Dear Parishioners,

Some medical conditions that people are diagnosed with can be greatly improved or even cured by the active role the patient takes in the treatment of and the living with the particular disease/diagnosis. High blood pressure requires weight management, proper diet and exercise. Lung/respiratory problems in smokers will certainly improve if they stop smoking. Those with congestive heart failure and fluid retention must watch their sodium intake if they want to have a close-to-normal life. Weight management, exercise, adherence to a healthy diet, and quitting smoking are things that people must decide to do and actually do themselves – no one else can do these things for them – if they are going to improve their health and possibly reverse the disease. Jesus talks about this in the Gospel this Sunday with the example of the fig tree and the gardener. Jesus is the Master Gardener, and we are the fig trees. Jesus pleads our cause with God His Father, the Orchard Owner, who wants to have the “unfruitful” fig tree cut down. Jesus asks God to give Him some time to “work on us,” as a master gardener would work on a plant or tree to bring it to full health.. In the case of us “non-plants,” we can readily respond to the help and cultivation of Jesus, who will go to great lengths – has gone to a great length already on the cross – to bring us to our full potential as His brothers and sisters and as sons and daughters of God. But unlike the fig tree in the Gospel, we can be active and take an active and responsive part in the care that Jesus the Master Gardener is constantly giving to us. If God the Orchard Owner eventually calls for one “to be cut down,” even after Jesus’ intervention, then whose fault will that be? Similarly, if we ignore the directions of doctors who treat us and then our health declines and we prematurely die, then whose fault is that? The health of our souls requires our attention throughout our lives. Since we don’t know when God will call us from this earth, let us respond regularly to Jesus’s treatment. That treatment begins with regular Confession, Mass attendance. and Communion, and our parish church is the clinic where we find them. Please keep your “clinic” appointments!

Third Sunday of Lent

Ex 3:1-8a, 13-15 | 1 Cor 10:1-6, 10-12 | Lk 13:1-9

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

Meaningful human relationships rarely last if only one party makes an effort to maintain a connection. The same is true in our relationship with God. In the scene recorded in today's first reading – arguably one of human history's "Top Ten" most important events – God takes the initiative, but the encounter is two-sided. God causes the bush to burn and Moses approaches; God calls Moses and he responds, "Here I am!"; finally, Moses asks God his name and God reveals himself as "I am who am." Moses' cooperation with God throughout is essential for them to arrive at this monumental revelation which would allow Moses (and, by extension, all of the Israelites) to call upon God by name. Despite our many technological achievements, a free, generous, loving response to God's initiative is still the only "fruit" we can bear for him that he cannot procure himself. This is the fruit which the fig tree in Jesus' Gospel parable is meant to produce. If we truly desire and seek this relationship, God will reveal himself to us so that, no matter our stage or state of life, we can bear this fruit even now.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

In his encounter with God, Moses exhibits an exemplary combination of boldness and humility which teaches us how we should approach our relationship with God. This is our “roadmap” which will help us fertilize the “ground” of our hearts. Consider Moses’ bold, inquisitive spirit: “I must go over to look at this remarkable sight,” and his prompt response to God’s call: “Here I am!” Consider the audacity Moses must have had to ask God for his name. At the same time, however, consider his humility in removing the sandals from his feet and hiding his face before the majesty of God. The God who revealed himself to Moses is the same God who invites us into relationship with him. We can and should have Moses’ boldness to ask God to teach us about himself. But we should also approach God with a spirit of reverence and awe. Our humility will be the fertile soil that God can use to make us his intimate friends and his representatives before others.

LISTEN

Sometimes we have habits or attitudes that prevent us from hearing God's voice. Like Moses removing his sandals, choose something you can forgo this week (for example, social media or music in the car) so that you can hear and respond to the Lord. Make sure you dedicate your extra quiet time to talking to God.
