient. Who knows – maybe this 45-minute period for confession/reconciliation twice a week may be well-received, and even if it isn't, at least there are three hours total offered each week in church for confession. Also, please remember that confession is available at any other time by appointment – just contact me if that method for confession works better for you. In my last parish assignment as pastor of St. Gertrude's in Des Allemands, my cell phone number was on the front of the bulletin, and so, even though it isn't currently on the front of the St. Peter's bulletin, I'll give it to you now – (504) 442-9299. This can serve as the emergency/after hours phone number where I can be reached directly, primarily for emergency situations, and yet it can be used to make appointments with me for confession and other things since I make my appointments myself. Advent starts on December 1st this year – may we begin this new month and a new liturgical year with faith and hope for what the Lord Jesus will bring to us.

Pastor's Corner

Written by THE FAITHFUL

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

My brother-in-law inherited his father's company. Although he studied business in college, he knew years before receiving his degree that, provided he was faithful to his studies, he would have a comfortable job waiting for him after graduation. We may not all inherit the same economic opportunities as my brother-in-law, but, as Christians, we are heirs of infinitely greater spiritual ones. You are my inheritance, O Lord, the psalmist says. This phrase reveals the tremendous goodness of God who not only created us but who, in baptism, extended to us an invitation and a promise: provided we are faithful to him, we are heirs of eternal life. Nothing short of eternity will be sufficient to express our thanksgiving to him for this gift.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

Daniel's words in today's first reading remind us not only of the gratitude we owe to God but also of our responsibility to help souls who have gone astray from following him. Some shall live forever, the prophet says, but others shall be an everlasting horror and disgrace. The reality is that eternal life is not guaranteed us – not because God does not offer it freely, but because we are free to reject his offer. My brother-in-law, if he had neglected his studies in college, would never have equipped himself to run the family business. His father may have wholeheartedly desired to give the company to him, but doing so would have been irresponsible if his son did not want to take the helm. Likewise, God's mercy is abundant; but we can nevertheless say “no” to God by choosing not to follow him. As Christians seeking (although imperfectly) to follow the Lord, we have the dignity of cooperating with God in order to draw the souls who have gone astray back to him. By word, example, prayer, and sacrifice, we can help others experience the joy of knowing God in this life and of living forever with him in the next.

PRAY The Church especially devotes the month of November to praying for the souls in Purgatory. These individuals died in a state of friendship with God but are still in need of purification. God is indeed their inheritance, but they experience pain because they do not possess him yet. One way to remember to pray for the Holy Souls is to conclude grace before meals in this way: “Bless us, O Lord ... May the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.”
