Dear Parishioners,

As a parish priest, I have the responsibility to teach, preach, and guide the souls entrusted to my care in the ways of the Church, to be honest and truthful, and at the same time to be charitable, loving, and pastorally sensitive. This coming May 16 I will celebrate 38 years of priestly ministry, and I have tried to do my best in parish ministry with the help of Christ the High Priest. As such, I try to be faithful to my baptismal and my priestly calls, and all of us who are members of the Church by our baptismal call--clergy, religious, and the laity alike--are called to charity (love), sensitivity, honesty, and truthfulness. For all of us, this is a challenge that we can certainly accept and live if we heed the words of Scripture. The prophet Jeremiah in the first reading this weekend is truthful yet blunt: Cursed is the one who trusts in human beings...whose heart turns away from the Lord. Jeremiah is really speaking to those whose turning away from God is a longtime or lifelong state for them – those who have no need or use for God, Jesus, the Church, as shown by their complete neglect of the practice of their Catholic faith, despite the fact that they are baptized, confirmed, and have received the Eucharist in their childhood. In all truthfulness, many times the families of these people arrange for a visitation and funeral Mass in the church when they die. They had no need nor desire for the Church when they were living – why in death now is the Church so important? I'm really trying not to be judgmental, and "deathbed conversions" happen more than we may know, but throughout the illness that may result in their death, the priest/pastor is not even notified until the person has died or is literally taking their last breath. This is where we are called to move away from hypocrisy as far as we can. Those who are reading this item are not the hypocrites, yet the devil is always trying to lead us all with false and empty promises. The practice of our faith is what protects us from the weak and strong temptations of the devil to hold God at arm's length because we have better things to do in our lives than to go to church and practice our faith. We don't know what happens immediately after a person dies and they see Jesus face to face in their personal judgment, but we do know that His forgiveness is endless and generous. Jesus is still our judge as well as our brother, so let us strive to be faithful and consistent followers of Him who constantly calls us to Himself. May we constantly listen to His voice.

Pope Francis has called us as a global community to live with a spirit of pilgrimage throughout the year. To journey “with an open spirit, a trusting heart, a farsighted mission.” To make a pilgrimage. To pray. To offer works of justice and charity in the context of relationship with those in need. We, too, are invited to join the crowd as pilgrims of hope in this Jubilee Year 2025.

Throughout 2025, we will be conducting pilgrimages to the twelve sites around the New Orleans Archdiocese as designated “sacred sites” of the New Orleans Archdiocese. Encounter Christ – experience the transformative power of sacred spaces.

All are invited to participate. As arrangements are made, we as a community will have the opportunities to explore, meditate, reflect, worship, and tour the many beautiful sites right here in our Archdiocese.

First pilgrimage will be held at The National Votive Shrine of Our Lady of Prompt Succor 2701 State Street, New Orleans.

Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Jer 17:5-8 | 1 Cor 15:12, 16-20 | Lk 6:17, 20-26

Written by
THE

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

"It is so good to be poor, to have nothing, to await all from God!" These sentiments of the humble French religious sister St. Jeanne Jugan sum up the spirit of Jesus' words in today's Gospel. Jesus praises poverty, hunger, sadness, and rejection, but certainly not as ends in themselves; God does not take pleasure in our suffering! He does use our suffering, however, to awaken us to our need for him. Poverty can spur us to pursue heavenly goods, and thus Jesus assures the poor, "the kingdom of God is yours." Hunger can cause us to seek God who alone can truly satiate our desires, and thus Jesus says to the hungry, "you will be satisfied." Those who weep will laugh, Jesus says – so long as their sadness inspires them to seek happiness in the service of God and the joys of eternal life. For all of us, no matter our means or our circumstances, today's Gospel is a reminder to allow everything – including our difficulties, disappointments, and unfulfilled desires – to turn our hearts to God and rely on his loving care.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

It can be difficult to practice the spirit of the Beatitudes (as the "blessings" in today's Gospel are called) in the moment. Suffering, distress, and confusion easily divert our attention from God as we attempt to "make the problem go away." Sometimes we are even tempted to give up, to turn aside from God, and to seek consolation in other things. This is exactly the opposite of what he wants for us, and for good reason! God knows that it is best for us to always rely on him. This is why, as today's first reading explains, the man who trusts in the Lord is secure – "like a tree planted beside the waters ... it fears not the heat when it comes" – and fruitful – "its leaves stay green." For those who trust in the Lord, help comes from the all-powerful, infinitely loving Creator of the universe. When we entrust ourselves to him, we have nothing to fear.

ACCOMPANY

Is there someone in your life who is struggling with fear, loneliness, anxiety, or sadness? Take time to pray with that person and, together, try to discover God's invitation to a deeper reliance on him in the midst of the distress. These moments of suffering are never occasions for us to get "preachy." Instead, accompany your friend and be a reminder of the hope we have in God.
