Pastor's Corner

My dear parishioners,

On this Second Sunday of Lent, Catholics all over the world hear the story of the Transfiguration of Jesus in the Gospel today. It is said that this event on Mount Tabor took place forty days before Jesus' Passion, Death, and Resurrection as a preview of the glory that would come to Him from His obedience to God the Father and in His love for us, shown in His Crucifixion. The actual time of the Transfiguration is not as important as the vision Jesus was giving to Peter, James, and John, and we might wonder why Jesus didn't have all 12 of the Apostles present for this glorious manifestation of the divinity of Jesus of Nazareth, but we have to trust Jesus' decision in only bringing these three up the mountain with Him. This event also reminds us that we don't have to always have something to say when we have an encounter with God, as Peter felt he had to comment on the vision instead of just taking in what Jesus was revealing to them. Jesus doesn't even respond to Peter's statement, indicating that it's not pertinent to the vision. We can apply this lesson to our personal prayer time: our silence, along with the prayers we may pray out loud or to ourselves, should be an integral part, no matter how short or long we may be silent. This silence on our part allows us to hear what the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit have to say to us, and if we don't leave time for listening, we won't hear or receive what They may have to say to us. Not that we are going to always hear a specific message or instructions, but we can't hear what God has to tell us if we're always talking in the prayer time. Our silence also applies to our adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, whether the Host is exposed or we're simply sitting in the church with the closed tabernacle. I will be the first to say that this silence during prayer doesn't happen at the snap of a finger or overnight – to be silent during our personal prayer time takes work and patience with ourselves and God. Because prayer is a conversation with God, we must let God respond and talk too, just as a conversation between two people is not just one person talking constantly. The verb, converse, literally means to talk with, not to talk to. If we strive for silence in our prayer time, if we're not doing it already, God will help us to listen to Him. The key is to always strive to pray, first and foremost – conversing with God.

Fr. Ray

Second Sunday of Lent

Written by THE FAITHFUL
DISCIPLE

Gn 15:5-12, 17-18 | Phil 3:17-4:1 | Lk 9:28b-36

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

As humans, we are often burdened with heavy crosses. Experiences of loss, lack, failure, and betrayal can riddle our existence, leaving us fatigued and with a weary question in our hearts: What is this all for? And then, we look up. We raise our gaze and see before us the transfigured face of Christ. Having taken on our human form, Jesus stands before us in radiant glory. As we take in the scene, our senses mingling somewhere between admiration and alarm, we remember the promise he made to us. The promise that we, too, will be made new. The promise that our bodies will also be redeemed, and our burdens will be relieved. And as we remember, we respond, like the disciples, “It is good that we are here.” The life of discipleship, at times, can seem to require more than it rewards. But in these moments of intimate encounter, when we see glimpses of Jesus’ beautiful face, he reminds us why we are here on this mountain: to love, to serve, and eventually to reap our eternal reward.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

We see why we are here on the mountain, but today’s readings also reveal a weighty reality: before we are transformed, we must climb that mountain. The whole story of Jesus’ life is this: before a promise is fulfilled, sacrifice is offered. Our human existence, without the mercy and mission given us by Christ, is empty. But taking up the cross of Christ and following him toward glory, we find our purpose. Earth is our pilgrimage, and our journey will most certainly be punctuated by peaks and valleys. But today, St. Paul reminds us in his Letter to the Philippians that we won’t be carrying around these crosses forever. Though strapped with suffering for a time, we know our eternal destination: “Our citizenship is in heaven.”

REFLECT

Lent is inherently a season of waiting for the fulfillment of a promise. In our own lives, we may be aching for transformation, perhaps for ourselves, or for another. Remember: God enters deeply into our lives, dwelling so intimately with us that he syncs his every breath with ours. Take the next week to think and pray about how the Lord may be asking you to be transformed. Pray today’s Psalm each day, and “Wait for the Lord with courage.”
