Dear Parishioners,

In the third line of the second reading this weekend, St. Paul says that "there are different forms of service but the same Lord." We all know that people have different abilities, talents, and skills, and these can make up our service as the baptized, the people of God, the parishioners of our worshipping community. Certain abilities, talents, and skills of ours are certainly needed at the celebration of Mass, especially on the weekend and on holydays of obligation. The five major ministries – ways to be of service – at Mass are lectors, extraordinary ministers of Communion, vocal and instrumental musicians, altar servers, and ministers of hospitality/ushers. As we have begun a new liturgical year, and more recently, a new calendar year, and I'm still the new pastor, I would like to talk about more parishioner participation in these ministries. If reading in front of a group at Mass from the ambo appeals to you, then perhaps you may be called to be a lector. If distributing the Eucharist at Mass as you see other parishioners do, then perhaps you may be called to be a Eucharistic minister. If you can play the piano, have a strong solo voice, or would like to be part of a choir, perhaps you may be called to be part of the music at Masses. If you would like to be an altar server, no matter what your age, and to serve at Mass, especially when the school-age servers are literally in school, then perhaps you may be called to serving at Mass. If you would like to help with taking up the collection, recruiting gift bearers at the offertory, or welcoming parishioners as they enter the church, then you may be called to be a hospitality minister. Again, "different forms of service but the same Lord." I am simply "planting seeds" right now. Hopefully, more parishioner interest in these ministries may take root and begin to grow. Please talk to me about your interest if you feel the Holy Spirit is calling you to use your gifts.

Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

Pop quiz: What was the name of the bride and groom at the wedding in today's Gospel? If you're unsure, you're not alone; the bridegroom is mentioned only in passing and the names of the newlyweds are not recorded at all in Scripture. Instead, the most prominent man in the account is Jesus; the most prominent woman is his mother, the Blessed Virgin Mary. In light of today's first reading, this apparent omission begins to make sense. "As a young man marries a virgin," the prophet Isaiah writes, "your Builder shall marry you." Jesus is the "Builder" of the universe, the Word through whom all things were created. Mary, whom Jesus calls "Woman," stands as a representative of the Church. This image of God as Bridegroom of his people, common throughout the Old Testament, thus takes on its full significance in Christ. He is the Bridegroom who will "wed" himself to his Church irrevocably when he offers his life for her on the cross.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

It is clear that Scriptures give us many "stories behind the stories" – a sort of "visible invisible" as we see with today's Gospel of the Wedding at Cana. What we think is happening, and who we assume are the main characters, are important and yet also diminished beside the infinite and eternal, self-sacrificing love of God. How much of our own lives contains such stories of God's immense and great love for us, behind the scenes that play out day to day? The Lord gives us all good gifts, and he uses them to help us see, know, understand and love him. The smallest moment, or the most important detail, may not be recorded or remembered, but the generosity and irrevocable love of God will never fade and will always sustain us.

JOURNAL

Although God's love for us never diminishes, we sometimes struggle to maintain the enthusiasm of our earliest encounters with him. This week, create a spiritual "photo album" you can use to remind yourself of God's blessings in your life. Recall pivotal moments in your spiritual life, write them down in a notebook, and return to them with praise and thanksgiving whenever you feel your heart drifting from the Lord.
