Dear Parishioners,

As children of God and brothers and sisters of Jesus, we always need to be mindful that we do not know ourselves or anything else better than God does. I say this because I sometimes hear someone say that they couldn't be forgiven for a sin that they've committed or that it would take a week in the confessional for this person to go to confession. These two beliefs are the farthest from the truth. First, a person has to have the desire to want to be forgiven by Jesus, and also has to believe and know that Jesus can forgive any sin that we express sorrow for, no matter how horrible we might think it is. All we need do is to read and understand the Gospel today, the Third Sunday of Easter – Year C – and see the overwhelming greatness of the forgiveness of Jesus and His true Divine Mercy. Peter has denied Jesus three times after being told plainly by Jesus that he would do so, and this is the third time that Peter and the other Apostles meet with the Risen Jesus. It is at this third meeting in which Jesus brings up Peter's triple denial. The Risen Jesus asks Peter three times, "Do you love Me?" – mirroring Peter's triple denial right after the Last Supper. This gives Peter the opportunity to "undo" the three lies of saying that he didn't know Jesus at all, by telling Jesus that he truly loves Him, and thus is sorry for lying and denying out of fear. If Peter, a fully human being just like us, can be forgiven for blatantly denying Jesus three times after being told/warned that he would do so, then why would someone think that he or she could not be forgiven for the same or for an equally "bad" sin? The only way Jesus' forgiveness is not given to us is if we are not sorry or repentant of our sins, and that wouldn't be Jesus' failure to forgive – it would be our failure to be sorry and to want reconciliation. Jesus' forgiveness' and Divine Mercy are there for us – all the time and as much as we need. All we need do tell Jesus that we are sorry and that we love Him when He asks us.

Third Sunday of Easter

Acts 5:27-32, 40b-41 | Rev 5:11-14 | Jn 21:1-19

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

Underlying Peter's simple statement in today's Gospel, "I am going fishing," is an ocean of sadness. This leader of the Apostles was once so eager and self-assured that he declared to Jesus, "Even though I should have to die with you, I will not deny you." (Mt 26:35) But we know the story: At the decisive moment, Peter yielded under pressure and three times denied that he even knew Jesus. Now, after witnessing his Master's arrest and execution, Peter, whom Jesus called to leave his nets to be a fisher of men (see Mt 4:19), returns to his old profession. And even there he sustains another failure: he can't catch any fish! Swimming to shore, the ever-impulsive Apostle discovers that Jesus had already procured fish for breakfast without his help. Imagine Peter's consternation: my vocation as an Apostle, my career as a fisherman, my professed willingness to die for the Lord – everything I thought I could hang my hat on – were pretense and illusion.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

In our relationship with God, we are at times beset by the reality of our own weaknesses and apparent failures. But for Peter as for us, despondency does not have to have the final word. In one of the most intimate exchanges in the Gospels, Jesus heals Peter's self-inflicted wound. "Simon, son of John, do you love me?" the Lord asks three times. What Jesus desires from the Apostle is not eloquent declarations of courage; he wants Peter's love; he wants his heart: conscious of its frailty and humble enough to be led where it does not want to go. Neither Peter's day job nor his grandiose spiritual aspirations are useful to the Lord if Peter has not first surrendered himself to God. This is because only a heart which belongs to God and draws its strength from him can bear fruit for the kingdom of heaven. Such is likewise true for us, often so anxious about tomorrow or preoccupied with our attempts to "earn" God's love. Our primary responsibility, without which none of our other labors will be fruitful, is to give our hearts completely to him.

PRAY

Repetition is the mother of learning. Three times, Jesus asked Peter to renew his love – perhaps, in part, to convince Peter! This week, offer your heart to God as soon as you get up in the morning. You could even use Peter's words: "Lord, you know that I love you." By making this a habit, you invite God's grace and strength to make each day's actions fruitful.
