Dear Parishioners,

It is obvious why Palm Sunday is titled the way it is: Jesus rode into Jerusalem on a donkey for the Passover, while many of His fellow Jews waved palm branches and shouted "Hosanna to the Son of David!" Blessed palms are taken home by Mass-goers today. On Ash Wednesday, blessed ashes, from burned blessed palms leftover from the year before, were applied to our foreheads, giving the name to this first day of Lent. The distinction between sacramentals and sacraments needs to be brought to our attention always, and it is important that a sacramental is never given more importance than a sacrament. Two good examples: A person should not be upset that he or she is not able to go to Mass and receive ashes on any given Ash Wednesday for various reasons. Ash Wednesday is not a holyday of obligation, nor are ashes on our foreheads on Ash Wednesday a "religious" requirement. If one can attend Mass on Ash Wednesday, that's commendable, but it's not required, as are the "forehead" ashes. Palm Sunday, however, is a Sunday, and therefore a day of obligation like any other Sunday, but bringing home a blessed palm is not a requirement – what happens when a church runs out of palms for some reason? The ashes and the palms are sacramentals, and thus, supplemental to our faith and not requirements. A further illustration: A person who makes sure he or she goes to church on Ash Wednesday simply to receive ashes but does not go weekly or at all to Mass is really missing the point, in the same way that the person who makes sure that he or she gets a "nice beautiful palm" on Palm Sunday, but never goes to Mass any other time is missing the point as well. The Blessed Sacrament and Mass, the celebration of the Sacrament, are the really important and crucial things of our Catholicism, and blessed ashes, palms, rosaries, candles, holy cards, Miraculous Medals, and statues are all important but quite secondary. I am in no way downplaying or discouraging sacramentals but putting them where they belong in our faith lives and in our faith journeys. Just as we can't physically survive only on vitamin supplements, so we can't spiritually survive only on sacramentals. We need Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament and we receive Him first and best in the Mass.

Palm Sunday of the Lord's Passion

Written by
THE FAITHFUL
DISCIPLE

Is 50:4-7 | Phil 2:6-11 | Lk 22:14—23:56

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

More than any other time of year, we are able to follow the actual events of Jesus' life this week according to the sequence in which they occurred. Today's procession with palms honors his entry into Jerusalem, where he would prepare to celebrate the Passover with his disciples. We can imagine Jesus spending the subsequent days preaching in the Temple and the nights conversing with his Father in prayer. Then, on Thursday, the Mass of the Lord's Supper will inaugurate the Triduum, the time which commemorates Jesus' passion, death, and resurrection. The Church places these events before our eyes each year as an invitation to enter as fully as possible into Jesus' mind and heart during Holy Week. Even if we regret not being more faithful to the goals we established at the beginning of Lent, we can still seize the opportunity of this week to accompany Jesus as he prepares to die for love of us.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

The crowds of followers who welcomed Jesus into Jerusalem triumphantly today will be silent by Friday. Among his closest disciples, all will fall asleep during his prayer of agony on the Mount of Olives. Peter himself, who says on Holy Thursday, "I am prepared to go to prison and to die with you," will deny three times that he knew Jesus. The chief priests and scribes (who, one would think, should have recognized the Messiah) will deliver him to Pilate to be crucified. In each of these examples, love for Jesus (or, in the case of the priests and scribes, fidelity to God) is tested and found wanting during Holy Week. Of course, we know that Jesus still proceeded to die so that salvation would be available to all of these people. He likewise made it possible for every future generation – including our own – to return to him in moments when we find our own love wanting. We do this by turning away from sin and seeking his forgiveness, especially in the sacrament of confession. Therefore, let us, who have acclaimed Jesus as king today, keep him as king of our hearts – not only this week, but every day of our lives.

WORSHIP

Rich in solemnity and symbolism, the Triduum liturgies of Holy Thursday, Good Friday, and Holy Saturday allow us to accompany Jesus during these difficult days and express to him our love. Try to attend as many of these liturgies as your schedule allows and enter fully into Jesus' experience of Holy Week this year.
