Dear Parishioners,

This Wednesday, March 5, the 40-day season of Lent begins. We might and can say that we begin the observance of Lent. All of us are born with different levels of observation – that goes without saying – yet it is possible, and sometimes quite necessary, to sharpen our observation of various aspects of our lives. If we consider ourselves by virtue of our Baptism and the other Sacraments, members of the Church, then our ongoing observance of what it is that we do as Catholics is crucial and necessary, especially if we are going to be and feel united with our brothers and sisters as true members of the Catholic – which means universal – Church. The Lenten observances bring us to that awareness each year and are not so hard to remember or to do if we simply sharpen our observation skills when it comes what we are to be about during Lent as the Church – the Body of Christ on earth today. As a reminder, Ash Wednesday and all the Fridays of Lent, including Good Friday, are days of abstinence from beef, poultry, pork and game meats. In addition, on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday, the Church asks us to fast as well – to eat only one full meal with two or more smaller portions eaten on those days, as our health/diet situations allow, so that we might be aware of Jesus' sacrifice for us and share in that sacrifice in this traditional practice of the Church. Lenten practices/observances are not complicated today, as some may remember from decades past, and what I have spelled out above is the current observance/practice that Rome encourages us to participate in as best we can. We are the ones who benefit from these observances - these practices that have been part of our Catholic heritage for so many centuries. Being a follower of Jesus, a Catholic Christian especially, is not a "do-your-own-thing" way of relating to the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. The season of Lent unites us in our diversity and calls us to observances that have proven manageable and doable all these years.

Pastor's Corner

Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Sir 27:4-7 | 1 Cor 15:54-58 | Lk 6:39-45

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

It can be uncomfortable to admit, but our speech habits can truly reveal our interior life. Too often, I've fallen prey to the temptation of gossip or other alluring but unbecoming forms of conversation. Perhaps we all have to some degree, which is why today's words from Sirach capture our attention: "When a sieve is shaken, the husks appear; so do one's faults when one speaks." This theme of speech being connected to our hearts is woven throughout Scripture, and it both challenges and encourages us. Before God came to us in the flesh, he came to us as the Word. Our words carry eternal weight; they have the power to bless or to curse. For this reason, the Scriptures today challenge us to seek the guidance of the Holy Spirit, our Advocate, in order to grow in virtue so that our speech may reflect his glory and our words echo his truth.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

In today's parable from Luke's Gospel, Jesus asks, "Why do you notice the splinter in your brother's eye, but do not perceive the wooden beam in your own?" Ouch. Am I the only one who shifts uncomfortably when reading this? How often and how easily do we fixate on the way others have caused us frustration, discomfort, or hurt? While those things may (or may not) be true, it feels so easy to dismiss personal responsibility. In this passage, Jesus lovingly teaches us that when we live this way, we remain stuck in our patterns of sin. But he also gives us another option: "Remove the wooden beam from your eye first; then you will see clearly." It is through this honest examination of conscience and cleansing of our own sin that we come to know God more fully, and as our vision is cleared, become more aware of how his beauty and mercy surround us.

REFLECT

Today, let us pray for a deeper personal conversion through an honest examination of conscience, so that as we empty ourselves from our sinful ways, we may become more tethered to God's holy will, speaking his truth and living in his light. Commit to praying an Act of Contrition each day this week and ask the Holy Spirit to help you grow in virtue.
