Dear Parishioners,

On January 1, I will mark six months as pastor of St. Peter's & St. Hubert's. I can't really say that time has flown or that it seems a long time.

I guess because I'm in a very familiar place - back here in Reserve after over 45 years since going off to college for a year, and then to the seminary. Back in July 2017 I began my three-years as pastor at St. Hubert's in Garyville - a somewhat equally-familiar place since I grew up in Reserve. In late 2021, when Hurricane Ida damaged the rectory at St. Gertrude's where I was pastor, I moved in with my mother on Central Avenue and drove the 40-minute commute to Des Allemands every day for almost two years until I was able to move back into the repaired rectory. So for the past seven years, I have reconnected in a more direct way with my hometown, family, and longtime friends, and again, for the past six months, have literally become the pastor of my lifelong home church parish. As you may know, priests were not sent back to their home parishes for ministry because of the familiarity, and in small towns, that familiarity is even more heightened. But times and practices change, even in the Catholic Church, and here I am - literally back home and pastor of the parish where I, like almost all of you, received my initial sacraments. My return to St. Peter's and St. Hubert's has been a interesting yet good one for me, and yet your welcome and reception of me has been wonderful - I certainly knew that would be the case. There was only one or two other parishes that I was being considered for with the reassignment of pastors this past July, yet Archbishop Aymond chose me. With my knowledge and experience of both St. Hubert and St. Peter parishes, I feel I can be a good pastor and spiritual leader with the coming-together of the Reserve and Garyville communities. I'd like to conclude with a favorite Gospel passage of mine - the Annunciation. The Angel Gabriel tells Mary that nothing is impossible for God, and Mary responds that she is the handmaid of the Lord, and for His plan for her to take place in her life. I embraced Mary's words and am the servant of the Lord. May His will be done in me, according to His Word.

Feast of the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph

Sir 3:2-6, 12-14 | Col 3:12-21 | Lk 2:41-52

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

Compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness, and patience. These are the attributes Paul instructs the Colossians in today's reading to "put on" or to "clothe" themselves with. It's quite a list, isn't it? Paul goes on to talk about the virtues of the Christian family, which is fitting for today's Feast of the Holy Family. It is reasonable to expect, then, that the Gospel passage would follow through by expounding on the virtues of the perfect family: Jesus, Mary, and Joseph. Instead, in Luke's Gospel, we have the only story in all of Scripture of Jesus' childhood. The only one that shows the specific interactions of them as a family – it tells the story of Jesus at age 12 who stays in Jerusalem without Mary and Joseph knowing and who are unable to find him for days. Prayerfully reflecting on this unique glimpse of the Holy Family working through misunderstandings, fear, and hurt helps us relate even more to the true humanness of Jesus and the Holy Family.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

In the Holy Family, we see a model of relationship in human form. We are part of a holy family as well: we are children of God. And like Mary and Joseph, our family is enriched and strengthened when we are attentive to the presence of Jesus in our lives. Luke writes: "[Mary] kept all these things in her heart." Like Mary, let us strive to hold Jesus' words and commandments in our hearts so we can focus on God's divine plan for our lives. In the next line of Paul's letter offering us the "tools" for loving relationships (compassion ... patience) he adds, "bearing with one another and forgiving one another." In other words: love. We must put Jesus, who is love, at the center of our relationships and do everything in his name. Then our family, and our lives, will be holy indeed.

SING

*Mary, mother of faithful love;
Joseph, gentle and humble man of God;
Jesus, Son of Mary,
Bless, guide and protect the families you created.*
