Dear Parishioners,

The Oxford dictionary of the English language defines "integrity" as "the quality of being honest and having strong moral principles and uprightness," and is "the state of being whole and undivided." I think anyone with any self-respect would want to be a person of integrity or at least strive to be so. It goes without saying that a follower of Jesus who is brutally honest with himself/herself would embrace integrity as his/her way of life and try to avoid going back and forth from being whole and undivided to fragmented and split. Our patron saint, Peter, in the gospel this weekend, shows a bit of going back and forth by readily obeying Jesus' "command," as Peter puts it, but then tells, not asks, Jesus to depart, to leave him because of his sinfulness. Peter is certainly being honest about himself with Jesus, but Jesus already knows, as the Son of God, this fisherman Peter through and through yet still favors and blesses him with two overflowing boatloads of fish, and thus, a sizeable monetary profit. Jesus then responds to Peter by telling him not to be afraid and that he will be catching people, not fish, from then on. At this point, Peter, along with his brother Andrew and their business partners, James and John, make a decision for integrity and strive for "the state of being whole and undivided" in their rather instantaneous abandonment of their nets and boats to follow the Source of the miracle they just witnessed. What is our response to Jesus' invitation to us as far as following Him, who knows us through and through and our strengths and weaknesses too? Following Him starts with leaving the things in our lives that keep us from His presence, just as these four fishermen did. Doing this was risky, but soon they found out that they had made the right decision. They sought integrity, wholeness, and uprightness with undivided hearts. We can do that in our lives too. Peter was married, possibly had children, had a job, while Andrew, James, and John were also employed full-time. They are not so different from us except that they lived at a different time. Yet striving for integrity is a timeless goal--no matter who we are, what we do, our age or our health, wealth, or marital status. Let us follow His call.

Pastor's Corner

Is 6:1-2a, 3-8 | 1 Cor 15:1-11 | Lk 5:1-11

Written by
FAITHFUL

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

"Woe is me, I am doomed!" "I am the least of the apostles, not fit to be called an apostle." "Depart from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man." Do you notice a theme today? Each of these lines – taken from our readings – reveals the humbling reality that when humans stand in the glorious presence of God, we must confront the Truth, look at ourselves honestly, and recognize our sin. We are reminded of the Garden, when original sin disfigured human nature and Adam and Eve, realizing their nakedness, hid themselves from God. The story would be tragic if that had been the end. But in today's readings and in our own lives, the crippling effects of our sin are not the end. By becoming aware of our sin – agonizing though this may be – we invite the Lord in. It's the crack in the door that he will enter, bringing mercy and freedom found only in him.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

Each of today's readings shows how God's presence leads us to acknowledge our lack; however, that's only "step one." Notice what happens next in each instance. "Your wickedness is removed, your sin purged." "But by the grace of God I am what I am, and his grace to me has not been ineffective." "Jesus said to Simon, 'Do not be afraid.'" See how, in each example, hearts are transformed from shame and guilt to courage and confidence. The readings explain how as each person is freed, they are compelled to act boldly. So, what changed? The same thing that can happen in our own lives: as we acknowledge our sin, we open ourselves to the flow of grace. We allow the Lord to heal and free us, making us radiant and setting our hearts on fire with love.

PLAN

Choose one virtue you'd like to cultivate in order to root out a sinful habit. Then make a plan to practice that virtue. It can be as simple as "I will always pray to the Holy Spirit before I talk to that person at work who bothers me." Make sure your plan is: (1) specific ["I will never sin again" doesn't count], and (2) doable ["I will pray every day for six hours to grow in patience" is not possible for most people]. Finally, offer your plan to God and ask him for whatever strength, grace, and healing you need to grow in that virtue.
